And now, two people have been charged in the case: Marjorie Diehl-Armstrong and Kenneth Barnes. Authorities, speaking on the condition of anonymity, say AMW played a unique role in helping close this case.

in addition, AMW's 21st season kickoff episode will profile the newest addition to the FBI's infamous Ten Most Wanted list. Tips from AMW viewers have led to the capture of 16 Top Ten fugitives over the years.

Columbia, South Carolina...DOMINIC LYDE & DERRICK BENJAMIN...Cops in South Carolina have arrested five suspects in one major armored car robbery — to the tune of nearly $10 million. But they say two other suspects are still on the run. Only one of them is older than 22, so what did they do with all that cash? They blew their loot on tattoos, fancy cars and strippers. http://www.armw.com/fugitives/brief.cfm?id=45257

Kennewick, Washington...KENNETH FREEMAN CAPTURE...Ken Freeman, a man accused of raping his daughter and posting videos of the abuse online, has challenged a U.S. request to extradite him from Hong Kong, his lawyer said. Freeman was arrested by police in China after he fled the United States in 2006, facing charges in Washington state on three counts of child rape and jumping ball while also facing federal charges of producing and distributing child pornography. Freeman's maximum sentence would be life imprisonment if convicted. http://www.amw.com/fugitives/brief.cfm?id=41919

Manhattan, New York and Miami Beach, Florida...UNKNOWN NY/FL SERIAL RAPIST CAPTURE...AMW has repeatedly profiled the story of a courageous homeless woman who fought off a man who was raping her and in the process, grabbed the chain that dangled around his neck. The New York Police Department's Manhattan Special Victim's Unit has been just as vigilant - working with the victim and trying to find out who that chain belonged to. Nearly two years later that chain, and the DNA on it, has led to the arrest of 43-year-old Louis Alfonso. Cops have charged him with rape and attempted murder in the New York case, and believe he's responsible for a number of other vicious attacks.

Nationwide...AMW SAFETY CENTER: OFF-CAMPUS SAFETY...For many students living away from home for the first time, it is easy to take certain things for granted. But personal safety is something that should never be overlooked. AMW tells the story of one young woman who narrowly avoided becoming a predator's victim, and offers street smart tips to keep you safe.

http://amw.com/safety/

Nationwide...BACK TO SCHOOL SAFETY FEATURE...AMW puts new campus technology, such as bullet proof backpacks, to the test. We also visit the University of Maryland Eastern Shore Campus to learn about new Rave Wireless Technology, a system that sends alerts directly to student's cell phones. The importance of such technology was demonstrated not too long after the Virginia Tech shootings, when cops say a student, Shaun Warrick, stabbed one student, shot another, and then went on the run. All students were Immediately alerted on their cell phones with a picture of Warrick and information about the incident, but he slipped out of sight and is still on the run today.
