Date	Guest/Title	Time	Topic Discussed	Summary
10/5/2014	Becky Butscher Sgt & PIO - Alachua County Sheriff's Office	7:05:00 AM until 7:29:00 AM	Public Safety	Sgt. Butscher talked about student safety around the UF Campus. She said that often students feel like they are insulated from crime, but they need to be more aware of their surroundings. She also gave some holiday safety tips, including to have boxes sent to your job so thieves don't see a bunch of boxes sitting in front of your empty house while you are at work all day
10/5/2014	Keith Perry State Rep - District 21	7:32:00 AM until 7:58:00 AM	Re-election Campaign	Keith Perry is the state rep for district 21 which covers western Alachua County, and all of Gilchrist & Dixie Counties. He talked about the $500M in tax cuts during the last legislative session & his hopes of cutting property taxes this session. He also said he is against the proposed Amendment 2 (Medical Marijuana). He says the legislature already passed the non-THC "Charlotte's Web" strain to help kids who have seizures.
10/12/2014	Jon Uman Candidate - Florida House District 21	7:04:00 AM until 7:28:00 AM	Election Campaign	Jon Uman is running for the state house district 21 seat in the legislature. He says he wants to help the people he feels are being ignored by the current legislature. He says there needs to be more money put into education and that the governor & legislature should take the budget surplus & give it back to teachers & other state employees who saw their salaries reduced by 3% since the 2010 election. Uman will face the incumbent Keith Perry on November 4
10/12/2014	Bobby Schultz & Michelle Jones Sheriff (Schultz) & Sgt (Jones) Gilchrist Co Sheri	7:32:00 AM until 7:58:00 AM	Gilchrist Fun Fest	On Saturday October 25 the Gilchrist County Sheriff's Office will be holding a family event called the Gilchrist Fun Fest. There will be plenty of activities for kids, a cake auction, free food for the kids. There will also be a K9 demonstration & a taser demonstration. The goal of the Gilchrist Fun Fest is to have the police interact with the community in a positive way. Proceeds raised will go to the Florida Sheriff's Youth Ranch. The event is Saturday October 25 from 11a - 4p
10/19/2014	Sgt Becky Butscher Sergeant & PIO at Alachua County Sheriff's Office	7:05:00 AM until 7:28:00 AM	Scams & Safety	Sgt. Butscher talked about a couple of scams going on in Alachua County. In one scam, a woman is going door to door asking people for money to go visit her sick mother. ACSO officials are concerned that she can also be looking inside your home to possibly rob it later. There is another scam they are calling the Green Dot Scam in which businesses are being called by someone claiming to be from Gainesville Regional Utilities saying that the bill is due & they were going to shut off power if they did not go to a store, get a loadable debit card, put money on it & give them the account number.

11/2/2014	Ted Yoho	7:04:00 AM until 7:15:00 AM	Re-election Campaign	Congressman Yoho talked about his first term in office - and what he would like to do should he be elected to a second term. He said that the biggest problem that the House of Representatives is having is that the Senate is not moving on bills that have passed through the House. Yoho said that if the Republicans can gain control of the Senate, that several bills will at least make it to President Obama's desk.
	US Congress FL-3

