

WUOG 90.5 FM, Athens, GA
Quarterly Program Topic Report
April 11, 2022 - July 11, 2022

Global Issues

Program Title: The Athens Journal News
Time of Broadcast: 05/02/2022 17:30:00
Program Duration: 30 minutes
Segment Duration: 3 minutes

The news staff reported on the ongoing large-scale evacuation of Ukrainians from the Russian-controlled Mariupol. They also reported that western leaders had been working to increase aid for Ukrainians, although the Biden administration had decided not to use direct U.S. military intervention. This reporting provided listeners with valuable information on a pivotal global situation.

National Issues

Program Title: The Athens Journal News
Time of Broadcast: 04/15/2022 12:00:00
Program Duration: 30 minutes
Segment Duration: 2 minutes

The news staff reported on the increase in gas costs. They discussed the reasons for this development in multiple facets. This provided the listener base with important information that could inform their spending habits.

Program Title: The Athens Journal News
Time of Broadcast: 04/18/2022 17:30:00
Program Duration: 30 minutes
Segment Duration: 3 minutes

The news staff reported on a federal judge in Florida striking down the CDC's rule that all travelers must wear masks on airplanes, trains, and other modes of public transportation. The content of this reporting had important implications for any listeners planning to travel by plane.

Local Issues

Program Title: The Athens Journal News
Time of Broadcast: 05/2/2022 17:30:00
Program Duration: 30 minutes
Segment Duration: 2 minutes

The news staff reported on the beginning of voting for various elections in local, state, and federal offices. The staff gave various resources so listeners could find their local polling places, providing them with information on how to exercise their rights.

Program Title: The Athens Journal News
Time of Broadcast: 04/29/2022 12:00:00
Program Duration: 30 minutes
Segment Duration: 3 minutes

The news staff reported on the unionization of Starbucks in Augusta, Ga. It was the first unionization by a Starbucks in Georgia and the second in the south. At the time of the broadcasts, more Starbucks locations were moving to organize. This reporting provided listeners with important information regarding labor stories.

Arts and Culture

Program Title: In the Mix
Time of Broadcast: 4/13/2022 13:00:00
Program Duration: 30 minutes
Segment Duration: 30 minutes

The hosts discussed Spring and Springtime fashion at length in various aspects. They specifically focused on the pros and cons of the “fast-fashion industry.” By providing this critical look at one of America’s most polluting industries, they informed and educated viewers about concerns and possible alternatives.

Program Title: In the Mix
Time of Broadcast: 4/20/2022
Program Duration: 30 minutes

Segment Duration: 30 minutes

The hosts discussed romantic comedies in their various forms. They focused their discussion on the gender dynamics within the art form, providing focused and illuminating programming for all present.

Campus Issues

Program Title: The Athens Journal News
Time of Broadcast: 04//18//22 17:30:00
Program Duration: 30 minutes
Segment Duration: 3 minutes

The news staff reported on the University System of Georgia Board of Regents announcing that it will not raise tuition next year. This meant that both graduate and undergraduate tuition would stay the same for the third year in a row at all but one USG institution. This information provided valuable information to any and all potential UGA students.

Healthcare

Program Title: Radio Rx
Time of Broadcast: 04/14/2022 12:30:00
Program Duration: 30 minutes
Segment Duration: 30 minutes

The hosts discussed the Vaught malpractice case. In which a nurse gave a patient the wrong drug and it lead to their death. The hosts discussed some specifics of the case and the ethics around it. Furthermore the hosts discussed how ethics fit into pharmacy and the type of ethical dilemmas a pharmacist may face on a day to day basis. Providing insight into healthcare ethics gave listeners a unique opportunity to hear these issues from a pharmacist's perspective.

Program title: Radio Rx
Time of Broadcast: 04/21/2022 12:30:30
Program Duration: 30 minutes
Segment Duration: 30 minutes

The hosts discussed healthcare with Transgender patients. They discussed the lack of knowledge and acknowledgement of transgender patients in the medical world. The hosts also later on went on to discuss an overview of medical transitioning works. This discussion helped inform listeners with in-depth, and educated discussion on an important aspect of healthcare.
