We discuss what items would go into an emergency kit, such as medications, flashlights, blankets, and documents and the best way to keep it all handy. Striar suggests creating a family plan to reunite family members in the event of separation. An app developed by the American Red Cross not only provides pages of "What to do" information, but it also transforms the Iphone into a flashlight, strobe light, or siren. We also discuss some of the classes the American Red Cross presents in the community.
MILITARY AND VETERANS	CLEARVIEW - MARINE TRAINING	WGY's George Morris attended a Marine Educator's Workshop on Parris Island, South Carolina. He shares his experiences and interviews Skylar Skellington of Syracuse, a recruit. She recalls why she joined the Marines and explains how she balances the demands of drill instructors with her longing for home. Joe Fesel, Work Based Learning Coordinator for the Albany City School District, talks about what he learned at the workshop and how he can transfer that to his students. Staff Sergeant Joshua Franklin details his work in recruiting from the Schenectady Substation and how he maintains contact with recruits after they are sent to Parris Island.	LINCY M JACOB	01/04/2015 07:15 AM	013:47

GOVERNMENT	CLEARVIEW - CUOMO PRESS SECRETARY	Three term Governor Mario Cuomo has left an indelible stamp on the state of New York. His former press secretary talks about Mario Cuomo's philosophy, his desire to serve, his demands for accuracy, and his admiration for Abraham Lincoln. Harold Holzer shares anecdotes about Cuomo and explains why he thinks Cuomo was one of the few people capable of writing speeches as significant as those written by Lincoln.	HOWARD HOLZER	01/11/2015 07:00 AM	015:11
ENVIRONMENT	CLEARVIEW - ENVIRONMENT	In a continued effort to reduce the carbon footprint of the SUNY Albany campus, administrators are welcoming the H2O Zone this year. The H2O Zone, which is a complimentary filtered water station on campus, will provide the entire campus community with free water (even seltzer) all year. Undergraduate Karan Verma envisioned the program as a way to eliminate the usage of disposable plastic water bottles that students are frequently using. Verma talks about how he got the idea and why he thinks it will help keep hundreds of empty waters bottles out of the trash stream each day.	CAREN VARMA	01/11/2015 07:19 AM	012:27
CULTURAL LITERACY	CLEARVIEW - GUNNY GUNDRUM	A local man shares memories of his part as witness and protector at the I Have a Dream speech. name, but it is likely you have seen his face. On Aug. 28, 1963, he was given this assignment: report to the Lincoln Memorial for special detail. That, 50 years ago, was the day Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. led the march on Washington and delivered what is now known as the I Have a Dream speech. Gundrum had podium duty and was assigned to protect whoever gave a speech. His face is in the background of countless pictures of King from the historic day. Now at 75+, he is telling his story. He also reveals why he has only recently decided to share his memories.

EDUCATION

CLEARVIEW - TEACHING LATIN

Gloversville High School teacher Charles Giglio received special recognition from the New York State Department of Education for his exceptional teaching style, but it (tm)s the subject he teaches that generates a myriad of questions. Giglio teaches Latin. Giglio talks about why the study of Latin is still an appropriate use of time and resources, giving examples of careers that benefit from having a basic knowledge of Latin. He discusses how understanding Latin aids in the understanding of Western culture and he gives some hints about why generations of students have asked to be placed in his class.

	CLEARVIEW - EXCHANGE STUDENTS	Hosting an international exchange student is the subject of this edition of Clearview. Teresa Knapp of the International Student Exchange talks about how her organization helps match students with families and what the expectations are for host families and the teens the temporarily "adopt." She talks about the value of the experience, at times offering first-hand knowledge. We spend a short time on the value of American students going abroad. Knapp says the value of exchange programs like her is noted by the State Department as essential for strengthening foreign relations.	TERESA KNAPP	01/25/2015 07:00 AM	012:52
ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS	CLEARVIEW - WATERSHED	In this edition of Clearview, Dave Mosher discusses a management plan for the Mohawk River Watershed. Mosher is the Chairman of the Mohawk River Watershed Coalition and the Program Coordinator for the Schenectady County Soil and Water Conservation District. The watershed includes all of the tributaries of the Mohawk River from near Rome to where it meets the Hudson in Cohoes and has a large impact in the various areas it touches - from flooding to pollution to erosion. Mosher talks about the challenges of creating a comprehensive plan to care for a physical asset that runs through so many municipalities. He also notes the value to the communities in caring	DAVE MOSHIER	01/25/2015 07:16 AM	012:45