11/2/2014	Marihelen Wheeler	7:17:00 AM until 7:29:00 AM	Election Campaign	Marihelen Wheeler is a democrat running for the US Congress Florida District 3 seat currently held by Ted Yoho. She says that the current congress has been to close to big business & that more attention needs to be put towards higher wages, more education & vocational training. She says in education, too much of the testing is being run by corporations & that the control needs to be left to educators. She will face Mr. Yoho in the November 4 election
	Candidate - US Congress FL-3
11/2/2014	Adrian Wyllie	7:35:00 AM until 7:57:00 AM	Election Campaign	Adrian Wyllie said that both Gov Scott & former Gov Crist had too many increases to the budget. He says he can cut as much as 30% out of the state budget. He says that by doing that, individual counties can keep the entirety of the 6% sales tax & therefore can repeal property taxes. He also talked about the trouble of not being a Democrat or Republican. Wyllie has not been allowed in any of the televised debates. In 2006, the threshold was 7% to be in the debates, for the 2014 race it has been raised to 15% (Wyllie has been polling between 7 & 10%).
	Libertarian Candidate for Governor
11/9/2014	Jim Dick	7:05:00 AM until 7:29:00 AM	Plum Creek Development	Jim Dick is with the group Stand By Our Plan - a citizens group that wants Alachua County to stick with the current comprehensive plan & not allow the Plum Creek development plan for eastern Alachua County to move forward. Mr Dick & SBOP say that the proposed number of jobs Plum Creek say will happen with the development are highly optimistic. They also say the area has too much marshland to support the kind of development Plum Creek is looking to make.
	Representing Stand By Our Plan
11/9/2014	Todd Powell	7:35:00 AM until 7:57:00 AM	Plum Creek Development	Plum Creek owns over 60,000 acres of land in eastern Alachua County and they are looking to develop that land with homes, businesses & green space. In order to do so, Plum Creek needs Alachua County to change the current comprehensive plan. They say that there will be plenty of protected lands within the development & that the proposed commercial areas will provide much needed jobs to areas including Hawthorne & east Gainesville.
	Pub Relations - Plum Creek
11/16/2014	Ken Cornell	7:05:00 AM until 7:29:00 AM	Election Win	Ken Cornell defeated John Martin to win the District seat on the Alachua County Commission. Mr Cornell said that he is against the Plum Creek Development because he feels it is too big of a project & that if Plum Creek wants to develop that land, they should make proposals on smaller parcels of land. He also said he was supportive of the proposed road sales tax that was defeated in the November 4 election. He said that the county is in desparate need of the revenue & that there is no way the county can catch up on road projects they need to work on without that additional revenue.
	Commissioner-elect - Alachua County Seat 4

11/16/2014	Keith Perry	7:35:00 AM until 7:57:00 AM	Re-election Win	Keith Perry defeated challenger Jon Uman to win reelection to the District 21 seat in the Florida House of Representatives. District 21 covers western Alachua County as well as all of Gilchrist & Dixie Counties. Mr. Perry said he is proud of the work the legislature did in the last session - being able to increase the budget and still offer tax cuts to Floridians because of overall increased revenues. He said that in the upcoming session in March, he hopes to work on more tax cuts, including reducing property taxes for Florida homeowners.
	Florida House Representative - Dist 21
11/23/2014	Sadie Darnell	7:06:00 AM until 7:29:00 AM	Move Over Law/Public Safety	The sheriff talked about a couple of situations in the last couple of weeks in which deputies were almost hit by vehicles that did not move over. Florida law states that when law enforcement is on the road, motorists must move over by one lane. If that is not possible, they must reduce speed to 20 MPH under the posted speed limit. No officers were injured in either incident, but things could have been much worse since both incidents occurred on I-75
	Alachua County Sheriff
11/23/2014	Chris Blair	7:35:00 AM until 7:57:00 AM	Law Enforcement	Sheriff Blair talked about the fact that Amendment 2 (medicinal marijuana) failed. The sheriff (and most sheriff's offices around the state) were against the bill. Sheriff Blair also talked about the award he won from the Florida Crime Prevention Association for the informational kiosks Sheriff Blair put around the county. The sheriff started the program & the state is looking at picking up the kiosks to put all across the state. The kiosks provide information about missing & wanted persons, crime stats and more.
	Marion County Sheriff
11/30/2014	Sheriff Chris Blair	7:05:00 AM until 7:29:00 AM	Budget Expenditures/Public Safety	Sheriff Blair talked about what he intends to do with $1.1M in the budget. He said that the money will be used to cover 10 new deputies, some new vehicles and other expenses. He also talked about the technological advancements the sheriff's office is doing. Not only do they have the informational kiosks around the county, but now they have a free phone app that will provide information to citizens right on their cell phones. He also gave a kudos to the county's SWAT team that finished 3rd out of 51 squads in an international competition in Orlando

