Topic: Healthcare – Out of Network Medical Bills

Description: New Jersey State Assemblyman Joe Vitale joins host Larry Mendte to discuss legislation that would help prevent consumers from being billed for emergency services that fall outside of their health coverage. Senator Vitale gives the example of a patient going to their in-network hospital, but then a procedure or a test is administered by a specialist who is out of network. The patient then gets a large bill for whatever their insurance doesn’t cover. Senator Vitale’s bill would require the insurance provider and the healthcare provider to attend mediation to reach a settlement. Senator Vitale has bipartisan support and believes it is very close to becoming a reality in New Jersey.
