KAZU ISSUES-PROGRAMS (IP REPORT) -- 4TH QUARTER 2022

OCTOBER 1 - DECEMBER 31

Issue	Air Date	Airtimes	Length	Segment Title	Description
Business, Economics and Finance	10/14/22	6:04am, 7:04am, 8:04am, 4:04pm, 5:04pm, 6:04pm	1:40	UPDATE: Santa Cruz city workers have ended their strike	The union representing city workers reached a new tentative agreement with the city, ending the three-day strike.
Medicine and Health	10/21/22	6:45am, 7:45am, 8:45am, 3:44pm, 4:44pm	4:37	The V Word: Proposition 1 Revives Historic Abortion Debate Over 'Viability' in California	Californians will vote on the amendment in the form of Proposition 1 come November, but as the election approaches, lawmakers still do not agree whether the measure would merely enshrine abortion rights as they are currently articulated in state law, which allows abortion up to 24 weeks, or whether it would expand abortion rights, so as to permit abortions at any point in pregnancy, for any reason.
Arts and Entertainment	10/24/22	6:45am, 7:45am, 8:45am, 3:44pm, 4:44pm	4:15	In Richmond, Extra Money for Arts Education Is an Equity Issue	California education law calls for all public schools to offer comprehensive arts education, but in reality, very few of them do. This November, voters will decide on Proposition 28: whether or not to guarantee arts funding in public schools, including charters.
Science and Technology	10/25/22	6:45am, 7:45am, 8:45am, 3:44pm, 4:44pm	4:00	Some Key Questions About Prop. 30 Answered	Californians will vote on Proposition 30 in November. If passed, it will raise the income tax on Californians who make more than $2 million by 1.75% each year to pay for electric-vehicle incentives and wildfire prevention programs. But the measure has split Gov. Gavin Newsom from the rest of his party.
Agriculture and Environment	10/26/22	6:45am, 7:45am, 8:45am, 3:44pm, 4:44pm	5:08	California's fight against climate change gets a little messy	A new state law aims to keep food and other organic waste out of the landfill. But the food scrap collection program in Santa Cruz is making a mess for some residents.
