EEO Public File Report
April 1, 2023 – March 31, 2024

Statement of Supplemental EEO Outreach Activities:

Throughout the reporting period, the station participated in various job banks of media trade groups whose membership includes substantial participation of women and minorities. Station personnel, including the Executive Vice President & CFO, posted all open full-time positions, including any upper-level job openings, with these groups, such as the Corporation for Public Broadcasting and Texas Non-Profit Network websites and local colleges and universities: the Alamo Community College District (St. Phillips College, Palo Alto College and San Antonio College), the University of Incarnate Word, the University of Texas at San Antonio, Texas A&M San Antonio and St. Mary's University.

The station sends various personnel to a variety of training seminars and conferences that enable staff to acquire skills that can qualify them for higher positions and attend sessions on diversity topics. Some of the conferences during the past year were all remote via ZOOM and other remote technology. During the last year some of the conferences attended by personnel, including President & CEO, Executive Vice President & CFO, Executive Assistant/Assistant Secretary, Vice President of Institutional Advancement, Vice President of Education, Director of Early Childhood Services, Director of Sponsorships and Branding Solutions, Community and Media Engagement Manager, and Director of Marketing and Digital, were: Public Media Business Association Conference (May 30-June 2, 2023), National Educational Telecommunications Association Education and Engagement Conference (September 11-14, 2023), Public Media Development and Marketing Conference (July 10-14, 2023), America's Public Television Stations Public Media Summit (February 25-27, 2024), Public Television Programmer's Association Conference (May 14-15, 2023), PBS annual Meeting (May 15-17, 2023), Corporate Support Performance Initiative training (October 3-5 and November 14-16, 2023) and various webinars, workshops and continuing education throughout the year. Members of station's senior staff participated in this training during the year.

All staff and interns, and management staff including the President & CEO, Executive Vice President & CFO, Vice President of Institutional Advancement, Vice President of Engineering and Vice President of Education, participated in Harassment and Bias Training from April 18, 2023 to September 30, 2023. These trainings covered methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and preventing discrimination. All staff, and management staff including the Executive Vice President & CFO, had the opportunity to participate in the Texas Public Media Staff Summit (July 20, 2023), the training featured training on diversity, equity and inclusion. The Summit was recorded and available for later viewing by staff.

The station has an internship program available that places college students in department areas throughout the station. The program requires that the student receive college credit for participation. The station had two interns hired under the program. One worked with our Director of Marketing and Digital in the Summer and Fall 2023 Semesters in our Marketing Department and another with our Director of News and Production during the same time period in our Production Department.

The station also had three diverse work-study students through local university work study programs. One student with the University of San Antonio's Rowdy Corps in the Spring of 2024, one with a St. Phillips work study student in the Fall of 2023 and one work study student with the Texas A&M University, San Antonio in the Fall of 2023, all working in our Education Department with our Director of School Services and our Vice President of Education. The station also had three 2023 summer interns through the Family Service Association for six weeks that worked with our Director of Early Childhood Services assisting with community outreach.

The station also partnered with San Antonio College to offer a paid Production Department internship opportunity for recipients of College's Rosenda Rios Memorial Endowed Scholarship. A recipient of the scholarship program was hired for the 2024 Spring semester as an intern and was supervised by our Director of News and Production. This past year the station had two diverse interns over the summer that interned under the Ambassador program in our Education Department and were supervised by Director of Early Childhood Services.
