RFV

Glenwood Springs City Council will consider banning RFTA bus service in town to slow the spread of COVID-19.... City council will consider an emergency order to prohibit RFTA service in Glenwood Springs tonight at 6PM.... RFTA says it disinfects in-service buses every 24 hours, at the least, in addition to cleaning and sanitizing its bus stops and stations frequently.... It also limiting its buses to 10 passengers at a time.... Bus fares have been suspended.... RFTA has already reduced service to what they call bare bones... Glenwood Springs residents are encouraged to contact local officials to chime in, or show up tonight at 6PM...

RFTA will continue to roll through Glenwood Springs... By a 4-3 vote, Glenwood Springs City will allow the Roaring Fork Transportation Authority to continue operating in town despite the potential health risks posed by the Covid-19 pandemic.... Councilman Rick Voorhees warned that someone we all know will need to be intubated and may not make it out of the ICU.... He said he needs to do everything he can to protect lives.... He joined Mayor Jonathan Godes and Councilman Steve Davis voting to suspend RFTA bus service.... Councilman Charlie Willman, Paula Stepp and Tony Hershey joined Mayor Pro Tem Shelley Kaup to continue to allow limited RFTA bus service in town.... Advocates say some residents rely on RFTA for essential services.... A recent survey of 27 riders conducted between April 1 and April 3, found that 48% of respondents said they utilized RFTA to get food and 33% said they rode the bus to get to work.....

While most of us are staying at home, construction season in Glenwood Canyon begins Friday.... Head to head traffic will begin causing delays for up to thirty minutes in the canyon.... Workers will resurface the pavement with polyester concrete overlay that is believed to be more durable in harsh conditions, like ice and snow..... Digital signs will keep motorists informed about delay times... The construction in Glenwood Canyon could last 8 months....

In Basalt, Bill Kane easily took Tuesday's mayoral race..... Kane received 652 votes,, Bill Infante was a distant second with 271 votes and Rob Leavitt was third with 219..... Glenn Drummond, David Knight and Elyse Hottel are in a close race for the three council seats... Incumbent Jenifer Riffle is a distant fourth....

Turnout in Basalt was at about 45 percent....

11 teenagers in the Roaring Fork Valley have tested positive for COVID-19 and local health officials are working to identify those who have come in contact with the infected.... Not everyone is being cooperative.... Eagle county officials released a statement yesterday that disease investigators have noted an unwillingness among some families to isolate at home and share information about possible exposure to others.... The cases, according to officials are mostly among teens between 16 and 18 and were spread in private social gatherings rather than a teenaged party type of gathering.... They are located in the Basalt and El Jebel areas which are part of Eagle county.... County officials have elevated its performance indicator from "comfortable" to "cautious" due to the sudden increase in the number of new cases and the potential for spread.... The county is looking to identify any close contacts to the teenagers... A close contact is essentially someone who has spent more than 10 minutes within six feet of an infected person.... Close contacts are urged to self isolate and get tested 5-7 days after their last contact with the infected person.... .

A protest of how the city of Glenwood Springs is dealing with COVID-19 took place yesterday attracting more than 50 people from all over the region... Eight speakers took to the stage to discuss their frustrations with city council and their harsh criticism of residents not wearing masks.... A recording of the protest has been made available....

On a side note, Garfield county commissioners yesterday extended the fireworks ban in unincorporated Garfield county beyond the Fourth Of July holiday.... No fireworks, including sparklers, are allowed to be used..... The sale of legal fireworks is still legal, their use, is not.... Unincorporated Garfield County includes all areas outside of municipal boundaries....

An argument in Veltus Park in Glenwood Springs early last night results in an arrest of a convicted sex offender found with two young girls in his car.... The 26 year old was confronted by the reporting party at the park to complain about loud music coming from his car according to the Post Independent..... It turned into an argument and the 26 year old showed a gun that looked like an AR-15 weapon.... The 26 year old left when the the reporting party called the police.... Authorities found the suspects car entering I-70 at exit 114.... Authorities pulled over the man and found a bb gun that looked like a revolver, and an air rifle that looked like an AR-15..... They also found meth in the back seat two girls under 14 years old... The man was found to be a registered sex offender and was taken into custody... Bond was set at just $1,500 but there is a hold on the man due to a parole violation.....

Three mountain lions in Missouri Heights were killed last week after killing three llamas in Missouri Heights..... An agent for the landowner was hired to protect the animals and observed five lions..... The agent shot three of the lions.... Parks and wildlife seized the carcasses the next day.... Parks and Wildlife received another report of a mountain lion passing through a neighbor's property the next day.... Dogs were used to hunt down the lions, but were unable to locate them.... Officials are reminding residents that mountain lions live all around us and to keep that in mind when it comes to livestock and pets....

Movies are coming back to the big screen in the Roaring Fork Valley, Movieland 7, will open Wednesday following a three-month closure due to the pandemic.... Some of the new policies put in place by parent company Bow Tie include required reserved seating, limiting auditorium capacity to 50%, alternate seating allowing each customer an empty seat on each side, contact-free purchasing for tickets and concessions, limits on restroom and lobby capacity along with cleaning enhancements..... Films to be shown include classics like "The Goonies," "Grease" and "The Dark Knight" and tickets will be $5. New releases could begin showing in the theaters as early as July 1, according to the announcement..

The town of Basalt could be on the hook for hundreds of thousands of dollars after it was found that Town Council violated the Colorado Open Meetings Law multiple times in 2016.... The Colorado Court of Appeals said in a ruling yesterday that the town failed to properly disclose topics being discussed in deliberations closed to the public....Basalt resident Ted Guy filed a lawsuit against the town government over the closed door executive sessions in October 2016, regarding former town manager Mike Scanlon according to the Aspen Times... The decision could cost Basalt $200,000....

