That's according to Senate Bill 47. "Vaping Easy" store workers in Tifton tell me they agree with the restrictions. In 2019, the department of public health reported that they identified 42 cases of vaping associated illness in Georgia that included 6 deaths. While some agree with the new restrictions, others disagree. The bill also states if a person violates this law they will be charged as a misdemeanor and can be fined up to $500. I asked vape stores in Tifton if they believe this will decrease sales.

Republicans are asking for spending cuts in exchange for raising the debt limit.The group laying out what it claims would be the consequences of slashing government spending. When asked about agreeing to potential spending cuts, Senate Majority Leader Chuck Schumer says that debate should happen during the budget process, not during a debt ceiling standoff. House Minority Leader Hakeem Jeffries saying Republican are not serious about handling this sensibly. Republicans remain entrenched in this quest for cuts. Conservatives in the House are proposing slashing the Biden administration's climate priorities, IRS funding, and student loan forgiveness. Arizona Republican Andy Biggs argues their plan is reasonable. Democrats allege Republicans want to cut medicare and medicaid funding - a claim Republicans deny. Conservatives want to sit down and negotiate with Democrats to come to spending agreements before a vote to raise the debt limit.
