Dear Affiliate:

On behalf of Fusion Media Network, LLC the following is notification regarding the Children's Television Act and closed-captioned programming for the first quarter of 2015.

Children's Television Act

The Children's Television Act of 1990 (the "Act") and the FCC's regulations pursuant thereto require that cable television systems maintain records sufficient to determine whether they are in compliance with the commercial content restrictions of the Act with respect to "children's programming."

Fusion Media Network, LLC did not air any programming deemed children's programming under the Act. Therefore, no further disclosure is currently needed.

Closed-Captioned Programming

Fusion is not yet subject to minimum closed-captioning rules.

We will issue our next notification at the end of the second quarter of 2015. Should you need any further information at this time, please contact your Fusion account executive.

Very truly yours,

FUSION MEDIA NETWORK, LLC

CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING CERTIFICATION
1st QUARTER (JANUARY 1, 2015 – MARCH 31, 2015)

This is to certify that the list set forth below identifies all programs and series aired by Outdoor Channel during the above-referenced calendar quarter that were originally produced and broadcast primarily for an audience of children 12 years old and under. As standard practice, we formatted and aired each of the children's programs and series identified below so that the total commercial time (including local ad avails, promos for non-educational programs and adjacent ads running before or after the program within the same clock hour) did not exceed 10.5 minutes per hour on weekends, and 12 minutes per hour on weekdays, in compliance with the Children's Television Act of 1990 and the rules and regulations of the Federal Communication Commission (the "FCC"), (the "Regulations").

None of the following programs or series included any commercial spots (including local ad avails, promos for non-educational programs and adjacent ads running before or after the program within the same clock hour) that contained references to, characters or actors from, or that offered products related to, the underlying program or series. Any instances in which the children's programming commercial limits were exceeded during the referenced calendar quarter are explained in detail below. I further certify that I am the official responsible for oversight of compliance with FCC children's programming commercial limits, and I am familiar with the Regulations.

* As specified in Children's Television Obligations Of Digital Television Broadcasters, FCC 04-221 (¶24), "digital broadcasters [are permitted] to air all of their additional [3 hours of] digital [children's] core programming, beyond the 3 hour baseline on the main digital program stream, on one free digital video channel or distribute it across multiple free digital video channels, at their discretion, as long as the stream/s on which the core programming is aired has comparable carriage on multichannel video programming distributors ("MVPDs")." Accordingly, the SOAC program service has a Saturday core block of children's programming of twelve (12) hours (7 a.m. to 7 p.m.). Three (3) hours of that block provide compliance with FCC Rule 73.671 for the TBN Enlace service, and three (3) additional hours of that programming block also provide compliance for the JUCE (formerly JCTV) program service. Similarly, the TBN service has a Saturday core block of children's programming of six (6) hours (7 a.m. to 1 p.m.). Three (3) hours of that block provide compliance with FCC Rule 73.671 for the TCC service.

Certification of Compliance: FCC Children's Television Requirements
January 1, 2015 through March 31, 2015

On behalf of the Trinity Christian Center of Santa Ana, Inc., d/b/a Trinity Broadcasting Network (TBN), this is to certify that the program services named below comply with the FCC's children's television programming and commercial time limit obligations specified in FCC Rules 73.671 and 73.670 (46 CFR 73.671 and 73.670), respectively.

TBN is a not-for-profit, tax-exempt church corporation qualified under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (26 USC 501(c)(3)). During the period of time covered by this certification, TBN did not air more than 10.5 minutes of commercial matter per hour during children's programming on weekends, or more than 12 minutes of commercial matter per hour on weekdays.

