

Quarterly Issues and Answers Program List for Stations

KHII, Cloudcroft, New Mexico

Translator K248CB, Alamogordo, New Mexico

KTMN, Cloudcroft, New Mexico

April, 1, 2018 to June 30, 2018

Section 1. Issues

The stations have identified the following Issues as significant issues facing our community and surrounding communities in this quarter.

1. Trinity Site Tour on April , 2018
2. Trinity Site Caravan Line-up
3. Big A Painting on Western Slopes of Sacrament Mountains
4. Thrive In Southern New Mexico/Dolly Parton Imagination Library
5. Adrienne Salas, Superintendent of Alamogordo Public Schools/Mill
6. Lincoln National Forest, Extreme Fire Restrictions.
7. New Mexico State University-Alamogordo
8. Bullying Must Stop RAP Artist Haramni
9. Rio Grande Foundation
10. "Warriors in Transition" program/parade in Cloudcroft
11. Thrive In Southern New Mexico with ZIA Transportation
12. New Mexico Museum Of Space History, Warehouse 1402 Tour.

Section 2. Responsive Programs

1. “Trinity Site Tour”, Bob Flotte, Host

Broadcast on April 6, 2018, 7:32 AM to 7:51 AM. Cammy Montoya, White Sands Missile Range Public Affairs, spoke about the site tour coming up on Saturday, the 7th. She alerted our listeners to precautions needed to access the range. No weapons, no picture taking while entering until you get to Ground Zero. She also addressed the need for a full tank of gas, good tires, some snack items and plenty of drinking water. She stressed that the caravan would depart the Tularosa High School parking lot at 8 in the morning. Caravan would be escorted to Trinity Site. Round trip would take about six and one-half hours.

2. “Trinity Site Caravan”, Bob Flotte, Host

Broadcast on April 7, 2018, 7:32 AM to 8:37 AM. Mary Parra, with the Alamogordo Chamber Ambassadors, those in charge of the caravan line up, presented a recap of the morning startup activity. Three busses already in the lineup. A couple of motor cycles and several vehicles. Some out of country visitors were from Germany, Mexico and other areas. She also reminded our listeners of items forbidden on the range. Example would be guns.

3. Big “A” (Alamogordo) painting on the west slope of the Sacramento Mountains, Bob Flotte, Host.

Broadcast on April 7, 2018, 8:03 AM to 8:23 AM. Rod Saint, a graduate of Alamogordo High School, class of 1987, put together about 25 volunteers to climb up the mountain to paint the Big A, which has been a landmark for Alamogordo over several years. Rod talked about the volunteers being former grads, current students and cheerleaders. He presented credit to organizations in the area that contributed man power and materials to complete the painting project. It should be noted here that Rod Saint is also a candidate for Otero County Sheriff.

4. Thrive In Southern New Mexico/Dolly Parton Imagination Library.
Mike Durler, Host

Broadcast April 10, 2018 8:32 am to 8:53 am. Stephanie Hale of Thrive in Southern New Mexico discussed progress of the Current Fundraising Campaign and The Upcoming 2019 Ultimate Gift Calendar Fundraiser, with more opportunities to win a wider variety of gifts. Lindsey Totten with Dolly Parton Imagination Library for Otero County, As a Thrive In Southern New Mexico Agency, Discussed how the program provides books for children and the positive impact books have a positive impact on the education of children.

5. Alamogordo Public Schools $7 million dollars mill levy election, Bob Flotte, Host.

Broadcast on April 10, 2018, 7:33 AM to 8:21 AM. Adrienne Salas, Superintendent of Alamogordo Public Schools addressed the need for upgrading technology throughout the APS system. She, and her guest, Doyle Syling, from APS, outlined the needs of connecting all of our Alamogordo area schools together with new fiber optic accessability. The stressed that the $7M would be used only for upgrading and installing all new technology throughout the system. The need was universal throughout the system. We also talked about the Grade A expresses, a program initiated by NM Governor Martinez, recognizing NM schools for exceptional teaching in the classrooms. Two of our schools received the "A" report.

