

Real Life 101 episode synopsis

190 – 196

EPISODE 190

To start the season, we had our field reporters, Shawn and Gracey, along with our producer, choose their favorite interviews from last season. We're bringing them back to you on today's show.

Being a food lover, Shawn chose the interview with a man who developed a scrumptious barbeque recipe and opened a restaurant where he sells it along with his other creations.

Gracey, who loves to laugh and enjoy life, said her favorite interview was with the Tennessee Titan's mascot, T-Rac and his handler, Pete.

And the producer, being a sports aficionado, chose the interview with longtime ESPN analyst and broadcaster, Lee Corso.

EPISODE 191

We'll start outside on the soccer field where Shawn will meet with a lady who turned her love of soccer into a fulltime job as a women's college soccer coach.

Then, a drama therapist will introduce Gracey to a fascinating type of therapy that combines acting and psychology techniques to help people overcome some of life's most troubling issues.

Almost everywhere we look, we see the work of graphic designers. Shawn will talk with one and see what goes into creating commercial materials that will grab our attention.

EPISODE 192

Today, we're going to feature three men in careers that involve serving others in a variety of ways.

Gracey will talk with a Roman Catholic priest and learn what he does to serve the people of his parish not just on Sundays, but every day.

Then we'll head off to the coast where Shawn will talk with a man who serves our country by protecting the borders as a US Border Patrol Agent.

And then Gracey will visit a college of hospitality and learn that the career future is bright for those interested serving travelers in hospitality and tourism.

EPISODE 193

Join us for today's Real Life 101's special wedding edition!

Shawn's going to introduce us to a wedding planner and see why she can be worth her weight in gold when it comes to taking the stress off the bride and her family.

And Gracey will visit a bridal shop where the dress buyer will show will talk about selecting her shop's gorgeous wedding gowns. Wait til you see these dresses on the live models!

Plus, Shawn will meet up with a wedding DJ and learn how he can be the most instrumental person at the reception in making sure everyone is having a great time.

EPISODE 194

So many people want to know about the Real Life 101 hosts Shawn and Gracey, aka field reporters.. So this week, Shawn's going to actually interview Gracey and see how she aces her interviews!

Plus, Gracey will visit a food broker and find out why food manufacturers rely on them to them to increase sales of their food products.

And you've heard of day care centers where kids have a set routine, including playtime and naptime. Have you ever heard of one for dogs? Shawn may have found a whole new career during his visit to a doggie day care.

EPISODE 195

If you were with us last week, you got to see Shawn's interview with Gracey about her job at Real Life 101 and her hobbies and aspirations. Now it's Shawn's turn to tell Gracey his story. Then an attorney who specializes in working with people and companies in disputes will talk to Shawn about his profession and why he finds it so rewarding. And Gracey will talk with a flight attendant and learn that she needs to be prepared for any situation that may arise in the skies or on the ground.

EPISODE 196

For those of you with the gift of inspiring people and bringing out the best in them, you'll want to see Shawn's interview with an empowerment coach.

And for those interested in food and have sales and leadership qualities, Gracey will introduce us to a regional sales manager for a major salad dressing manufacturer.

Or, are you the go to guy when it comes to fixing broken things? Then you'll enjoy Shawn's interview with a Field Service Engineer who works to keep equipment in tip top shape!