When Governor Polis forced Colorado ski resorts to shut down, the ski industry was expected to suffer a brutal blow.... Aspen Skiing Company was on pace to challenge the record 2018-2019 season, but the shutdown put an end to that possibility ending the season 20 percent down..... Nationally, ski resorts also suffered... The National Ski Areas Association announced Wednesday that total skier visits in the U.S. fell by 14 percent in 2019-20 to just over 51 million..... The cost to the ski industry? At least $2 billion.... Colorado Ski County USA isn't expected to release skier visit numbers for the COVID shortened season....

The Eagle County Sheriff's office released a report Wednesday on how a New Jersey man died hanging from a Vail chairlift.... A witness was loading the same chair as Jason Varnish and noticed the seat was folded up according to the Vail Daily..... Varnish tried to pull the seat down and was unsuccessful.... The lift operator, according to the witness, was clearing away snow and not paying attention.... The witness was able to get out of the way, but Varnish's clothing got caught on a rubber stopper.... The witness yelled to stop the lift and by the time the lift stopped, Varnish was hanging from the chair 20-25 feet off the ground... A group tried to form a pyramid in the snow to reach Varnish, but the snow was too deep... The witness told the operator to reverse the lift, but the lift operator said reversing the lift without permission is against company policy... The operator eventually backed up the lift, but it was too late, according to the report... CPR was immediately administered and was unsuccessful....

EAGLE

The Eagle County Sheriff's office has identified the suspect and made an arrest involving several incidents of graffiti in the Eagle Valley.... 22-year-old, Nodberto De Jesus Guerrero Saucedo of Eagle is believed to be responsible for 23 incidents of graffiti in Edwards and Gypsum, and 19 incidents in the Town of Avon.... The vandalism would often have the words SARCO and BAKA and the number 53....

The Eagle River was running at just below peak levels when the boy went missing.... More than 500 volunteers have scoured the area looking for the boy.... A shoe and a cell phone have been recovered from the river.... The Go Fund Me page can be found under Sebastian Rodriguez Castro at gofundme.com....

Temperatures in Colorado Ski towns are finally in the seventies, but skiers and snowboarders have their eyes on November 2020..... The question, will there be riding and what will it look like.... Rob Katz, the CEO of Colorado-based Vail Resorts, recently discussed the topic with Wall Street analysts and he says he plans to test out ideas on properties in Australia and other Southern Hemisphere destinations that are about to start their ski seasons.... The Park Record reports that Katz is most concerned about pinch points, lift lines and restaurants.... Riders can spread out across large resorts, but the pinch points bring large groups of people into small areas... He told the audience that capacity restraints may be required limiting the number of riders on any given day.... He said skiing and snowboarding is on schedule, and while it may be a little different next season, it is going to happen....

Vail Resorts announced yesterday measures to deal with what is estimated to be $200 million dollars in third quarter losses due to the shutting down all their ski resorts last month..... All hourly employees will be furloughed for the next couple of months and salaried employees will see a reduction in their pay... Matching contributions to 401K plans will be suspended for six months and dividend payouts to shareholders will not take place in July and October.... SEGMENT2:	SERVED UP: POETRY WITH A SIDE OF DARK HUMOR	Time	Duration
Synopsis:	1,000,000 animal and plant species now face the threat of extinction. As more than 2,000 years ago, The Epic of Gilgamesh is thought to be the oldest epic poem ever written, created in 2000 BCE. Throughout time, poetry has stayed constant, with greats like Walt Whitman, Emily Dickinson and Henry Thoreau publishing cherished works still topical today. John Kenney is a modern poet whose work is frequently featured in the New Yorker. He’s best known for his collection of Love Poems for Married People and joins Viewpoints this week to share his many musings and provide some words of advice when it comes to writing. In 80 percent of all global biodiversity lives on private land, what is the role of corporations when it comes to protecting these endangered species? Viewpoints speaks with Margaret O’Gorman, president of the Wildlife Habitat Council, about the creative and adaptive policies companies can take to make a difference.	15:42	7:15

SEGMENT1:	THE MURDER OF GEORGE FLOYD: A DEEPENING PUBLIC HEALTH CRISIS	Time	Duration
Synopsis:	George Floyd was 46 years old when he was murdered on the street by ex-Minneapolis police officer Derek Chauvin. The father of five moved to the Midwest city in 2014 where he worked driving a truck and providing security at a local restaurant. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Floyd lost his security job. On May 25, Floyd was suspected of using a counterfeit $20 bill at a local store and officers were called to the scene. The question remains: how can a simple police call lead to the killing of an unarmed and unresisting man? For weeks, protests and outrage have spread across the U.S. and internationally as the killing of Floyd brings racial inequality and police brutality into focus once again. Even in the midst of a pandemic, people are showing up to say they're fed up with the lack of equal justice, rights and opportunities for all.	1:47	10:12

SEGMENT	IS YOUR CHILD FEELING ANXIOUS RIGHT NOW? GIVING SUPPORT WITHOUT SHIELDING THEM FROM THE WORLD	Tim	Duratio
Synopsi	The days when election and campaign news dominated the news cycle seem so distant. It's safe to say that no one could've imagined this year would be such a curveball. Learning's been disrupted, many parents are continuing to work from home and fears over COVID-19 are still very much present. We speak with a family trauma expert, Dr. Abigail Gewirtz, about dealing with these anxieties as an adult and how to have important conversations with your child or teen if you're sensing that they're more irritable, worried or anxious lately.	13:5	9:2
