GOVERNMENT	CLEARVIEW - LONG TERM CARE REPORT	Getting teenage runaways off the street requires a willingness to go to the places they go. Deloris McIntosh of Safehouse in Schenectady says her organization sends employees out to find teens who are trying to live on the streets. McIntosh says the teens may know their lives are in chaos but don't know how to fix them. They become desperate for change and decide to run away from home. For some of them, returning home is not an option. Safehouse serves about 150 young people between the ages of 16 and 20 each year, giving them a place to stay for up to 30 days and then helping them get home or find other permanent housing. DISABILITY AWARENESS	CLEARVIEW - SPOTTED ZEBRA	The Spotted Zebra Learning Center is an early childhood learning center that integrates special need learners with average learners. Owner Sherri Townsend talks about the art of teaching to a variety of learning styles and the successes many of their children have had. Early Intervention and early learning are the keys to maximizing a person's potential according to Townsend. The Learning Center helps parents help their children by bringing Special Education, Speech & Language Therapy, Occupational Therapy and Physical Therapy services either on-site or in the natural setting of the child. DISABILITY SERVICES	CLEARVIEW - LIVING RESOURCES	Fred Erlich, CEO of Living Resources joins us to talk about the work they do. Living Resources been at the forefront of some groundbreaking programs for individuals with developmental disabilities and acquired brain injuries. Most recently, the organization opened the first Barrier-free Smart House in New York State, which is designed to serve people with disabilities while allowing them to maintain an independent lifestyle. Also in the past several years, Living Resources has identified and moved to serve the needs of older members of our community who would prefer to age in place. Very often senior citizens can stay in their own homes provided they have some support services, be they practical or medical in nature. Erlich talks about the cost benefit for the community and client by expanding services to help people stay in their own homes longer. Fred has been with Living Resources since it was founded in 1974. Over the years he has seen the organization grow to currently serving more than 1,200 individuals throughout the greater Capital Region, including Saratoga, Warren and Washington counties.	Fred Erlich	04/19/2015 07:00 AM	012:55
EDUCATION	CLEARVIEW - TEACHING LATIN	Gloversville High School teacher Charles Giglio received special recognition from the New York State Department of Education for his exceptional teaching style, but it's the subject he teaches that generates a myriad of questions. Giglio teaches Latin. Giglio talks about why the study of Latin is still an appropriate use of time and resources, giving examples of careers that benefit from having a basic knowledge of Latin. YOUTH	CLEARVIEW - SHELTERS OF SARATOGA	Shelters of Saratoga provides a roof, a bed, and food for people in need, but their services go well beyond that. Among them: youth outreach. Crystal Swinton, Youth Outreach Coordinator talks about the aspects of a young person's life that may make them at risk for becoming homeless. Swinton says much of what they do is relationship building, in order to let young people who may find themselves struggling know that help is available. Shelters of Saratoga provides outreach by literally hitting the streets to talk to young people who appear to be in need. The outreach component also includes help at a couple of after-school programs where young people are assisted with their homework and provided with someone to talk to. A project in the works would create a drop-in site, where young adults could come in, do their laundry, get job hunting tips and counseling if desired. Young people who have aged-out of foster care are among those most at-risk to become homeless.	CRYSTAL SWINTON	04/26/2015 07:00 AM	012:18
HEALTH	CLEARVIEW - AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY	Each year the American Cancer Society Cancer Action Network (ACSCAN) releases a report which ranks states on how they are doing in regards to specific policies to combat cancer. Bill Sherman, Vice President, Government Relations tells us that New York is making progress, meeting ACSCAN's benchmarks for 6 of the 12 issues. Sherman says some of the areas New York is excelling in include: Tobacco Tax Rates and Early Detection Funding. Some of areas where more work needs to be done include: Tobacco Prevention Funding and Medicaid Coverage of Tobacco Cessation. Sherman notes well over 70 percent of smokers say they would like to quit and points out that increasing	BILL SHERMAN	04/26/2015 07:17 AM	014:25

ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS	CLEARVIEW - FIVE RIVERS	5 Rivers Environmental Education Center in Delmar is a year round living museum. With 450 acres of property and a visitor center, Five Rivers gives visitors and opportunity to connect with nature. Director Ray Perry talks about the wild life a visitor may encounter and the habitats they work to maintain. Perry says Five Rivers has become an especially favorite destination of Birders because they have recorded sightings of over 225 species on the property. Perry says the goal of their indoor Visitor Center is to inspire people to get outdoors so they can learn more about nature. Admission to the Center is free and the grounds are open from sunrise to sunset. The Visitor Center is open Monday through Saturday 9 am to 4:30 pm.	RAY PERRY	05/03/2015 07:00 AM	013:55
YOUTH	CLEARVIEW - UNDERAGE DRINKING	Albany County Sheriff Craig Apple discusses efforts to keep teens from drinking alcohol during prom parties and beyond. Apple also discusses arrests involving house parties. He talks about the pros and cons of not only charging those who serve alcohol to teens, but also charging the teens themselves for unlawful possession.	Craig Apple	05/03/2015 07:18 AM	013:14

She references the ways the March of Dimes helps volunteers help other families and where their financial support comes from.
