HOW PROGRAMMING ADDRESSED THE ISSUES

HEALTH/HEALTHCARE

1/1/17...Radio Health Journal. ICU INEFFICIENCY 12:25 Synopsis: With monitors surveying every part of patients' bodies, hospital intensive care units appear to be a model of high tech. But systems engineers say ICU's are actually models of inefficiency because few of those high tech devices talk to each other. Experts discuss how ICU's could be improved to save lives. Host: Reed Pence. Guests: Dr. Peter Pronovost, Senior Vice President for Patient Safety and Quality, Johns Hopkins Medicine and Director, Armstrong Institute for Patient Safety and Quality; Dr. Brian Pickering, intensive care anesthesiologist, Mayo Clinic, Rochester, MN

1/1/17...Radio Health Journal. REVERSING THE SHORTAGE IN PRIMARY CARE DOCS 7:36 Synopsis: Most people rely on their primary care doctors first when they need health care. But a shortage in primary care doctors is only getting worse. Some medical schools have been successful in keeping their grads in primary care. We talk to an expert from one of them to see how it's done and if other schools can replicate their success. Host: Nancy Benson. Guest: Dr. Elizabeth Baxley, Sr. Assoc. Dean for Academic Affairs and Prof. of Family Medicine, Brody School of Medicine, East Carolina Univ.

1/8/17...Radio Health Journal. DUPUYTREN DISEASE & DISABLED HANDS 8:05 Synopsis: Dupuytren disease is the most common disorder crippling hands that most people have never heard of. It is a genetic condition of the fascia beneath the skin of the palms, and it stubbornly resists treatment. An expert and a patient discuss the disorder. Host: Nancy Benson. Guests: Tom Knapp, Dupuytren patient and board member, Dupuytren Foundation; Dr. Charles Eaton, hand surgeon and Executive Director, Dupuytren Foundation.

1/8/17...Radio Health Journal. EATING DISORDERS: NOT JUST FOR ADOLESCENTS 11:42 Synopsis: Over the last decade, the number of women over age 30 seeking treatment for anorexia, bulimia and binge eating disorder has skyrocketed. Experts discuss the factors triggering eating disorders in midlife and the factors that bring women in for treatment for long standing disorders. Host: Reed Pence. Guests: Denise Folcik, eating disorder survivor; Lori Ciotti, Site Director, Renfrew Center of Massachusetts; Dr. Margo Maine, psychologist, co-founder, National Eating Disorders Assn. and author, The Body Myth: Women and the Pressure to be Perfect; Dr. Cynthia Bulik, founding Director, Univ. of North Carolina Center of Excellence for Eating Disorders and author, Midlife Eating Disorders: Your Journey to Recovery.

Guest: Dr. Susan Sered, Prof. of Sociology, Suffolk Univ. & co-author, Can't Catch a Break: Gender, Jail, Drugs and the Limits of Personal Responsibility

1/22/17...Radio Health Journal. EXOSKELETONS: ENABLING PARAPLEGICS TO WALK AGAIN 11:17 Synopsis: Motorized, computer-controlled braces and frames are making the concept of the bionic human into reality. Experts discuss how these exoskeletons work and how they may be used in the future. Host: Reed Pence. Guests: Dr. Alberto Esquenazi, Chief Medical Officer, Moss Rehab; Dr. Peter Gorman, Chief, Div. of Rehabilitation Medicine, Univ. of Maryland Rehabilitation and Orthopedic Institute and attending physician, Baltimore VA Medical Center; Dr. Homayoon Kazerooni, Prof. of Mechanical Engineering, Univ. of California Berkeley, Director, Berkeley Robotics and Human Engineering Laboratory and founder and Chief Scientist, Berkeley Bionics.

1/29/17...Radio Health Journal. AUTISM IN GIRLS: IT'S DIFFERENT 12:45 Synopsis: Experts have believed that autism affects four times as many boys as girls, but the ratio may not actually be quite that high. Doctors are learning that autism shows up differently in girls' behavior as a result of brain differences. This leaves many girls with autism undiagnosed. Host: Reed Pence. Guests: Dr. Thomas Frazier, Director, Center for Autism, Cleveland Clinic, Children's; Dr. Rachel Loftin, Clinical Director, Autism Center, Rush Univ. Medical Center; Dr. Kevin Pelphrey, Carbonell Prof. of Autism and Neurodevelopmental Disorders, George Washington Univ.