	Historian
12/14/2014	Ted Yoho	7:05:00 AM until 7:29:00 AM	Obama Immigration Plan	Congressman Ted Yoho was a guest on Laura Ingraham's radio show recently talking about a couple of issues as the calendar year comes to an end. After President Obama announced he will use Executive Orders to grant some form of legalized status to some undocumented immigrants the congressman filed legislation to block the measure. Yoho said that the president is working outside the parameters of his job.
	US Congressman - FL-3
12/14/2014	Ed Braddy	7:35:00 AM until 7:45:00 AM	Vote on 8th Avenue	Over a year ago, the city commission voted to shrink NW 8th avenue from 4 lanes down to 2. After a study on traffic flow was done (and with input from citizens) the commission voted this week to reopen the road to 4 lanes. The project to change the painted lines to reopen the road will happen early in January of 2015
	Mayor - Gainesville, FL
12/14/2014	Stafford Jones	7:47:00 AM until 7:57:00 AM	Florida Redistricting	Stafford Jones is stepping down after spending 10 years as the Chair of the Alachua County Republican Executive Committee. He will be taking a state committeeman position with the Republican Party. He talked about the strides republicans have made in the decade he spent in Alachua County. He also talked about the controversial redistricting process that has been rejected in the state courts. Stafford says the redistricting process that had been rejected over 2 districts should be wrapped up for a judges final approval soon.
	Former Exec Dir - Alachua Co GOP

12/21/2014	Sadie Darnell Alachua County Sheriff	7:06:00 AM until 7:29:00 AM	Holiday Safety	Sheriff Darnell warned citizens about various scams going around the area. The latest "Green Dot Card" scam involves people receiving calls saying a loved one is in jail - the scammer may even use a name of an employee at the Sheriff's Office. Sheriff Darnell said that the ACSO will NEVER call people like that. She also talked about the controversial cases involving police & civilians in Ferguson & New York City. She said that while some people think that body cameras for police is a good idea there are several shortcomings including the cost of the cameras themselves, battery life & where to store the data recorded on the cameras
12/21/2014	Todd Chase Gainesville City Commissioner	7:36:00 AM until 7:57:00 AM	City Business	Commissioner Todd Chase talked about NW 8th Avenue. There was a vote earlier this month where commissioners voted 4-3 to widen the road. It has been shrunk from 4 lanes down to 2 over a year ago. After a study was done & commissioners got input from voters, they decided to widen to road. That project should be done early in the new year
12/28/2014	Ted Yoho US Congress FL-3	7:05:00 AM until 7:45:00 AM	Budget Vote	Congressman Yoho discussed his controversial vote in favor of a $1.1T budget. Yoho said it was important to get congress back to regular order with a budget & that making short term measures that would only last a month or 2 is one of the reasons the debt has risen as high as it is. Yoho said that although there were a few things in the bill he didn't like, the vast majority of the bill were provisions the Republican controlled House have been pushing for since they won the election in 2014.

12/14/2014	Stafford Jones Former Exec Dir - Alachua Co GOP	7:47:00 AM until 7:57:00 AM	Florida Redistricting	Stafford Jones is stepping down after spending 10 years as the Chair of the Alachua County Republican Executive Committee. He will be taking a state committeeman position with the Republican Party. He talked about the strides republicans have made in the decade he spent in Alachua County. He also talked about the controversial redistricting process that has been rejected in the state courts. Stafford says the redistricting process that had been rejected over 2 districts should be wrapped up for a judges final approval soon.
12/21/2014	Todd Chase Gainesville City Commissioner	7:36:00 AM until 7:57:00 AM	City Business	Commissioner Todd Chase talked about NW 8th Avenue. There was a vote earlier this month where commissioners voted 4-3 to widen the road. It has been shrunk from 4 lanes down to 2 over a year ago. After a study was done & commissioners got input from voters, they decided to widen to road. That project should be done early in the new year
12/28/2014	Ted Yoho US Congress FL-3	7:05:00 AM until 7:45:00 AM	Budget Vote	Congressman Yoho discussed his controversial vote in favor of a $1.1T budget. Yoho said it was important to get congress back to regular order with a budgt & that making short term measures that would only last a month or 2 is one of the reasons the debt has risen as high as it is. Yoho said that although there were a few things in the bill he didn't like, the vast majority of the bill were provisions the Republican controlled House have been pushing for since they won the election in 2014.
12/28/2014	Craig Carter Gainesville City Commissioner	7:47:00 AM until 7:57:00 AM	City Business/Taxes	Looking back at some of the best interviews of 2014 we hear from Gainesville City Commissioner Craig Carter. Carter said one of the reasons he ran for office was that as a business owner he understands not only how hard it is to keep a business running in the city, but also the permitting process just to get a business started. He said efforts need to be streamlined to help new businesses