HEALTH	CLEARVIEW - DIABETES	Dr. Matt Leinung, Endocrinologist from Albany Medical Center talks about the challenges involved in managing diabetes. He is part of a local effort through the American Diabetes Association to take a community approach to teaching people better ways to manage their disease. Dr. Leinung acknowledges that people lead busy lives and that trying to improve their diets and exercise regimens to help manage their diabetes is a challenge. He says with community support, success becomes more possible. We also touch on the reasons behind an increase in diabetes, attempts to reverse the disease and societal changes that may improve health	DR. MATT LEINUNG	05/17/2015 07:16 AM	012:39
VETERANS	CLEARVIEW - VETERANS MIRACLE CENTER	Veterans Miracle Center (VMC) is an initiative of Jezreel International. Jim Pratt discusses how VMC got started, what they have achieved so far and plans for the future. He says the center will have clothing, personal care items, furniture and more at no cost to veterans. In fact, Pratt says if the VMC doesn't have a specific item that a vet needs (for example work boots) the VMC will try to get it. Jezreel is already hooked up with a number of volunteer groups and providers, but Pratt says they are looking for more people to get involved in the VMC. The center is located in Colonie.	JIM PRATT	05/24/2015 07:00 AM	013:15

He acknowledges how difficult it can be for parents to stay ahead of the technology and points out how important it is for parents to maintain good communication with their kids. Spero further advises us about federal efforts to crack down on predators who are finding ways to stay anonymous on some servers.
VOLUNTEERISM	CLEARVIEW - REGIONAL FOOD BANK OF NORTHEASTERN NY	Regional Food Bank of Northeastern New York Executive Director Mark Quandt joins Diane Donato to talk about where the tens of millions of pounds of food they distribute each year come from. Quandt goes into detail about the costs involved in holding and distributing food to the one thousand charitable agencies they work with and maintaining a cost-ratio of spending just one dollar for every ten dollars worth of food they deliver. Quandt talks about their two warehouses and one farm, their volunteers who make it all possible, and the large and small donors who supply their shelves. Also discussed: the takeaway for society at large about what is driving the need for food assistance. Quandt believes the increased need that began with the recession is stabilizing and that many of those who need food are working people who have not had wage increases to keep up with rising cost-of-living.	MARK QUANDT	05/31/2015 07:01 AM	012:51
ECONOMY	CLEARVIEW - UPSTATE MANUFACTURING	The challenges and benefits of revitalizing manufacturing in Upstate New York is the subject of this edition of Clearview featuring Congressman Paul Tonko. He believes we need to revitalize public-private partnerships to help manufacturing and technology thrive and points to present day success stories. Congressman Tonko advises that to stay globally competitive we need to graduate more students with degrees in Engineering. Despite low cost competition he is optimistic that American ingenuity provides us with an edge. The topic is also featured in the American Made movie.
