

2022 Q3 ISSUES/PROGRAMS REPORT

90.3 KAZU

PACIFIC GROVE, CA

3rd QUARTER 2022

July 1st, 2022 to September 30th, 2022

Prepared by Jeremiah Oetting

FCC Rule 73.3526 requires this Issue List/Program material for the 3rd Quarter of 2022 be placed in the Public File by October 10th, 2022.

KAZU ISSUES-PROGRAMS (IP REPORT) -- 3RD QUARTER 2022

JULY 1 - SEPTEMBER 30

Issue	Air Date	Airtimes	Length	Segment Title	Description
Immigration and Refugees	7/5/22	6:45am, 7:45am, 8:45am, 3:44pm, 4:44pm	4:58	Afghan family celebrates freedom on the Fourth of July	Nazir, his wife Samra, and their two children spent their first Fourth of July holiday in America this year. They escaped Afghanistan on that chaotic day last August, as the last U.S. troops withdrew and the Taliban took over. Their journey to the Monterey Peninsula was made possible by the kindness of strangers
Agriculture and Environment	7/15/22	6:45am, 7:45am, 8:45am, 3:44pm, 4:44pm	4:53	With peak fire season still ahead, here is how to stay prepared and informed	With California suffering a drought emergency, this year's fire season could be intense. A Cal Fire battalion chief tells us how to stay informed and prepared.
Medicine and Health	7/19/22	6:45am, 7:45am, 8:45am	3:30	The survivor of a shark attack in Pacific Grove shares his story	Steve Bruemmer was released from Natvidad hospital exactly three weeks after he was attacked by a shark off Lover's Point in Pacific Grove.
Education	7/28/22	6:45am, 7:45am, 8:45am, 3:44pm, 4:44pm	5:06	CSUMB President Eduardo Ochoa retires after 10 years at the university	Dr. Eduardo Ochoa will step down on July 31, after a decade as President of CSU Monterey Bay. In an interview with KAZU News, Ochoa discussed challenges and accomplishments of the last 10 years, and the importance of diversity on campus.
Agriculture and Environment	7/29/22	6:04am, 7:04am, 8:04am, 4:04pm, 5:04pm, 6:04pm	1:39	Santa Cruz is rolling out its food scrap collection program	Californians are required to keep their biodegradable food scraps out of the landfill starting this year. Here's how to do that in Santa Cruz and Monterey Counties.
Business, Economics and Finance	8/4/22	6:45am, 7:45am, 8:45am, 3:44pm, 4:44pm	4:10	The ongoing worker shortage is changing how, where and the way we work	Businesses are finding new ways to attract and keep employees, as workers rethink how and where they work, and whether they want a 9-to-5 office job at all.
Science and Technology	8/5/22	6:45am, 7:45am, 8:45am, 3:44pm, 4:44pm	4:30	The Santa Cruz corpse flower...resurrected!	An endangered tropical plant known as the corpse flower made a stink this week, as its enormous smelly flower miraculously bloomed after it seemed to die just days earlier.
Arts and Entertainment	8/9/22	6:45am, 7:45am, 8:45am, 3:44pm, 4:44pm	4:42	The Kingston Trio returns to Santa Cruz	Original members of the legendary group ushered in the folk music revival of the 50s and 60s — its current iteration is returning to Santa Cruz for a show at the Rio Theatre this week.
Race, Identity and Culture	9/21/22	6:45am, 7:45am, 8:45am, 3:44pm, 4:44pm	4:51	The African American Theater Arts Troupe creates community for students of color	For more than 20 years, the African American Theater Arts Troupe at UC Santa Cruz has provided a place for students of color to find a sense of belonging through performing arts.
Arts and Entertainment	9/23/22	3:44 p.m., 4:44 p.m.	3:50	Sixty Years ago at The Monterey Jazz Festival! The Real Ambassadors	Sixty years ago this weekend, The Monterey Jazz Festival presented one of its most historic premieres. Louis [LOO-iss] Armstrong starred in a musical written by Dave and Iola [eye-OH-luh] Brubeck called The Real Ambassadors. It featured catchy tunes and pretty ballads, but at its core was a rebuke of racism. A new book about the musical is out.