6. Lincoln National Forest, Extreme Fire Restrictions. Mike Durler Host.

Broadcast April 23, 2018. Ryan Whitaker and Wes Hall, Discussed the recently Extreme Fire Rating and Stage 1 Fire Restrictions placed on the Lincoln National Forrest in the Sacramento Mountains. Also Discussed Campfire Safety and Campfires ONLY Allowed inside Certified Campgrounds. Also discussed what steps to take to protect homes in the forest be clearing any loose leaves and pine needles from roofs, gutters and On ground leaves, pine needles and brush at 30 feet from homes.

7. New Mexico State University-Alamogordo. Mike Durler, Host

Broadcast April 25, 2018 Sherrel Wheeler and Greg Hillis Discussed NMSU-A's On Line Program went from a Low Rating, by the Higher Learning Center, in 2013 to NMSU-A Being The Presenters at the Higher Learning Center Conference in Chicago, in 2018 on How to Build and Deliver a Nationally Recognized On Line Program developed by NMSU-A with Quality Assurance Criteria that is Now A Model for Colleges Across The Country.

8. "Bullying Must Stop", Host, Bob Flotte

Broadcast on April 27, 2018, 3:05 PM to 3:56 PM.

RAP Artist, Haramni, was in Alamogordo doing a performance and giving a presentation of Bullying and how it affected his life as a young child. How he was abandoned by his parents and left homeless. How he survived living on the streets in LA until he discovered the power of Jesus. He gave full credit to his life being saved by accepting Jesus and his Savior. Haramni also present his version of RAP music and how is it presented to help other young people who suffer from bullying and get them to identify with God. His presentation to the students was well attended and meaningful to several students.

9. "Right to Work", Host, Bob Flotte

Broadcast on May 17, 2018, 7:30 AM to 8:04 AM

Paul Gessing, President of the Foundation, was our guest. He talked about another NM county, Lincoln, passing Right to Work on Tuesday of the same week. Mr. Gessing stated we add them to our list of two other counties, Otero and Sandoval, which passed the issue earlier in the year. He stressed that as more counties address Right to Work and pass it, the State Legislature will be moved into a position of passing it on a state-wide level.

10. "Warriors in Transition" parade and program. Host, Bob Flotte

Broadcast on May 17, 2018 from 10:30 AM TO 11:15 A.M.

The broadcast began, Live and Local from Cloudcroft, with an interview with Rich Herold, VFW Post 11999, telling Bob about the three day activity including the morning parade on the 17th. Mr. Herold talked about the Warriors in Transition three day event hosted by the Village of Cloudcroft and other participating merchants. The three -day program, was totally free to the War Heroes and their families. It included lodging and free meals and other family events like hiking, biking and free fishing. Fifteen War Heroes participated along with some family members.

11. Thrive In Southern New Mexico with ZIA Transportation. Host, Mike Durler.

Broadcast on June 13, 2018 from 10:32 AM TO 10:57 A.M.

Joe Hardin, Superintendent for ZIA Transportation, discussed the program and how it provides affordable mass bus transportation in Alamogordo, New Mexico, with $1.00 fares, Veterans Ride Free, Plus new routes to Holloman Air Force Base and Las Cruces, New Mexico. Joe Expressed his Appreciation to Thrive in Southern New Mexico for their support of Veterans Ride Free Program. Stephanie Hale Discussed Upcoming Golf Tournament for Thrive.

12. New Mexico Museum of Space History, Warehouse 1402 Tour.

Host, Mike Durler.

Broadcast June 20, 2018 from 10:33 AM TO 10:59 A.M.

Chris Orwoll, Executive Director, Discussed upcoming Warehouse 1402 Tour. Discussed Upcoming Rocketeer Camps with the older kids involved with the science of space forensics in conjunction with UTEP in El Paso, Texas, discovering what has caused some of the accidents in the space program to help to improve safety.