

Narrative Statement Regarding Outreach

Since the FCC's rules have gone into effect on March 10th, 2003, the Station's employment unit has implemented two supplemental outreach activities, as provided by Section 73.2080(c)(2).

During this reporting period, March 22, 2007 – March 21, 2008 there were zero full time job vacancies. WLJC routinely advertises full-time job vacancies on its website www.wljc.com and in the Three Forks Tradition Newspaper, a popular local newspaper. Furthermore, the Station will expand its recruitment efforts by routinely posting job vacancies on various web sites that should reach a broader base of applicants, for example the Kentucky Broadcaster's Association's web site, www.kba.org.

The station engaged in supplemental outreach activities that help provide information about opportunities in broadcasting in general. For example, during the fall of 2007, the station's internship program provided two high school students the opportunity to learn about, and gain experience with television production and operations. The internship is for high school students, and draws from the local high school. In addition, the station in conjunction with the Kentucky Higher Education assistance Authority (KHEAA) participated in a $1000.00 scholarship program that was designed to supplement one student's higher education opportunity in the broadcast industry.

The station also provides training to its managers and supervisors on preventing discrimination and harassment in the work place and in interviewing techniques designed to build a more diverse work force. On June 20-21, 2007, management personnel participated in a seminar on equal employment opportunities and preventing discrimination in the workplace sponsored by the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce. Participants learned how to choose the right candidate to build a diverse team. This station is an equal opportunity employer. It is the policy of this station not to discriminate in its employment and personnel practices because of a person's race, color, creed, national origin, gender, or age.

SUPPLEMENTAL RECRUITMENT INITIATIVES

ACTIVITY # 1

Activity: Work Training Internship Program

Date: September 2007 – December 2007 Preparer: Rachel Bogale

Host/sponsor of Activity: Lee County Vocational School

Participating Station Personnel: Kim Mitchell

Description of activity and scope of station participation:

WLJC joined with the Lee county Vocational School to provide an internship program. During the fall semester of 2007, two high school students, Jarred Adams and Emily Lane, were selected for the program. The participants worked 5 days per week at the WLJC broadcast facility from 7pm – 8:00pm. Our production staff trained and provided the participants with valuable learning experience through job shadowing and work experience. The participants also received broadcast training in audio and video editing.

PART 3

SUPPLEMENTAL RECRUITMENT INITIATIVES

ACTIVITY # 2

Activity: Scholarship

Date: September 2007 Preparer: Rachel Bogale

Host/sponsor of Activity: WLJC / KHEAA

Participating Station Personnel: Jonathan Drake

Description of activity and scope of station participation:

WLJC offered a $1000.00 scholarship to a graduating senior who had been accepted to an accredited higher education institute with a major in Broadcasting. The application was posted on the WLJC website www.wljc.com and listed in the directory of the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority (KHEAA). The Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority (KHEAA) is a public corporation and governmental agency of the Commonwealth established in 1966 to improve students' access to higher education. To that end, KHEAA administers several financial aid programs and disseminates information about higher education opportunities.
