- 03/09/14 “The Data Brokers” – an investigation into the private companies that collect, analyze and package the personal information of millions of Americans. By using someone’s online internet searches, credit card purchases and government records, data brokers have been creating profiles of individuals and selling it as a commodity to each other, to advertisers and the U.S. government. Includes interviews with Julie Brill, Federal Trade Commissioner; Tim Sparapani, VP of Law, Policy and Government Relations at Application Develops Alliance; Ashkan Soltani, digital privacy expert and Bryan Kennedy, chairman and CEO of Epsilon. (C: Steve Kroft – P: Graham Messick, Maria Gavrilovic)
- “The Heart of the Revolution” – a report on the people behind Ukraine’s revolution against their government for the past three months in Kiev’s Independence Square. The revolt resulted in the parliamentary removal of President Victor Yanukovich and Russia’s seizure and annexation of Crimea. Includes interviews with Sviatoslav Yurash, in charge of the media operation for Euromaidan movement; Petro Poroshenko, billionaire and former Ukrainian foreign minister and Vitali Klitschko, retired heavyweight boxing champion and leader of the Ukrainian Democratic Alliance for Reform. (C: Clarissa Ward – P: Randall Joyce)
- “ALMA” – a report on the observatory in the Atacama Desert in Northern Chile known as the Atacama Large Millimeter/submillimeter Array, ALMA for short. ALMA is the $1.3 billion radio telescope which deciphers wave lengths of light--colors really-- that the human eye cannot see, and gives scientists a window on parts of the universe that are otherwise invisible, such as the actual birth of planets and stars. It is the most ambitious astronomical project on earth. Includes interviews with Pierre Cox, ALMA’s director; Alison Peck, physicist overseeing ALMA’s construction; Stuart Corder, ALMA’s deputy director and Chilean physicist Eduardo Hardy, ALMA’s director of North American operations. (C: Bob Simon – P: Michael H. Gavshon, David M. Levine)
- 03/16/14 “Bassem Youssef” – an interview / profile of cardiac surgeon - turned satirist - Bassem Youssef, whose political humor and Egyptian television show resemble America’s Jon Stewart and Comedy Central’s “The Daily Show.” Youssef’s satire has faced interrogation by Egyptian authorities, protests and even cancellation. (C: Bob Simon – P: Michael H. Gavshon, David M. Levine)
- “Drones Over America” – a report on domestic drones -- remote controlled, unmanned aerial vehicles -- and how they are revolutionizing everything from environmental research to possible package delivery at your doorstep. Many of the drones are equipped with cameras and are raising concerns for privacy issues since the Federal Aviation Administration is still deciphering the rules for them. Includes interviews with Colin Guinn, drone entrepreneur; Michael Toscano, President of

03/23/14 “Manhunt” – a report on how federal investigators handled the Boston Marathon bombing on April 15, 2013. The Joint Terrorism Task Force comprised of federal agents, state police and Boston cops used photo and video evidence to identify the bombers, and they then released a picture of the two suspects to the press. In the subsequent aftermath of the shooting death of an MIT police officer, one suspect was killed and later identified as Tamerlan Tsarnaev. The other suspect was then identified as his brother, Dzhokhar Tsarnaev. He was eventually captured . Includes interview with Rick DesLauriers, Special Agent; Stephanie Douglas, FBI Executive Assistant Director and Carmen Ortiz, U.S. Attorney. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Pat Milton, Robert G. Anderson)

“The Pink Panthers” – a report on the most successful gang of diamond and art thieves in the world, dubbed by Interpol, the global police organization based in Lyon, France, as the “Pink Panthers” because of their glamorous and audacious heists. The group is made up mostly of ex-Yugoslavs, many who fought in the Serbian Special Forces during the Bosnian wars, and who use their military discipline and expert planning to execute the robberies. Includes interviews with Ron Noble, secretary general of Interpol; Andrea Scholz, risk prevention consultant; Jan Glassey, Swiss Detective; Patrick Peys, chief inspector of Antwerp Diamond Squad and a semi-retired Pink Panther who identified himself as Filip. (C: Bob Simon – P: Katherine Davis)

“The Cartoonist” – a report on the weekly process of how the staff at The New Yorker chooses the magazine’s famous cartoons. The report focuses on Bob Mankoff, cartoon editor of The New Yorker, who recently released a memoir titled after one of his celebrated cartoons, “How About Never – Is Never Good for You?: My Life in Cartoons”. 48 HOURS

03/22/14

48 HOURS: “aka Rockefeller” - a report about the mysterious life of Christian Gerhartsreiter, a con-man, who pretended, since he came to America from Germany, to be a bond trader, a TV producer, a baronet and even Clark Rockefeller, a member of the famous and wealthy Rockefeller family. In 2008, Gerhartstreiter, then claiming to be Clark Rockefeller, made headlines when he abducted his 7-year-old daughter. The Rockefeller family made it clear that he was not a part of their family. What he was, according to police, was a killer on the run. His arrest in the kidnapping case blew the lid off a 30-year con. All the other identities he had used came to light including the alias he was living under in 1982 in San Marino, California: Christopher Chichester, the 13th Baronet of Chichester. San Marino police believe he murdered John and Linda Sohus, who disappeared in 1985. Years later, the bones on John Sohus were found in the backyard of the house where they lived. At the time, Christopher Chichester lived in the guest house on the property. He went on trial for the murder of John Sohus and was found guilty. On-Screen text graphic for original and rebroadcast: “Rockefeller” fired his lawyers and filed his own petition for a new trial. The judge denied the motion. His daughter is now twelve-years-old. She has no contact with her father. Interviewed: Christian Gerhartsreiter; Vanity Fair reporter/48 HOURS consultant Mark Seal; journalist and former friend Walter Kirn; Linda’s best friend Sue Coffman; former boss Richard Barnett; Lt. Dan Allen of the San Marino, California Police Department; Los Angeles County Sheriff Lee Baca; Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Deputy Tim Miley; FBI Special Agent Tammy Harty; forensic pathologist Dr. Frank Sheridan; prosecutor Habib Balica; John Sohus’ sister and brother Ellen Sohus and Chris Sohus.
