ISSUES

WHCL-FM 88.7 FM provides it's listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- FIRE PREVENTION- With the Adirondacks so close by and camping being so popular, it's important to remember about fire safety and prevention.
- DISASTER PREPERATION- With such mega disasters as 9-11 and Hurricane Katrina affecting so many people, what can a business or a person do to prepare for a disaster?
- EDUCATION- We look at outcomes for students with liberal educations in an interview series with alumni of Hamilton College.
- CRIME- From school yard bullies to major crimes what can listeners do to protect themselves and their families?
- HEALTH- With a growing percentage of Americans becoming over-weight, what can a person do to live healthier?

SECTION I

LOCAL PROGRAMMING

Section I lists regularly scheduled and special programs that represent the station's issue responsive programming providing the most significant treatment of the issues listed for this calendar quarter.

Had I Known

Host: David Bolger '99

Had I Know is on hiatus.

From Where I Sit

Hosts: Keshav Rai, Khuslen (T) Tulga, Jonathan Rodriguez

Description: "From Where I Sit" is a platform designed for international and underrepresented individuals to discuss their life experiences and voice their opinions on culture, current affairs, and the nature of life from their point of view. The show serves as a platform to empower silenced voices and highlight the experience of life through the perspective of individuals outside of the American mainstream. We address issues on and off campus and invite guest speakers to further diversify our perspectives on certain topics.

Episodes:

| Air Date | Guest(s) | Episode Description |
|-----------------|-----------------|--|
| 02/17/23 | None | Impending graduation, hosts Khuslen, Jon, and Keshav discuss the impact Hamilton has had on them as internationals and POCs during their time on the Hill. They discuss how they found themselves at the college, what the environment is like and whether they are about leave with adequate preparation for the real world. Topics of immigration and the difficulty of being an international and living in different cultures are discussed. |
| 02/24/23 | None | Hosts Khuslen and Jon take over the show to play music from their home cultures of Mongolia and Mexico. They discuss their musical inspirations and how their music tastes formed over time. Some nostalgic songs are played as the pair reflect on the evolution of their friendship and the ability of the modern world to bring people from distinct cultures and countries together in unusual ways. |
| 03/03/23 | | Host Keshav takes over the show to play music from across the pond, highlighting seldom heard London-based artist-producers who make US chart topping hits for popstars, older stars like Genesis and Kate Bush, as well as the genre-bending UK Grime/Hip-Hop/R&B scene. He discusses the influence of contemporary music culture in the UK that has historically been heard throughout popular American music, even if |