HEALTH	CLEARVIEW - TICKS PT 1	Congressman Chris Gibson who has co-sponsored legislation designed to free up more money for research on tick borne illnesses. Congressman Gibson discusses the effect the diseases have had on many of his constituents and points out that the medical testing is unreliable. He suggests a first step is to get more scientific data culled together, since he says much of it has not been given proper attention. The Congressman notes that in addition to the human cost caused by these diseases, the tourism industry could be negatively affected if the threat of tick-borne illnesses dissuades tourists from visiting New York. Both Ahern and Gibson also discuss prevention as an important key to preventing illness.	CHRIS GIBSON	06/07/2015 07:00 AM	012:03
HEALTH	CLEARVIEW - TICKS PT 2	For years we've been hearing about the danger ticks present as carriers of Lyme disease, now we're learning about the extended threat ticks present as carriers of many different diseases. This special two part Clearview begins with an interview with Holly Ahern, a microbiologist at SUNY Adirondack who has become an expert on Lyme and other tick-borne illnesses after her own daughter contracted a debilitating strain of Lyme. GOVERNMENT	CLEARVIEW - YOUTH COURT	Youth Court offers students in grades 7-12 a program to learn about the criminal justice system and work directly with the experts in the judicial system in the town of Clifton Park. Supervisor Phil Barrett and Councilwoman Amy Standaert talk with Diane Donato about the benefits to the volunteers and the benefits to the teens who submit themselves for trial. The program examines what types of offenses are appropriate for the venue and the types of punishments handed out to teens by a jury of their peers. Lastly, the program looks at ways other communities can develop this valuable resource and teach young people about our justice system	Phil Barrett	06/14/2015 07:00 AM	012:57
HEALTH	CLEARVIEW - SAFE MOTHERHOOD INITIATIVE	The Safe Motherhood Initiative is an attempt to ensure the best maternal outcome when a woman gives birth. Donna Montalto, MPP, Executive Director of the American Congress of Obstetricians and Gynecologists District II talks about mortality rates associated with child-bearing in New York and outlines some standards that if implemented by all healthcare providers may decrease the risk of death associated with giving birth. Montalto discusses the main causes of maternal mortality and tells us how healthcare providers are being informed of better ways to respond to obstetric emergencies.	DONNA MONTALTO	06/14/2015 07:18 AM	013:05
ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS	CLEARVIEW - PLANT SWAP AND SALE	Gardening and generosity seem to go together. Diane Donato covered the event talking with Penny Salemme, Wilma and John Jozwiak, Susan Cromer and other volunteers about how to host such an event and the various benefits to a community.
VETERANS	CLEARVIEW - VA Whistleblower	Attorney Ariel Solomon represents one of the whistleblowers who helped call attention to systemic problems at the V.A. Dr. Jose Mathews is a St. Louis psychiatrist, who filed complaints and says he was demoted. Mathews claims he was trying to effect changes that would reduce the wait time for veteran's seeking psychiatric care. Based on her knowledge of the case, Solomon talks about the need for greater transparency and accountability at the VA. Solomon is optimistic that changes in leadership and the way veterans can access care will improve the system, albeit slowly	ARIEL SOLOMON	06/21/2015 07:18 AM	013:01
CULTURE	CLEARVIEW - OPERA SARATOGA	Lawrence Edelson, Artistic and General Director of Opera Saratoga talks about future works for the company. Opera Saratoga debuted in 1962 as Lake George Opera and is making permanent what was to be a temporary change of address. Edelson talks about the reasons for the move and the potential to attract a wider audience. Geographically, Opera Saratoga is well placed between New York City, Boston, Montreal, and Glimmerglass in Cooperstown. Opera's place in contemporary culture is discussed and Edelson says he is especially looking forward to presenting The Long Walk. The Long Walk is based on Brian Castner's critically acclaimed book, and offers a deeply personal exploration of a soldier's return	LARRY EDELSON	06/28/2015 07:00 AM	014:15

CULTURE	CLEARVIEW - YOUTH AND ART	T-N-T is a lyricist and hip-hop artist who grew up in Schenectady and has just released his first album. He talks about finding his passion for music and using it as a conduit to channel the bad things in his life into a new direction. He says he has been inspired by people like Bob Dylan who reflect everything around them in their art. T-N-T explains the difference between ABC and compound rhyming schemes, the difference between lyricism and rap, matching beats to lyrics and vice versa, and talks about the creative differences involve in writing and producing as opposed to performing before an audience.	TNT	06/28/2015 07:19 AM	012:37
