The Polk Museum of Art is pleased to announce the opening of its latest exhibition, "Remembering Vilna: The Holocaust and the Art of Samuel Bak. The exhibit is on view now through January 7, 2024.

Featuring nearly 30 paintings in the Museum's Dorothy Jenkins Gallery, this powerful exhibition uses Bak's personal history as a child of the Holocaust as a jumping off point to explore universal themes of conflict, resilience, and hope, the consequences of prejudice and persecution, and the necessity of preserving historical memory for future generations.

Bak's early life was marked by the trauma of Soviet and Nazi occupation of his hometown and his experiences in the Vilna Ghetto, forced labor camps, and hiding in a convent to escape discovery by Nazis.

See this powerful exhibition now through January 7th at The Polk Museum of Art at Florida Southern College in the Dorothy Jenkins Gallery. The museum is at 800 Palmetto Street in Lakeland, near the main branch library.
