- 2) As a standard practice, our company formats any children's programming (as defined under the Act) within the commercial limits set forth in the Act to the extent the FCC regulations are applicable to the programming.
- 3) To the best of my information, knowledge, and belief, no children's programming aired in the period noted above on HBO or any of the HBO-branded television networks with a limited exception for the HBO Family network, which aired some children's programming as defined under the Act.
- 4) To the best of my information, knowledge, and belief, these children's programs on HBO Family were formatted within the commercial limits set forth with the Act when telecast (particularly given that HBO Family is a premium subscription cable network that is not ad-supported and has limited (if any) promotional announcements on the network).
