Description: Host Larry Mendte interviews House Majority Leader, State Representative Valerie Longhurst about a loop hole being exploited by gun purchasers which has led to 15,000 illegal guns being released without background checks. Delaware requires only a 3 day waiting period. If the background check takes longer than 3 days, the guns can be released without the background check. Many background checks are delayed due to criminal activity in one's past. This means individuals who should not be allowed to buy guns, are getting away with purchasing firearms. Representative Longhurst is trying to close that loophole.