11/16/2014	Ken Cornell	7:05:00 AM until 7:29:00 AM	Election Win	Ken Cornell defeated John Martin to win the District seat on the Alachua County Commission. Mr Cornell said that he is against the Plum Creek Development because he feels it is too big of a project & that if Plum Creek wants to develop that land, they should make proposals on smaller parcels of land. He also said he was supportive of the proposed road sales tax that was defeated in the November 4 election. He said that the county is in desperate need of the revenue & that there is no way the county can catch up on road projects they need to work on without that additional revenue.
	Commissioner-elect - Alachua County Seat 4
11/16/2014	Keith Perry	7:35:00 AM until 7:57:00 AM	Re-election Win	Keith Perry defeated challenger Jon Uman to win reelection to the District 21 seat in the Florida House of Representatives. District 21 covers western Alachua County as well as all of Gilchrist & Dixie Counties. Mr. Perry said he is proud of the work the legislature did in the last session - being able to increase the budget and still offer tax cuts to Floridians because of overall increased revenues. He said that in the upcoming session in March, he hopes to work on more tax cuts, including reducing property taxes for Florida homeowners.
	Florida House Representative - Dist 21
11/23/2014	Sadie Darnell	7:06:00 AM until 7:29:00 AM	Move Over Law/Public Safety	The sheriff talked about a couple of situations in the last couple of weeks in which deputies were almost hit by vehicles that did not move over. Florida law states that when law enforcement is on the road, motorists must move over by one lane. If that is not possible, they must reduce speed to 20 MPH under the posted speed limit. No officers were injured in either incident, but things could have been much worse since both incidents occurred on I-75

11/30/2014	Sadie Darnell	7:35:00 AM until 7:57:00 AM	Battle with County Commission	Sheriff Darnell talked about the recent Bikers on Parade event from November 9. She also gave safety tips for citizens as we head toward the holiday shopping season including shopping with a friend, making sure that if you put your purchases in your vehicle & go back to shopping to make sure your vehicle is locked & your purchases are out of sight. She also talked about her aggravation with the county commissioners. The county gave across the board raises to all county employees except for the sheriff's deputies. Sheriff Darnell believes that there are certain members on the commission that are not fans of law enforcement & that is why they didn't get raises.
	Sheriff - Alachua County FL
12/14/2014	Ted Yoho	7:05:00 AM until 7:29:00 AM	Obama Immigration Plan	Congressman Ted Yoho was a guest on Laura Ingraham's radio show recently talking about a couple of issues as the calendar year comes to an end. After President Obama announced he will use Executive Orders to grant some form of legalized status to some undocumented immigrants the congressman filed legislation to block the measure. Yoho said that the president is working outside the parameters of his job.

12/21/2014	Todd Chase Gainesville City Commissioner	7:36:00 AM until 7:57:00 AM	City Business	Commissioner Todd Chase talked about NW 8th Avenue. There was a vote earlier this month where commissioners voted 4-3 to widen the road. It has been shrunk from 4 lanes down to 2 over a year ago. After a study was done & commissioners got input from voters, they decided to widen to road. That project should be done early in the new year
12/28/2014	Ted Yoho US Congress FL-3	7:05:00 AM until 7:45:00 AM	Budget Vote	Congressman Yoho discussed his controversial vote in favor of a $1.1T budget. Yoho said it was important to get congress back to regular order with a budgt & that making short term measures that would only last a month or 2 is one of the reasons the debt has risen as high as it is. Yoho said that although there were a few things in the bill he didn't like, the vast majority of the bill were provisions the Republican controlled House have been pushing for since they won the election in 2014.
12/28/2014	Craig Carter Gainesville City Commissioner	7:47:00 AM until 7:57:00 AM	City Business/Taxes	Looking back at some of the best interviews of 2014 we hear from Gainesville City Commissioner Craig Carter. Carter said one of the reasons he ran for office was that as a business owner he understands not only how hard it is to keep a business running in the city, but also the permitting process just to get a business started. He said efforts need to be streamlined to help new businesses
