PUBLIC FILE: ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

4th Quarter, 2020

DATE OF REPORT: January 10, 2021

National Public Radio News

KUVU Jazz carries three minutes of news from National Public Radio Monday through Friday hourly from 6:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Newscasts include national and international news, including spokespersons, newsmakers and actualities from a wide variety of locations around the world.

“InDigitNess Voice”

InDigitNess Voice's mission is to entertain, educate, and engage positive perceptions of Native America today. Hosted by Richard, Alix and Kodid Two-Elk, InDigitNess Voice features traditional and contemporary music while focusing on the current issues, people, news and events of Native American communities.

“Latino USA”

Latino USA is a weekly one-hour program that for 25 years has provided a platform for Latino voices and perspectives in the radio news landscape. Hosted by the award-winning journalist, news anchor and author Maria Hinojosa, the program specializes in news, culture and storytelling that creates a space where Latino Americans hear their experiences reflected, and where non-Latinos can join the conversations happening in Latino communities.

“Stories of Standards”

Every weekday morning Monday through Friday at 7:50 a.m. and 8:50 a.m. host Rodney Franks presents “Stories of Standards,” a music education segment that allows listeners to hear KUVU’s favorite versions of jazz standards and hear the stories behind those standards.

“Jazz Notes with Norman Provizer”

Most Thursdays at 11:30 a.m., longtime Denver jazz columnist Norman Provizer shares music news, commentary and highlights of jazz performances in metro Denver and across Colorado.