The following children's programs aired during the period of time covered by this certification:

Pahappahooey Island	Monster Truck Adventures
Nest Animated Stories from the Bible	Mary Rice Hopkins & Puppets with a Heart
Dr. Wonder's Workshop	Lassie
The Lads TV	Davey & Goliath
VeggieTales	iShine Knect
3-2-1 Penguins!	Mike's Inspiration Station
Gina D's Kids Club	Paws and Tales
The Storykeepers	The Bed Bug Bible Gang
RocKids TV	Greatest Heroes & Legends of the Bible
Auto-B-Good

This certification is provided for the following digital program service(s) broadcast on cable television systems: TBN and The Church Channel (TCC)*.

This certification is true and correct, to the best of my knowledge and understanding, and is made this 31st day of March, 2015.

* As specified in Children's Television Obligations Of Digital Television Broadcasters, FCC 04-221 (¶24), "digital broadcasters [are permitted] to air all of their additional [3 hours of] digital [children's] core programming, beyond the 3 hour baseline on the main digital program stream, on one free digital video channel or distribute it across multiple free digital video channels, at their discretion, as long as the stream/s on which the core programming is aired has comparable carriage on multichannel video programming distributors ("MVPDs")." Accordingly, the SOAC program service has a Saturday core block of children's programming of twelve (12) hours (7 a.m. to 7 p.m.). Three (3) hours of that block provide compliance with FCC Rule 73.671 for the TBN Enlace service, and three (3) additional hours of that programming block also provide compliance for the JUCE (formerly JCTV) program service. Similarly, the TBN service has a Saturday core block of children's programming of six (6) hours (7 a.m. to 1 p.m.). Three (3) hours of that block provide compliance with FCC Rule 73.671 for the TCC service.

Re: Certificates of Compliance for the Children's Television Act of 1990

Dear Affiliate:

As of January 1, 1992, the Federal Communications Commission's rules ("FCC Rules") implementing the Children's Television Act of 1990 ("Act") require cable operators to maintain certain records regarding their compliance with advertising limits imposed on children's television programming. Accordingly, Turner Network Sales, Inc. provides the attached Turner Entertainment Networks' certificates of compliance for 1st Quarter 2015. Please note that the Act's advertising limits are inapplicable to CNN, Headline News, TBS, Turner Classic Movies, TNT, TruTV, CNNI, and CNNE as these networks do not carry children's programming. If there are any changes in the programming policies of these networks, we will provide you with updated certifications reflecting such changes.

To comply with the FCC Rules, please place the attached certificates of compliance in your system's public file(s) no later than the tenth day of the current quarter following the quarter in which the programming aired.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Sherry Kangalee", written in a cursive style.

CARTOON NETWORK
CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE WITH COMMERCIAL LIMITS
FOR CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING

I, Toni Millner, in my capacity as Assistant General Counsel and Vice President – Kid Vid Compliance for Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (“Turner”), hereby certify to the best of my information, knowledge, and belief, that the following information is accurate for the period from January 1, 2015, to March 31, 2015:

- 1) I am familiar with the statutory limits of the Children’s Television Act of 1990 (the “Act”) and the FCC regulations implementing those limits (no more than 12 minutes per hour of commercial matter may be telecast during children’s programming* on weekdays, and no more than 10 ½ minutes per hour on weekends).
- 2) Turner treated all of the programs telecast on the Cartoon Network, a 24-hour program service, as “children’s programming” for the purposes of the commercial limits set forth in the Act, except for its telecast in the “Adult Swim” block of programming created for an adult audience that airs late night seven days a week. The Adult Swim block contains hourly warnings to notify and remind viewers that the content is intended for an adult audience, and is not considered “children’s programming” subject to the commercial limits set forth in the Act. On a weekly basis, therefore, approximately 98 hours of television programming were treated as “children’s programming” for the purposes of the commercial limits set forth in the Act.
- 3) Turner has, as a standard practice, formatted and telecast all of the programs carried on the Cartoon Network during the period noted above within the commercial limits set forth in the Act, to the extent applicable to the programming.
- 4) To the best of my information, knowledge and belief, there were no instances in which the commercial limits were exceeded during the period noted above.

Certified by me this 3rd day of April, 2015.
