

Narrative Statement Regarding Outreach

Since the FCC's rules have gone into effect on March 10th, 2003, the Station's employment unit has implemented two supplemental outreach activities, as provided by Section 73.2080(c)(2).

During this reporting period, March 22, 2009 – March 21, 2010 there were zero full time job vacancies. WLJC routinely advertises full-time job vacancies on its website www.wljc.com and in the Three Forks Tradition Newspaper, a popular local newspaper. Furthermore, the Station will expand its recruitment efforts by routinely posting job vacancies on various web sites that should reach a broader base of applicants, for example the Kentucky Broadcaster's Association's web site, www.kba.org.

The station engaged in supplemental outreach activities that help provide information about opportunities in broadcasting in general. For example, during the fall of 2009, the station's internship program provided two students the opportunity to learn about, and gain experience with television production and operations. The internship is for high school students, and draws from the local high schools. In addition, the station in conjunction with the Kentucky Higher Education assistance Authority (KHEAA) participated in a $1000.00 scholarship program that was designed to supplement one student's higher education opportunity in the broadcast industry.

PART 3

SUPPLEMENTAL RECRUITMENT INITIATIVES

ACTIVITY # 2

Activity: Work Training Internship Program

Date: November 2009      Preparer: Rachel Bogale

Host/sponsor of Activity: WLJC

Participating Station Personnel: Jonathan Drake

Description of activity and scope of station participation:

WLJC implemented an internship program. During November 2009, two students were selected for the program. The participants, Megan Roach and Jenny Hall, worked 6 days per week at the WLJC broadcast facility from 6p-9pm. Our production staff provided the participants with valuable learning experience through job shadowing and work experience. The participants received training in database entry, phone operations, and "live" television production.
