

Description of Issue	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
1. Technology	Into the News	1/9/24	9:00-9:20 a.m.	20min.	The Consumer Electronics Show (CES) kicked off in Las Vegas. Riding on the AI craze, this year saw the largest number of companies and attendees ever; major hotels in Las Vegas are almost fully booked, and prices have increased 2-3 times. These developments have Las Vegas in a state of excitement over the CES 2024 fever this week.
2. Business Practices	Inside America	1/16/24	9:20-9:40 a.m.	20 min.	Companies providing Basic Workplace Etiquette and Soft Skills training are booming to educate workers whose collegial skills may have deteriorated due to working from home during the pandemic. The trainings point out that there are some things that everyone forgets about in terms of techniques and etiquette for acting face-to-face with others in the workplace.
3. Economy	Morning Focus	1/30/24	9:40-10:00 a.m.	20 min.	With the tax season underway, it is feared that related scams will also be on the rise. The consumer advocacy group Better Business Bureau (BBB) warned that as tax season begins, taxpayers could be victimized by a number of scams.
4. State Government	Morning Focus	2/5/24	9:40-10:00 a.m.	20 min.	In part due to the COVID-19 pandemic and inflation, California's poverty rate exceeded 13% last year. In particular, 1 in 3 Californians are likely to live in poverty or fall below the poverty line, making the cost of living, including the high cost of housing, unstable. Unfortunately, the proportion of low-income households is expected to increase significantly.
5. American Culture and Society	Inside News	2/13/24	9:00-9:20 a.m.	20 min.	A new poll has been released that looks at how Americans feel about California. The survey found that half of Americans believe California is in decline. But among young people, California is seen as the leader of many trends.
6. Social Issues	Inside America	2/26/24	9:20-9:40 a.m.	20 min.	Ever since graffiti first appeared on skyscrapers in downtown LA, the phenomenon has skyrocketed in downtown LA. The only neighborhood in Los Angeles that's more graffiti-stained than downtown is Boyle Heights. Graffiti can be seen all over Koreatown in Los Angeles, and Koreatown was ranked as the seventh most graffiti-covered area in Los Angeles.
7. Local Economy	Live Desk	3/7/24	2:00-3:00 p.m.	60 min.	It will be interesting to see if the $2 billion megaproject originally planned for downtown Los Angeles in the skid row area can be accelerated in the future. California Governor Gavin Newsom has taken steps to achieve this.
8. Culture and Lifestyle	Inside America	3/14/24	9:20-9:40 a.m.	20 min.	It seems that it may become difficult to eat chocolate in the future. This is because cacao, the raw material for chocolate, is expected to be in short supply this year because of reduced production caused by climate change. Chocolate manufacturers are already planning to raise prices, which is expected to cause chocolate prices to soar.
9. Education	Into the News	3/21/24	9:00-9:30 a.m.	30 min.	The Los Angeles Unified School District has unveiled Ed, an artificial intelligence AI bot that will act as an advisor to students by informing them of grades and test progress, checking attendance, giving them quick papers, and introducing books to read. In particular, the district is working with federal security companies and has included filters in the program to block all types of possible threats, so the district is confident that it will be fully protected from a technical point of view.