Join William Federer as he guides you through the faith in our history with the stories of the real-life Pirates of the Caribbean and a tragic show of Gods power. Port Royal Jamaica surpassed Boston as England's most prosperous settlement. Called the Sodom of the new world for its pirates, cutthroats, and drinking, gambling, and slave trading, it was the richest and wickedest city in the world. Until June 7th 1692, when an earthquake and tsunami sank it under the sea. Over 2,000 drowned, graves opened, and bodies washed about.

Brandon Hollis, David Gray, Nick Lindsay, Mark Galambos, Stephen Owens. Some say Genesis was written poetically and means that the Earth could possibly be millions of years old. Could this be true? The Bible speaks on seven days and now we don't know if that is seven 24-hour days or days as in when Peter says a day to God is like a thousand years to us, right? So, both is possible, right? But what we have in Genesis is recorded history, right? So as in recorded history, we can see back to 6,000 years, right? But when it comes to, how long was the earth in existence before recorded history? Specifically, we don't know, but there are a few theories out there about if it's 24-hour days or, you know, thousands and thousands of years for particular day, okay?

Youth Minister Alyssa Cuprik discusses how your church can effectively use social media to reach millennials. First, that there should always be a team in place, whether it's the greeting team or a team that's designated to just connect with people that walk in the door. The Millennials, they walk in the door and that might even be challenging because like you said, they are in their phones. So that might even be a place where social media steps in altogether.

Minister and radio host Donielle Williams talks about the importance of getting outside the four walls of the church to empower women. Jordan's Crowell is a Ministry that God had birth through me through pain. But it's a ministry that he ordained for us to go outside, the walls of the church and restore men and women back into The original intent that he's created him to be, so returned to the identity of knowing who they are in Christ Jesus. So, we go into the shelters and then we just recently birthed a ministry called the healing room, where we come and meet people at where they are.

Eugene Norris, Samuel Hampton, Nancy Galambos, Rich Hall, Ronald Turner. I find it very hard to be around other people, the socialization part. How do you think God views this? You may find it hard to come around people but we need each other, because he did not create us to live in isolation. Even though there's times we go away to pray, and we see that in scripture. Jesus did it but I need my fellow co-laborers in the gospel, I need them because they encourage me as I encourage them. So, I would say work on coming around the body of believers for your own spiritual nourishment. But not only for what you can receive but what also God has put in you to give to them.

Brandon Hollis, David Gray, Nick Lindsay, Mark Galambos, Stephen Owens. Should a person who says they're called by God wander about or unite with a church home? I really think that people need to get right and settle down. It's okay to be a person that's called to go and speak to other congregations. It's okay for a person who goes out and does street witnessing. It's okay to have the but what's not okay is not to have some kind of accountability.

Our God is so big that we can ask those big hard questions and be honest with him and he then becomes so real and so that's how because a lot of people are hurting that way and have experienced that kind of hurt. Tim Walker, Anthony Medley, Dr Kathaleen Wuopio, David Gray, Mark Galambos, Luvirt Parker. When asked about suicide, can you direct me as to what to say? It's one of those things that probably well not speak too quickly but to listen and hear what they're really saying. What is the fear that is gripping their heart? What is the thing that has caused them to lose hope? I clearly believe that God is the God of all comfort and that he will comfort us in our sorrow but also, he's the God who renews our mind. So that when our minds are renewed, we might be able to see situations in a whole different light and seeing those situations in a different light might allow us to be able to breathe, allow us to be able to think clearly.

Dr Faron Cole, Nick Lindsay, Timothy Roeser, Samuel Hampton, Tim Neal. What does the scripture mean when King David said, he could get to his child that had died but couldn't bring the child back? I believe scripture is very plain in this scripture that the child went to be with God. This child is innocent, is not even capable of realizing what sin is and deciding to accept the forgiveness of God. So, I believe that this makes it plain that God takes little children to be with him in heaven, where David expects to go someday, because he knew he belonged to God as well.

