

KORB Quarterly Issues (Q2' 2022) and Programs Report

KORB lists their shows on its website at www.broken.fm

KORB has a weekly public interest show called Activate which is hosted by Jesse Bradley. The show features guests from all walks of life, but all have great stories and testimonies to share, and you can catch it every Saturday from 11 AM and Tuesday at 4:30 PM (Pacific time). The show is available here: <https://www.lightsource.com/ministry/activate/>

The issues that KORB is passionate about and are discussed over the air are:

- 1) Family
- 2) Teenage Sex
- 3) Teenage Suicide
- 4) Teenage Depression
- 5) Teenage Self-Mutilation
- 6) Abortion
- 7) Teenage Self-Esteem
- 8) Teenage Mentorship
- 9) Positive Role Models for Teenagers and young adults
- 10) Having a Balanced Budget
- 11) Veterans

The educational and infomercial needs of our community are being met with the following

- 1) Announcing Community Events
- 2) Interviewing rock bands and youth leaders who reach out to the youth
- 3) Mentoring Teenage and College-age students who want to learn about radio and volunteer as DJs
- 4) DJs bring up community events and promote local community outreaches and concerts with a positive message weekly
- 5) Since its inception, KORB has partnered with local Christian schools to assist in their outreach to their students and to the community
