KAZU ISSUES-PROGRAMS (IP REPORT) -- 2ND QUARTER 2022

APRIL 1 — JUNE 30

Issue	Air Date	Airtimes	Length	Segment Title	Description
Agriculture and Environment	4/1/22	6:04am, 7:04am, 8:04am, 4:04pm, 5:04pm, 6:04pm	1:40	Why Santa Cruz's water is secure this year, despite California's drought	As another dry summer looms for California, Santa Cruz city's small Loch Lomond reservoir is nearly full.
Science and Technology	4/14/22	6:45am, 7:45am, 8:45am, 3:44pm, 4:44pm	5:04	The space pioneer who is on the hunt for life-supporting planets	If there is life elsewhere in the universe, Natalie Batalha could be the one to lead us to it. An astrophysicist at UC Santa Cruz, Natalie uses powerful space telescopes to peer into the cosmos and detect planets outside of our solar system. Some of these so-called exoplanets could have just the right ingredients to support life.
Agriculture and Environment	4/29/22	6:45am, 7:45am, 8:45am, 3:44pm, 4:44pm	4:49	Grapes of Ash: How smokey air is polluting California's wines	Winemakers in California are facing another hot summer of drought and potential wildfire. When forests burn near California's wine country, it's not just the flames that threaten vineyards — it's also the smoke, which can sully grapes on the vine that then produce ashy, bitter wine.
Business, Economics and Finance	5/2/22	6:45am, 7:45am, 8:45am, 3:44pm, 4:44pm	4:38	Professional soccer comes to the Monterey Bay area	Monterey Bay's new professional soccer team is set to play its first home game May 7. The Monterey Bay Football Club, also known as the Union, is using a stadium built by the U.S. Army 70 years ago that sits at the entrance of what is now CSU Monterey Bay. The stadium was key to bringing professional soccer to the Monterey Peninsula.
Arts and Entertainment	5/4/22	6:45am, 7:45am, 8:45am, 3:44pm, 4:44pm	4:36	Monterey Peninsula Voices is a choral group anyone can join	Monterey Peninsula Voices celebrates its 60th anniversary this week. The diverse choral group of some 50 singers have just one thing in common: they are passionate about singing. In fact, except for a $195 member fee that goes to maintaining the group, a love of song is the only requirement to join. No experience is necessary.
Politics and Government	6/2/22	6:45am, 7:45am, 8:45am, 3:44pm, 4:44pm	5:00	An impartial look at the contentious future of Santa Cruz County's rail corridor	Measure D is by far the most contentious issue on the ballot. Like so many political issues these days, this one has divided friends and neighbors across the county. And stuck in the middle of all of it is Guy Preston, the executive director of the Santa Cruz County Regional Transportation Commission, or RTC.
Agriculture and Environment	6/3/22	8:45am, 3:44pm	4:47	The 'Yes Greenway' vision for the Santa Cruz rail corridor	On June 7th, Santa Cruz County voters will weigh in on the future of the rail corridor between Santa Cruz and Watsonville. Jack Brown of Yes Greenway speaks to KAZU News in support of Measure D. This is one of a three-part series on Measure D.
Agriculture and Environment	6/3/22	7:45am, 4:44pm	4:45	The 'No Way Greenway' path to rail and trail in Santa Cruz	On June 7th, Santa Cruz County voters will weigh in on the future of the rail corridor between Santa Cruz and Watsonville. Mark Mesiti-Miller of No Way Greenway speaks to KAZU News in opposition to Measure D. This is one of a three-part series on Measure D.
Medicine and Health	6/24/22	4:04pm, 5:04pm, 6:04pm	1:40	A Santa Cruz reproductive rights activist on the overturning of Roe v. Wade	Cynthia Mathews spent her career fighting for reproductive rights, and brought Planned Parenthood to Santa Cruz over 50 years ago.
