Cultural Understanding

10/7	21:00	51:58	Deserts #105	D
------	-------	-------	--------------	---	--

Judean Desert: Desert of the Soul—A relatively small desert, the Judean desert is full of breathtaking views and has an incredible history that in turn has shaped the cultural history of mankind, and given birth to the religions of Judaism and Christianity. This is the landscape of spiritual discovery and testing of the soul. The rugged landscape has provided isolation and refuge for cities, rebels, monks, and Biblical figures throughout history.

10/12, 10/19, 10/26	07:30	53:15	Fires of Faith #101, #102, #103	D
---------------------	-------	-------	---------------------------------	---	--

The first episode, covers the history of the English Reformation and the varying roles Martin Luther, William Tyndale, and King Henry VIII had in its development. The second episode covers how Gutenberg's revolutionary printing press aided the Protestant Reformation and sped up the printing of illegal Bibles being smuggled to England. The third episode explains that in 1604, England's King James ordered a new translation of the Bible. Seven years, 54 scholars, and one of the greatest committee efforts in history result in the most widely used book ever written.

11/20	21:00	55:43	How We Got to Now with Steven Johnson #102	D

Time—The world today is obsessed by time. Johnson boards a submarine to discover what a lack of natural light means for a sailor's working day and visits Heathrow, the world's busiest airport, to try to get timings right at air traffic control. The story of getting a grip on time is full of curious garage tinkerers.. Learn how advancements in navigation, the way we work, technology and travel would have been impossible without the unsung heroes of time.

11/30	07:30	56:38	Our Summer in Tehran	D

OUR SUMMER IN TEHRAN follows filmmaker and long-time Globe Trekker host Justine Shapiro, a Jewish-American, and her six-year-old son to Iran. Over the course of three months, Justine and Mateo share daily life in Tehran with three very different middle-class families in their homes, at their jobs, in playgrounds and in cafes. They take part in the ordinary acts, like shopping at the bazaar or enjoying a picnic in the park, and also find themselves caught up in the all-too-common power play that exists among the various ministries in Iran. Part poetry, part travelogue, part family drama, OUR SUMMER IN TEHRAN takes viewers beyond the heated headlines and into this fascinating and yet strikingly familiar land.

12/7	23:30	56:46	Rick Steves' European Christmas	D

After producing a hundred of his travel shows, Rick Steves and his public television crew finally celebrated Christmas in Europe. Rick and his gang brought home a vivid and intimate look at how seven diverse cultures celebrate Christmas. From England to Norway, Burgundy to Bavaria, and Rome to the top of the Swiss Alps, this special gets you down on the carpet with wide-eyed children, up in the loft with the finest choirs, and into the kitchen with grandma and all her secrets. You'll experience traditional European Christmas like never before: from flaming puddings and minced pies in jolly old England to angelic girls' choirs sporting flickering crowns of candles in Oslo. From grandpa reading the Bible high in Switzerland to the pope in a jam-packed St. Peter's basilica for midnight Mass. Above all, you'll be treated to traditional European holiday music -- unfamiliar to most American ears -- performed by families and choirs in their homes, chapels and cathedrals.

12/8, 12/15 04:00 56:45 Asian and Abrahamic Religions: A Divine Encounter #101, #102 D
Survey the beliefs, practices, and rituals of Eastern religions and examine the surprising similarities they share with Christianity, Judaism, and Islam. Examine the challenges of interfaith marriage, bicultural pressure on rising generations, and maintaining tradition.
