

2022 Q4 Issues List

Arts

Show Title: Athens Journal News

Duration: 3 minutes

Date: November 8, 2022

Start Time: 2:00 P.M.

The hosts reported on the untimely death and funeral of Atlanta rapper Takeoff. They gave details on the rapper's career as well as the facts surrounding his death. This reporting provided vital information on a tragedy felt by the entire nation.

Healthcare

Show Title: Radio RX

Duration: 30 minutes

Date: November 10, 2022

Start Time: 1:00 P.M.

The hosts discussed general seizure disorders. Then they went into general treatments followed by more specific treatments. The hosts also discussed personal experiences with seizures. This programming provided listeners with informed medical information.

Show Title: Radio RX

Duration: 30 minutes

Date: November 17, 2022

Start Time: 1:00 P.M.

On another installment of vaccine talk the hosts discussed the new Covid vaccine and how it is different from the previous boosters. They also discuss common misconceptions with regard to this and other vaccines.

Show Title: Radio RX

Duration: 30 Minutes
Date: December 1, 2022
Start Time: 1:00 P.M.

The hosts discussed HIV and AIDS. The content of this discussion ranged from; what the two are, the differences between them, and common myths that surround them.

Local Issues

Show Title: The Athens Journal News
Duration: 3 minutes
Date: November 8, 2022
Start Time: 2:00 P.M.

The hosts reported on the Georgia senate elections and the status of various aspects relevant to voters. These aspects included the then-current poll information, and when voters could expect the outcome of the election to be decided. This coverage provided valuable information for Georgians looking for election coverage.

Show Title: The Athens Journal News
Duration: 3 Minutes
Date: November 8, 2022
Start Time: 2:00 P.M.

The hosts reported on the Georgia Department of Natural Resources wild animal list. All animals on the list are considered by the department to be not allowed for importation, transportation, sale, transfer, or possession due to their capacity to become a disruptive species. This coverage provided listeners with valuable information on animal conservation and sustainability.

Show Title: The Athens Journal News
Duration: 3 Minutes
Date: November 8, 2022
Start Time: 2:00 P.M.

The hosts reported on the fact that early voting in Athens would end on Friday, November 4th. They also informed listeners of the times the polls would be open on November 4th. This information provided all listeners with important information they needed to perform their civic duties.

National Issues

Show: The Athens Journal news

Duration: 3 minutes

Date: November 29, 2022

Start Time: 2:00 P.M.

The hosts reported on the senate's bipartisan support of the Respect for Marriages Act to protect same-sex marriages across the nation. The hosts also detailed the history of the bill and its impact. This coverage provided in-depth coverage of historic political events affecting many Americans.

Show: The Athens Journal news

Duration: 3 minutes

Date: November 8, 2022

Start Time: 2:00 P.M.

The hosts reported a ten-dollar decrease in the costs of TSA Precheck status in airports. Experts linked this development with the strong likelihood that airport staff would be overwhelmed by travelers during the Holiday season. This coverage provided listeners with plans to travel over the winter holidays with important information about airport costs.

Show: The Athens Journal news

Duration: 3 minutes

Date: November 15, 2022

Start Time: 2:00 P.M.

The Hosts Reported on Former President Donald Trump's announcement of his bid to run for the president once again in 2024. The hosts delved deep into the current state of Trump's legal affairs, and his historic effect on the republican party.