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS	CLEARVIEW - UALBANY COLLEGE OF EMERGENCY	Dr. Robert Jones, president at the University at Albany talks about the development of the nation (tm)s first College of Emergency Preparedness, Homeland Security and Cybersecurity. Dr. Jones says the university has been entrusted with a big responsibility to help New York become better prepared to deal with emergencies. He also touches on Digital Forensics programs at the University and the development of Mesonet program to help predict weather emergencies.	DR. ROBERT JONES	02/08/2015 07:00 AM	012:56
HEALTH	CLEARVIEW - COLORECTAL CANCER	Colon cancer is treatable, beatable and curable. That's the message Suzanne Hagadorn, Health Education Promotion Coordinator for Cancer Service Program of Fulton Montgomery and Schenectady Counties says people should keep in mind when considering undergoing screening for colon cancer. Hagadorn talks about free services their program provides to help people get the recommended testing. She also discusses overcoming the discomfort and embarrassment people fear will be a part of a colonoscopy.	SUZANNE HAGADORN	02/08/2015 07:17 AM	012:34
BULLYING	CLEARVIEW - SOCIAL MEDIA BULLYING	Sticks and stones aren't needed for bullies to crush their victims when it comes to internet gaming. Local author Mark Cheverton discusses the cyber-bullying his young son experienced in the popular Minecraft world.	MARK CHEVERTON	02/15/2015 07:00 AM	012:26

		Cheverton talks about the many positive aspect of Minecraft, the ways parents can get involved and protect their children while they are on-line and a book he wrote that creates a fictional antidote to cyber-bullying called Invasion of the Overworld: A Minecraft Novel.
YOUTH	CLEARVIEW - EXERCISE AND CHILDREN	Dustin Verga discusses ways to reengage kids in lifestyles that are more physical. Verga, president of the Exercise Science and Sports Medicine Section of the Executive Board for New York State Association for Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance, is also a Kinesiology teacher at Tech Valley High School. Verga acknowledges our lives have changed, making it increasingly difficult for kids to get casual exercise. He says organized sports don't appeal to all kids and families may find more success by getting their kids involved in hiking, Wii fitness games, or dancing after school. He notes screen time is a major competitor for kids time and that families need to make physical fitness a value in their lives.	DUSTIN VERGA	02/15/2015 07:16 AM	012:34
GOVERNMENT	CLEARVIEW - AFTERSCHOOL CARE	Dr. Nora Niedzielski-Eichner, Executive Director New York State Afterschool Network talks with Diane Donato about the importance of afterschool programming for children and their families and the impact of quality care on school performance. Additionally, afterschool programs have been found to increase school attendance and reduce risks of substance abuse and involvement in juvenile crime. We talk about the America After 3PM report which finds New York falling behind when it comes to investing in afterschool programming.
VETERANS	CLEARVIEW - VA WHISTLEBLOWER	Attorney Ariel Solomon represents one of the whistleblowers who helped call attention to systemic problems at the V.A. Dr. Jose Mathews is a St. Louis psychiatrist, who filed complaints and says he was demoted. Mathews claims he was trying to effect changes that would reduce the wait time for veteran's seeking psychiatric care. Based on her knowledge of the case, Solomon talks about the need for greater transparency and accountability at the VA. Solomon is optimistic that changes in leadership and the way veterans can access care will improve the system, albeit slowly.	ARIEL SOLOMON	02/22/2015 07:18 AM	013:00

COMMUNITY	CLEARVIEW - CAPITAL DISTRICT YMCA	Dave Brown, CEO of the Capital District YMCA talks about the thousands of lives impacted by the Y. While the Y is renowned for providing access to a wide variety of physical fitness opportunities, it is increasingly impacting families, employers and schools through its before and after school and summer programs. Brown says because of the child care offerings, the CDYMCA has also become a significant contributor to local employment. Brown also discusses the communities that call the Y home and the challenges in providing so many benefits while keeping membership costs affordable. The Y also serves a vital role in Schenectady by maintaining housing for men who are employed but in need of shelter.	DAVE BROWN, CEO	03/29/2015 07:00 PM	13:26
