

Station WKYS 93.9 FM
City of License: Washington, DC

Quarterly List of Programming Responsive to Issues of Community Concern
Fourth Quarter 2019
October 1, 2019 – December 31, 2019

In our ongoing effort to be the most trusted resource in the African-American community that informs, entertains and inspires our audience by providing culturally relevant integrated content, WKYS 93.9 FM broadcasts programming responsive to issues concerning Washington, DC and the surrounding area. We are GDPR compliant on all our social media and websites. Following is a brief list of those issues, and of the station’s most significant treatment of them.

The compliancy issues of importance this quarter included the following:

Social Community Education

Most significant programming treatment of issues in the Fourth Quarter of 2019:

“Angie Ange Kiss In the Community, Sundays 6:00am-6:30am.”

Issue/Organization	Description		Duration
Education: Engaging youth in STEM/STEAM programs	Spoke to Jazmin Byrd, founder of DC Kids Maker Space/DMV Party Time, a space dedicated to teaching science, technology, engineering, arts, and math to children under the age of 7. Jazmin spoke to the importance of exposing children at very early ages to STEM/STEAM concepts through her "kids maker space." Many times children aren't learning about these things until well into school. Her program gets an early start for youth.	9/22	23:00 minutes
Community: Unlocking the C-Suite (new program to help more people of color reach CEO, COO, CFO positions.	Spoke to Executive Director of the Hennessy Fellows program that provides professional development, corporate boot camps for graduate students attending historically Black colleges and universities. Also spoke to a current member of the cohort who attends North Carolina A&T and discussed how students can apply for upcoming year.	10/13	25:00 minutes

Community: Addressing Homelessness	Spoke with President and CEO of Martha's Table in Washington, DC Kim Ford about expansion and programs for education, opportunity and food for families in the DC area. Martha's table is making a strong push in Ward 8 to address homelessness and food desserts.	11/24	26:00 minutes
Education: Mentorship and Mental Health	Spoke with the co-executive director for the Playworks organization Jennifer Oxley and junior coaches from the Freetown Elementary school about how their program is preventing bullying in schools and providing safety on playgrounds.	12/1	22:00 minutes