

Program	Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Narration /Description of Program/Segment
Focus on the Family	Fighting for Joy as a Special Needs Parent	4/13/2021	8:30 A.M.	28:30 program	He thought his faith was strong. But when his son was diagnosed with autism, Jason Hague began to question everything he knew about God. In this Focus on the Family broadcast, Jason talks to Jim Daly and John Fuller about living with a broken heart and unanswered prayer. He unpacks the challenges and joys of being a special needs parent, and shares how he keeps faith in God and hope in the future, even when life looks nothing like he expected it to.
The Meeting House	Preventing Child Abuse	4/23/2021	4:00-6:00 P.M.	18:05 of 2-hour program	The Director of Foster Care and Adoption at Focus on the Family, Sharen Ford, correlating with Child Abuse Protection Month in April, shared about some of the causes of child abuse and how the Church can be involved in preventing and identifying it.
FamilyTalk Weekend	Connecting with Your Kids In the Age of Digital Disconnection	5/8/2021	10:00 A.M.	26 minute program	Host Dr. Tim Clinton: In 2021, having the old "birds and bees" conversation with your kids is no longer sufficient. In this age of smartphones, you'll also need to talk with your teen about the dangerous world of sexting and pornography. David Eaton, founder of Axis, urges parents to consider giving their teens a Gabb cell phone, which can only call, text without pictures, and use GPS. Additionally, thanks to the Axis website, which features over 300 parent-empowering resources, you can develop an ongoing conversation to connect with your teen's mind and heart.
The Meeting House	Summer Camps	5/10/2021	4:00-6:00 P.M.	13:30 of 2-hour program	With a preview of the summer of 2021, Amy Lowe, the Director of WinShape Camps for Girls, discussed the Day Camps and Overnight Camps, with information about the concept and programs being offered.
The Meeting House	Fulfillment During Retirement Years	5/27/2021	4:00-6:00 P.M.	18:06 of 2-hour program	Alex Lippert, the co-author of the book, afterwork: An honest discussion about the retirement lie and how to live a future worthy of dreams , provided a perspective consistent with Scripture that deals with meaning and purpose in what are commonly called the retirement years.
Focus on the Family	Finding Peace in your Everyday Life	6/3/2021	8:30 A.M.	28:30 program	Kay Wyma was backing out of her driveway one morning when a big truck barreled through her neighborhood, almost causing her to have an accident. Frustrated, she looked up at the sky, ready to spend the rest of her day in anger--only to realize it was a beautiful, summer day and she had a lot to be thankful for. That moment of perspective changed her entire mindset. Inspired, Kay decided to spend the next 30 days using moments like that to intentionally pursue peace—through focusing on thankfulness, kindness, and mercy. What transpired was more powerful than Kay had ever imagined, and at the end of the "peace project," her faith and family life were stronger than ever.
FamilyTalk Weekend	The Miracle of an Abortion Survivor: Choosing Forgiveness, Finding Redemption - Part I	6/5/2021	10:00 A.M.	26 minute program	Host: Dr. Tim Clinton: When Claire Culwell turned 21, she desired to meet her birth mother who had placed her up for adoption. Nothing could have prepared her for what she discovered. Her birth mother, Tonya, was only 13 at the time of her pregnancy, and Tonya's mother had insisted that she get an abortion. However, the abortionist was unaware that Tonya was pregnant with twins, so only one of the children was aborted. Claire was the twin who survived! She shares her emotional story in her new book, Survivor: An Abortion Survivor's Surprising Story of Choosing Forgiveness and Finding Redemption .
The Meeting House	Providing Homes for Young People	6/7/2021	4:00-6:00 P.M.	26:29 of 2-hour program	The CEO of Alabama Sheriffs Youth Ranches, Michael Smith, gave an overview of these ranches, described on the website as providing "Christian, family-style residential homes" for young people and outlined the need for houseparents to live in facilities across the state of Alabama.
The Meeting House	Impacting Urban Communities	6/24/2021	4:00-6:00 P.M.	19:55 of 2-hour program	The Founder and President of CURE, the Center for Urban Renewal and Education, Star Parker, visited Faith Radio/Meeting House Media Central at the 2021 National Religious Broadcasters Convention in Dallas and shared an overview of the organization and its work, and discussed founding principles of the U.S. consistent with Biblical concepts related to freedom.