In addition to the above, the station had 9 interviewees through employee referrals, 13 interviewees through internal candidates, and 2 interviews from unsolicited/self-referred applicants.

Section 3: Supplemental Outreach Activities – June 1, 2013 – May 31, 2014

1. (i) Participation in four job fairs by station personnel who have substantial responsibility in the making of hiring decisions.

Our Stations regularly participate in local and national career/job fairs. Job Fairs to provide applicants and potential candidates with the opportunity to learn about Fox Television Stations and the job opportunities and internship/mentoring programs available within our group. A list of current job openings and station contact information is available upon request. For this reporting period, the stations participated in the following career/job fairs:

- Emma Bowen Career Fair – New York, NY – 06/26/13
(Attended by Roselyn Barranda and Heather Frascella, Managers Human Resources-WNYW)
- Howard University Career Fair – Washington, DC – 10/14/13
(Attended by Diana Pike, Director Human Resources-WTTG)
- National Association of Black Journalists – New Orleans, LA – 07/30/13 to 08/04/13
(Attended by Jean Fromm, Director Human Resources-WOGX, Jeff Zeller, VP News Director-WOFL, and Ken Jobe, VP News Director-WHBQ)
- NATAS Upper Midwest Regional Production Awards Job Fair – Minneapolis, MN – 03/30/15
(Attended by Kate O'Hara, Director Human Resources-KMSP)

2. (iv) Participation in at least four events sponsored by organizations representing groups in the community interested in broadcast employment issues, including conventions, career days, workshops, and similar activities.

WTTG/WDCa is dedicated to community involvement and promoting higher education and diversity. Ongoing outreach efforts are supported by public speaking engagements by our staff which includes, but is not limited to schools, local college/universities, civic, non-profit organizations and community events.

10/05/13 - The Race for Every Child, benefitting Children's National Medical Center/Children's Miracle Network. WTTG was a media sponsor of the event, and our on-air talent, was the Media Spokesperson and emcee. The station created and ran PSA's for the race, designed to raise money for children's programs at the Hospital Center, starting three months in advance and leading up to the day of the race. WTTG operated a community outreach booth at the race.

10/19/13 - Light the Night Walk, benefitting the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. WTTG was a media sponsor, and a news anchor was the emcee for the event. The event was promoted with PSA's on both stations for two months in advance, leading up to the day of the walk. At least twelve on-air talent and station staffers participated in the walk, and then appeared before and after at our community outreach booth at the event.

01/13/14 -Mentoring Monday – this is a station and community mentoring event on site benefitting "Concerned Black Men National." The morning show is dedicated to discussing/interviewing mentoring organizations.

03/08/14 – "Face Time With the Pros" at Merrill College of Journalism. Two station Photographers participated in this student workshop.

03/26/14 -National Women's History Month Program. A WTTG Anchor served as the Motivational and Guest Speaker.

04/12/14 - College of Southern Maryland's 2014 Diversity Forum, "A Just Community- Our Youth, Our Future." A WTTG Anchor was the Mistress of Ceremonies.

3. (v) Establishment of an internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment.

Internship Program

WTTG/FOX 5 & WDCA/My20 continues to offer an academic credit internship program for college/university, junior, senior and graduate students. The students work approximately 16-24 hours per week and receive college credit upon successful completion of their internship. Students are evaluated at the end of the internship and the evaluations are submitted to their respective college or university. Generally, internships are available in the following departments: News (including Sports, Weather and Web News), Creative Services (including Promotions), Research/Programming, IT, Sales (including Web Sales) and Human Resources.

Program Objectives:

- Provide students majoring in journalism, communications, media and related disciplines the opportunity to receive on-site exposure to and training from experienced television broadcast professionals who are in job positions to which students aspire.
- Provide students majoring in journalism, communications, and media and related disciplines the opportunity to garner practical application experience and exposure to a work environment in their desired career.
- Identify students for the Station's job applicant pool for employment opportunities.
- The Station regularly distributes internship information to colleges, universities, and other education programs either through email or by posting directly on the websites / list services as requested by the organization.

Eligibility Requirements:

- College junior and senior, and graduate students
- Receipt of academic credit

The internship program was managed by Micheline Bowman, News Intern Coordinator. In this reporting year, we had a total of thirty-two (32) academic credit only interns.

Summer Semester 2013: 16 interns (News-10; Web News-3;; Sports-3)

Fall Semester 2013: 5 interns (News – 4; Promotions - 1)

Spring Semester 2014: 6 interns (News – 5; Promotions – 1; Sports- 1)

We accepted students from the following colleges/universities: George Mason University, American University, Howard University, Trinity College, and University of Maryland – College Park

4. (vii) Participation in scholarship programs designed to assist students interested in pursuing a career in broadcasting.

Emma L. Bowen Foundations for Minority Interests in Media, Inc.

Established in 1989, the Emma L. Bowen Foundation for Minority Interests in Media is a non-profit organization whose mission is to create career opportunities in the media industry for minority youth through a program that focuses on scholastic achievement, direct work experience and professional development. Students in the program work in media companies each summer and during school breaks, from high school through college. The students earn both wages and matching scholarship funds to be used for college tuition and related expenses. Over a period of up to five (5) years, the students experience numerous aspects of Company operations and develop professional and practical skills that will help prepare them for their careers, many of which begin at the companies where the students interned. Fox Television Stations have been a corporate partner in this program since its inception and two of the Company's executives are on the Foundation's Board.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Good academic standing and record
- Recommendation from principal, teachers and guidance counselors
- Interested in pursuing a career in media

WTTG/WDCA sponsored one (1) scholarship student in the Emma L. Bowen program for the summer 2013 and during the fall Holiday break; Lesly Salazar of the Pennsylvania State University.

5. (viii) Establishment of training programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions.

WTTG/WDCA encourages employees to apply for promotions for which they are qualified. In an effort to increase internal promotions, the station offers many internal cross-training opportunities. This enables the employees to acquire the necessary skills and experience needed to be considered for advancement opportunities. In this reporting period, the station has trained and promoted eight (8) employees internally for the following positions: National Sales Coordinator to Local sales Coordinator; Freelance Writer to Fulltime Writer; Traffic Coordinator to Local Sales coordinator; Writer Producer to Producer (2); Freelance Technician to Fulltime Technician; Tape Librarian to Tape Producer; Photographer to Robotic cameras.

Fox Stations Sales, an in-house national sales organization, maintains a program to train new sales account executives. This program consists of both coursework and hands-on training. At the end of the program, individuals are assigned to the Company's television Stations and sales offices throughout the United States. In this reporting year, we hired one of the Trainees into an Account Executive position at WTTG/WDCA.

- WTTG/WDCA Engineering department continues to undergo Miranda iTX Master Control training which provides basic standard operating procedures for the new iTX Master Control system. Topics covered but not limited to: Play out, Ingest, Log Preparation and Station Interfaces.
- WTTG/WDCA Sales department has developed an in-house Account Executive training program designed to support the advancement of the Sales Assistants. This program consists of both coursework and hands-on training. At the end of the program, individuals are capable of being promoted into an Account Executive position.

Myfoxdc.com serves the community by providing Washingtonians with the latest news, weather, and traffic information including breaking news, severe weather alerts and traffic jams. Through this vital and active tool, news and information is widely disseminated. Station information available on the website includes: internship program, employment opportunities listing, and the Annual EEO Public File Report. In addition, the website also has direct links to many national sites. Myfoxdc.com attracts approximately 6 million page views and over 1 million unique visitors per month.