1/29/17...Radio Health Journal. POWER NAPS 7:12 Synopsis: Most employers believe the workplace is no place to nap, but research increasingly shows that a short nap in the middle of the day carries many benefits in increased productivity. Host: Nancy Benson. Guest: Dr. Michael Grandner, Director, Sleep and Health Research Program, Univ. of Arizona

2/19/17...Radio Health Journal. ANTIBIOTICS AND FARM ANIMALS: NEW RULES 12:18 Synopsis: Antibiotic resistance may mean some infections are untreatable in the future. To combat this bacterial evolution, new federal rules went into effect on January 1 that restrict use of antibiotics in food animals, where the majority of US antibiotics are consumed. Critics worry the rules don't go far enough. Experts on both sides of the issue discuss. Host: Reed Pence. Guests: Dr. David Wallinga, Senior Health Officer, Natural Resources Defense Council; Dr. Ramanan Laxminarayan, Director, Center for Disease Dynamics, Economics and Policy and former member, White House antibiotics panel; Dr. Liz Wagstrom, Chief Veterinarian, National Pork Producers Assn; Katie Roth, dairy farmer, Platteville, WI

2/19/17...Radio Health Journal. THE DECREASE IN HEARING LOSS 7:27 Synopsis: A major new study shows hearing loss is decreasing in the US. This has surprised some experts who've feared greater use of ear buds would lead to greater hearing loss in young people. Experts discuss why hearing loss is declining and caution against complacency. Host: Nancy Benson. Guests: Howard Hoffman, Program Director, Epidemiology and Statistics, National Inst on Deafness & Other Communication Disorders; Barbara Kelley, Exec. Dir, Hearing Loss Assn. of America

2/26/17...Radio Health Journal. EYE TRANSPLANTS: A FUTURE REALITY 6:04 Synopsis: Eye transplants have long been attempted unsuccessfully. Doctors are taking what they've learned in hand transplants, especially in nerve regeneration, and applying it to eye transplant development. Experts discuss what need to be accomplished to make transplants a reality. Host: Nancy Benson. Guests: Dr. Joel Schuman, Chairman and Prof. of Ophthalmology, Neuroscience and Physiology, New York Univ. School of Medicine and Langone Medical Center and Director, Langone Eye Center; Dr. Kia Washington, Asst. Prof. & Assoc. Director, Hand Transplantation Program, Univ. of Pittsburgh

3/5/17...Radio Health Journal. REMAKING THE FDA 12:31 Synopsis: The Trump Administration has signaled it intends to revamp the Food and Drug Administration to speed the approval of drugs. Some FDA commissioner candidates have proposed radical reform, including an end to the requirement that drugs must be effective to be approved. Experts discuss what reform might look like and what the FDA needs to better succeed. Host: Reed Pence. Guests: Peter Pitts, President, Center for Medicine in the Public Interest and former Food and Drug Administration Associate Commissioner; Dr. David Gortler, professor of pharmacology, Georgetown Univ. and a former Food and Drug Administration senior medical officer, now a Pharmacology expert and FDA expert with FormerFDA.com He was also the former FDA/health care policy and Obamacare/ACA repeal and replacement advisor for the 2016 Ted Cruz presidential campaign.

3/19/17...Radio Health Journal. SHORTENING THE COURSE OF ANTIBIOTICS 12:18 Synopsis: Since the introduction of antibiotics in World War II, doctors have prescribed courses of treatment that typically ran longer than necessary. Bacterial resistance is forcing a reevaluation, shortening courses sometimes to just a few days and even prompting doctors to advise not using all pills if patients feel better. Host: Reed Pence. Guests: Dr. Brad Spellberg, Chief Medical Officer, Los Angeles County-Univ. of Southern California Medical Center; Dr. William Schaffner, infectious disease specialist, Vanderbilt Univ. Medical Center; Dr. Louis Rice, Chairman, Dept. of Medicine, Warren Alpert Medical School, Brown Univ.

3/19/17...Radio Health Journal. CRIPPLING ANXIETY 7:41 Synopsis: Anxiety is normal, but too much can be crippling.
