She says that she has a good record when it comes to both promoting business growth as well as protecting the environment. She says that when it comes to the proposed bus rapid transit system, she is unsure if it will be viable for the city, but is willing to wait for the final report from the consultants to see if she could support it. She also said measures are being taken to see if electric rates can be lowered for GRU customers.
	Gainesville City Commissioner-District 3
2/16/2014	Sadie Darnell	6:20:00 AM until 6:40:00 AM	New Developments in Tiffany Sessions Case	Authorities have identified the probable suspect in the abduction & presumed murder of Tiffany Sessions. Ms. Sessions went missing in 1989 & there were few leads to go on. Authorities have identified a man who died in prison a year ago as the most likely suspect in the case. The Sheriff's Office also had heavy equipment brought into an area in SW Gainesville where they believe Ms. Sessions remains may be. So far, no remains have been found. Since the primary (and only) suspect is deceased, authorities are hopeful that any other people who may know anything about the case may now come forward.

2/23/2014	Cheri Brodeur	6:00:00 AM until 6:13:00 AM	City Election	Ms. Brodeur is one of 3 candidates seeking the District 2 seat on the Gainesville City Commission (incumbent Todd Chase is running for re-election -- Sheryl Eddie is the other candidate). Ms Brodeur says that there is too much money being poured into campaigns - so she is not accepting any donations. Rather, she is going door to door in the district meeting residents & talking to them about their concerns. The election will be held on Tuesday March 11
	Candidate - Gainesville City Commission - District
2/23/2014	Sheryl Eddie	6:14:00 AM until 6:28:00 AM	Election in Gainesville	Ms Eddie is seeking the District 2 seat on the Gainesville City Commission (incumbent Todd Chase is running for re-election - Cheri Brodeur is the other candidate). Ms Eddie said she doesn't feel that Mr Chase has dome a bad job, but she feels that she can work better with the commission as it is currently structured. She says that there is too much of a political divide & too much hostility between liberal & conservative ideologies on the commission. She says that she can work to help unite the sides with common sense solutions when it comes to issues concerning energy, transportation, the environment & the economy. The election is March 11
	Candidate - Gainesville City Commission
2/23/2014	Annie Orlando	6:29:00 AM until 6:44:00 AM	Election Day	Ms. Orlando is one of 5 candidates seeking the At Large #2 seat on the Gainesville City Commission. Current Commissioner Thomas Hawkins has served 2 terms & is not able to run for a 3rd. Ms. Orlando says she is concerned about the controversail biomass plant & what it is doing to rate payers of Gainesville Regional Utilities. Election Day is March 11
	Candidate - Gainesville City Commission

2/23/2014	Craig Carter	6:45:00 AM until 6:59:00 AM	Election Day	Mr. Carter is running for the District 3 seat on the Gainesville City Commission. The seat is currently held by Susan Bottcher (who is running for reelection). Mr. Carter says that as a business owner, he understands how difficult it is to get a business started in the city & that there needs to be a more streamlined process to assist businesses when it comes to getting started. He also says that the high power rates that GRU charges (highest in the state for businesses) keeps more jobs out of the city. The election is March 11

3/2/2014	Lee Pinkoson	6:00:00 AM until 6:20:00 AM	Proposed Road/Transportation Tax	Commissioner Pinkoson discussed the proposed transportation tax for a November ballot. The county wants to add a 1 cent sales tax with the money raised to ease the $550 million backlog in road repair projects. The county is concerned about what the city of Gainesville wants to do. In 2012, the city wanted more of the tax revenue to pay for new busses and bike lanes and when the county rejected that idea, city officials campaigned against the tax (it failed). The county wants the city to determine what they will support before the county moves forward with a proposal.

