WSJO/Egg Harbor City, NJ

WPUR/Atlantic City, NJ

October 1 – December 31, 2022

Section 1. - Issues

A. Environment.

In a coastal area like Atlantic City, the environment is of great concern. How this issue is managed will, one way or another, have major impacts on the economy and everyday life in Southern New Jersey.

B. Extreme weather / coastal flooding.

Extreme weather and coastal flooding continue to be a growing concern in and around Atlantic City. Coastal flooding is becoming much more common, even with relatively minor coastal storms.

C. COVID-19's impact on students.

COVID-19 has had a major impact on local communities in the Atlantic City region, including education. One developing problem is lower test scores from students.

D. Food insecurity.

Atlantic City has been a “food desert” for a number of years, not to mention the region has a relatively large number of people living with low incomes.

In addition to airing several segments concerning this topic in “Viewpoints,” WFPG, WENJ, WSJO, and WPUR aired an interview with Rick Dovey, President of the Atlantic County Utilities Authority, which discussed the organization’s annual food drive. Mr. Dovey’s interview aired within our 60-second “Health Update” vignettes, which aired four times per day during the week of November 28th, 2022.

E. The cost of education.

The cost of living in the Atlantic City area is high, just as it is across the entire state of New Jersey. One of the largest hurdles a family will face is the rising cost of a college education. With just one university and one community college in the Atlantic City area, deciding where a teenager will attend college and how they will pay for it can be a major challenge.

Program 22-40

Air Week: 10/2/2022

Executive Producer: Amirah Zaveri

Production Manager: Jason Dickey

SEGMENT 1: WORKERS ARE FED UP: THE CONTINUING STRIKES & UNIONIZATIONS IN THE U.S.

Time: 1:47

Duration: 9:37

Synopsis: Just last month, the railway industry narrowly averted a strike that would've resulted in more than 100,000 railway workers walking off the job. This dispute over pay, hours and working conditions would've shut down the U.S. railway system, costing billions of dollars in lost revenue from commuter travel and a stall in commodities and goods shipments. Over the past year, headlines covering workers striking or pushing to unionize have become commonplace. What's driving this labor revolt? Stay tuned this week.

Host: Gary Price

Producer: Amirah Zaveri

Guests: Daisy Pitkin, Deputy Organizing Director, Workers United; Maxford Nelsen, Director of Labor Policy, The Freedom Foundation.

Compliance issues: Wealth Distribution, Labor Issues, Labor Rights, Career, Health, Equity

SEGMENT 2: THE POWER OF PHOTOGRAPHY

Time: 13:26

Duration: 8:10

Synopsis: The beauty of a photo is that it freezes a specific moment in history forever. A single snapshot has the power to convey a scene better than words ever could. We speak with author and activist Philip Allen about the role photography and videography played during the Civil Rights Movement and the role it still plays today in capturing racial bias & inequality.

Host: Marty Peterson

Producer: Amirah Zaveri

Guests: Philip Allen, activist, author of The Prophetic Lens: The Camera and Black Moral Agency From MLK to Darnella Frazier.

SEGMENT 1: THE STATE OF JOURNALISM: A NEW, EXPANDING FORMAT

Time: 1:47

Duration: 8:38

Synopsis: Americans are increasingly busy, and there's more content than ever before vying for a piece of their time. In this new landscape, many media outlets are shifting their formats to better compete with social media and Americans' reduced attention spans. Co-founder of Axios, Roy Schwartz joins us this week to talk about how everyone, and not just journalists, can use this stylistic change to improve both their writing and presenting.

SEGMENT 2: PHONE GUIDELINES FOR KIDS

Time: 12:27

Duration: 8:22

Synopsis: It seems like every preteen has their own cell phone these days. Just last week, I saw a kid (possibly 9 or 10 years old) walking down the street talking to someone through their smartwatch. Who would've thought? With more young people owning tech at an earlier age, it's important for both parents and kids to sit down from the get-go and talk about how to stay safe online, minimize social media use and more.

Host: Marty Peterson

Producer: Amirah Zaveri

Guests: Catherine Pearlman, licensed social worker, author of First Phone: A Child's Guide to Digital Responsibility, Safety and Etiquette.

SEGMENT 1: ELECTRIC VEHICLES: REDUCING SKY HIGH COSTS & A LACK OF ACCESSIBILITY

Time: 1:47

Duration: 7:05

Synopsis: The electric vehicle market is booming. Nearly every automaker is pledging to invest in this technology and is rolling out sleek new models with all the bells and whistles. While electric is seen as the future, for many Americans these newer cars are often out of reach because of the hefty price tag. We speak with two experts about this current market and what progress is being made to make EV's more available to all.

Host: Gary Price

Producer: Grace Galante

SEGMENT 1: THE HIGHER EDUCATION COST CRISIS: PART 1

Time: 1:48

Duration: 8:23

Synopsis: Student loan debt in the U.S. has burgeoned to 1.7 trillion dollars. And over the past two years, many borrowers have paused on paying these loans because the government paused on payment deadlines due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Last month, Biden's administration vowed to cancel $10,000 of student loan debt for the average borrower and up to $20,000 for Pell Grant recipients. We highlight what this move achieves (and doesn't) and what solutions are needed to solve this problem long-term.

SEGMENT 2: THE FIGHT TO SURVIVE ON THE BRINK OF EXTINCTION

Time: 11:29

Duration: 10:29

Synopsis: Extinction is a normal part of evolution, but the speed at which the Earth is losing species is abnormal. Scientists estimate that today's extinction rate is hundreds, or even thousands, of times higher than the natural progression. It's hard to quantify the exact number of species affected, but experts say it's at least 10,000 species per year that go extinct. What's driving this sped up process and how can humans help more species survive?

Host: Marty Peterson

Producer: Amirah Zaveri

Guests: Michael Webster, professor, practice, Department of Environmental Studies, New York University, author, The Rescue Effect: The Key to Saving Life on Earth.
