During the Current Quarter, Viacom Media Networks ("VMN") discovered on six instances that live programs which aired on MTV, Paramount Network and BET were not fully closed captioned. These omissions, each of which lasted between two and seven minutes, were due to technical issues beyond VMN's control. In addition, Viacom discovered that during the re-airing of a previously recorded live program on Nickelodeon, a portion of such program was not properly closed captioned. This omission, which lasted approximately nine minutes, was due to a technical issue beyond VMN's control.
