Marsy's law is essentially a Crime Victim's Bill of Rights, outlining what their rights are. Thursday, the Florida Supreme Court said the law doesn't apply to victims' names. ..."A name in of itself is not protected. What Marsy's Law is supposed to do is protect people from being located and harassed." The Florida Supreme Court ruling stems from cases where Tallahassee police shot suspects in 2020. Tallahassee was sued for wanting to release the names of those officers.