Andrae Maze, Tim Neal, Nick Lindsay, J.D.D. Hawk Bolden, Joseph Colini, Timothy Roeser. When Christians die and go to heaven, do they have a temporary body? I would direct the question to Ecclesiastes 12:7. As says then shall the dust return to the Earth as it was and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it. So, I would say our flesh would be like the paint on this cup right here and then the cup itself would be like the soul. And the spirit would be like the contents within the cup. And that spirit in the soul is going to return back to the Lord, but it depends on what spirit is in the cup.

And then it took at least another month, I had a colonoscopy and I had several just procedures and hospital visits and post-ops. And then at it was March when I had the reversal. And the glorious thing is it was at Easter time, and that makes me cry to this day. Because the scriptures read by his stripes. I am healed and he took the lashing for me for me in the 21st century and here during the Easter season. I was being made whole again and it was such a miracle and such a blessing.

Should a Christian practice yoga? Author Michal Amedia Russo gives you the surprising, but clear answer. So, in yoga, the goal was to let your thoughts passed through and have a complete blank mind, but we know that an empty mind is the devil's playground. We need to be filled with Christ. And when we meditate as Christians, it's on the word, you know, we are to mutter in our spirits.

Can a Christian do just the physical stretches and exercises typically done in yoga without all the chanting and the extra stuff? I don't agree with doing yoga. The Bible says exercise profits a little and so you know you need to do a little exercising and you need to do a little push-up and little pull-ups and calisthenics. But as far as yoga goes, I was kind of steer clear from that because from my understanding that comes from a completely different faith.

derive the fact that God's laws are done away with. Jesus said that he had come to fulfill the law, not to eradicate it. I think oftentimes we battle old testament verses new testament as if one should be superior, or one needs to win in a specific debate. When in actuality, they are partnered in a great many ways because God is never changing. So, what God said in Genesis he means in in Revelations and throughout. So, I don't necessarily believe that God's laws are eradicated. There are provisions, there are bridges, there's grace that has been extended to us that has been extended differently since Christ but God's laws do not change.

Brandon Hollis, David Gray, Mark Galambos, Toni Pugh, Timothy Roeser, Jonathon Blake Turner. What does the spirit of perversion and lusts do to believers when they invade their minds? It corrupts the mind. It takes away from you. Remember, we have the mind of Christ and this mind must be renewed on a daily and a continual basis. According to Romans chapter 12, verses 1 and 2, the renewal of the mind is essential for the salvation of the soul. The spirit of perversion and lust does the very opposite and it will bring you into a bondage.

Pastor Tim Walker, Dr Kathaleen Wupio, Pastor David Gray, Apostle Diane Chappelle, Pastor Mark Galambos, Pastor Luanna Williams. If Romans 13 says that we lose our salvation when we disobey authority, why didn't Jesus and John the Baptist lose their salvation? I believe these scriptures really talk about the subjection to the things of God. Talk about walking in obedience because if we can't do it on the earth with the civil laws, how are we going to do it in the spiritual laws that God has given to us? We're going to have a struggle so these two compete maybe against one another but we always follow God's law in this. So, we have to be very careful not to take the scripture out of context and then somehow move into loss of salvation because I don't believe that's what happens here.

I don't see anywhere in the scripture where it tells you that you can't protect yourself. The reality is that this is a very difficult situation, and we live in volatile times where people are irresponsible, so people that are responsible to God, have to be good stewards of what they have and good stewards of the name.

Dr. Faron Cole, Joseph Colini, Elisha Wells, Eddie Harris, Nick Lindsay, Tim Neal. What should you do if someone hurts you and then continues to use you over and over and over again? The biblical principle is to forgive them. But also set a boundary. It's not appropriate for anyone of us to just let ourselves be totally taken advantage of. I understand the scripture says, turn the other cheek but I don't believe that means for us to just allow people to just run over us, strip us of our things, of value in our life, without setting a boundary. But really truly, forgiveness will keep you from becoming bitter about what they have done.