3/23/2014	Todd Chase  Gainesville City Commissioner - District 2	6:36:00 AM until 6:46:00 AM	Election Win	Commissioner Todd Chase won re-election on March 11 for a second term on the city commission. He talked about how he tries to leave national politics out of his discussions because he feels that leads to too much of the left/right divide on the city commission. He encouraged voters to go out on April 8 for the run-off election. He said he hopes to continue to resolve the issues involving GRU & the biomass plant.
3/23/2014	Margot Wilder  Dir. Of Development - Child Advocacy Center	6:46:00 AM until 6:59:00 AM	Wing Bowl Fundraiser	The Child Advocacy Center works with various agencies in the community to protect children when there are allegations & cases of child abuse. They provide services to protect the children so they are not being interviewed/interrogated by several different agencies, but rather bring those agencies to one location & have the child questioned once in a more comfortable environment. On April 8, they will be having a fundraiser at Splitz bowling alley - Wing Bowl - a chicken wing eating contest will pit various community celebrities against eachother - and the public is invited to buy tickets to watch (they will also get some wings to eat in a non-competitive fashion). The proceeds raised will benefit the Child Advocacy Center.

2/23/2014	Craig Carter	6:45:00 AM until 6:59:00 AM	Election Day	Mr. Carter is running for the District 3 seat on the Gainesville City Commission. The seat is currently held by Susan Bottcher (who is running for reelection). Mr. Carter says that as a business owner, he understands how difficult it is to get a business started in the city & that there needs to be a more streamlined process to assist businesses when it comes to getting started. He also says that the high power rates that GRU charges (highest in the state for businesses) keeps more jobs out of the city. The election is March 11

3/9/2014	Barbara Ruth	6:00:00 AM until 6:18:00 AM	Election Day	Barbara Ruth is one of 5 candidates seeking the At Large #2 seat on the Gainesville City Commission. Current Commissioner Thomas Hawkins has served 2 terms & is not able to run for a 3rd. Ms Ruth says as a long time resident of the city, she knows what it needs and how to help get things done on the city commission. Election Day is March 11.
	Candidate Gainesville City Commission
3/9/2014	Susan Bottcher	6:19:00 AM until 6:38:00 AM	Re-election Bid	Susan Bottcher is running for re-election for the District 3 seat on the Gainesville City Commission. She says that she has a good record when it comes to both promoting business growth as well as protecting the environment. She says that when it comes to the proposed bus rapid transit system, she is unsure if it will be viable for the city, but is willing to wait for the final report from the consultants to see if she could support it. She also said measures are being taken to see if electric rates can be lowered for GRU customers.
	Gainesville City Commissioner
3/9/2014	Todd Chase	6:39:00 AM until 6:58:00 AM	Re-election Bid	Commissioner Chase is running for re-election for his District 2 seat. He says it is important for city residents to vote - especially if they are concerned about the biomass plant & the increased electricity rates. He says he is working with GRU to see if there are options in lowering electric rates. There are also transportation issues concerning busses, rapid transit & shrinking lanes of traffic on city roads.
	Gainesville City Commissioner

3/23/2014	Ed Braddy  Mayor - City of Gainesville	6:15:00 AM until 6:35:00 AM	City Politics	Mayor Braddy gave the latest information on the biomass contract and what can be done to try to alleviate the rate hikes on GRU power customers. He also talked about his hopes that the upcoming election could provide a better dialog among commissioners about issues concerning energy, transportation.
3/23/2014	Todd Chase  Gainesville City Commissioner - District 2	6:36:00 AM until 6:46:00 AM	Election Win	Commissioner Todd Chase won re-election on March 11 for a second term on the city commission. He talked about how he tries to leave national politics out of his discussions because he feels that leads to too much of the left/right divide on the city commission. He encouraged voters to go out on April 8 for the run-off election. He said he hopes to continue to resolve the issues involving GRU & the biomass plant.
3/30/2014	Sadie Darnell  Sheriff - Alachua County	6:02:00 AM until 6:29:00 AM	Law Enforcement Issues	Sheriff Darnell gave the latest update in the search for Tiffany Sessions. Sessions disappeared in 1989 - and at this time is presumed dead. Recently, officials have identified the man who is the most likely suspect in her disappearance. He died in prison last year.
