

KBYU-TV Issues/Programs List Q2 2023

Date	Time	Duration (min)	Program Title	How Program Addressed Issues of Importance	DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION	ARTS AND CULTURE	FAMILY AND PARENTING	RELIGIOUS EDUCATION	YOUTH EDUCATION	COMMUNITY AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT
1-Apr-2023	2:00 PM	2:00:00	General Conference	This program addressed religious education by sharing uplifting and inspiring messages from leaders of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.				X
5-Apr-2023	6:30 PM	30:00	Random Acts #804	This program addressed community and civic engagement by showing the Random Acts team helping individuals through service projects that surprise the recipients. In this episode, Kari Craig, known for her dependable good mood and willingness to help anyone in need, especially in her work as a medical professional, is surprised with a trip to a local Scottish festival and more to celebrate her heritage.						X
6-Apr-2023	8:00 PM	60:00	How I Got Here #102	This program addressed family and parenting by showing how young adults' lives are changed when they accompany their parents back to their countries of origin. In this episode, Michael and his dad, John, travel to Italy together for the first time. These two find themselves working together to explore the culture that has shaped each of them and which helps them reconnect in positive ways.			X
8-Apr-2023	6:00 PM	1:35:00	Lamb of God: The Concert Film	This unique concert film addressed religious education as well as arts and culture through a performance of the sacred oratorio "Lamb of God".		X		X
9-Apr-2023	11:00 AM	60:00	Grace Notes #211	This program addressed arts and culture as well as religious education by looking at how religious music has affected various artists and people around them. Here, artists discuss the resurrection of Jesus Christ and how the songs they perform focus on the renewal and rebirth given through the Atonement of Jesus Christ.		X		X
9-Apr-2023	4:30 PM	1:35:00	The Chosen #308	This program addressed religious education by showing a depiction of the life and ministry of Jesus Christ and his apostles. While Jesus preaches to a group of thousands, the disciples realize the people are hungry and there is no food. Jesus miraculously feeds the people.				X
12-Apr-2023	7:00 PM	60:00	The Fixers #109	This program addressed community and civic engagement and diversity and inclusion by showing the Fixers helping One Heart Bulgaria, an organization that takes care of orphans. They build a horse arena and sensory obstacle course to give the orphans a new type of therapy.	X					X
16-Apr-2023	1:30 PM	30:00	Artful #110	This program addressed arts and culture and religious education by looking at how belief in God affects the work of artists. In this episode, Justin Taylor discusses how his faith shapes the way he approaches art and life. Christian Bolt, a sculptor, strongly believes in inspiration from God. He feels the One who can finish the human image is our Heavenly Father.		X		X
23-Apr-2023	12:00 PM	60:00	Family Rules #103	This program addressed family and parenting by sharing ideas from parents and others on raising children. In this episode, the Anderson-Kossens discuss how they strengthen their family through healthy living and daily fitness. The Burns family talk about how they work together as a team.			X
26-Apr-2023	12:30 PM	30:00	Making Good #510	The program addressed community and civic engagement by following those serving in their community. In this episode, Kirby goes to Overton, Nevada, to help Windy's Ranch & Rescue save abandoned and mistreated pot-bellied pigs. Kirby learns how the pets are able to make the lives of the people who care for them better.						X

Date	Time	Duration (min)	Program Title	How Program Addressed Issues of Importance	DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION	ARTS AND CULTURE	FAMILY AND PARENTING	RELIGIOUS EDUCATION	YOUTH EDUCATION	COMMUNITY AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT
27-Apr-2023	7:00 PM	60:00	Relative Race #1105	This program addressed family and parenting by focusing on individuals who find lost family members. In this episode, Carolen meets a sister, and Nolin learns the truth about the circumstances surrounding his adoption.			X
4-May-2023	6:00 PM	30:00	Gym Stars #417	This program addressed diversity and inclusion by sharing the stories of young gymnasts with various backgrounds. In this episode, Poppy is feeling the pressure of competing with the team for the first time. Back at the gym, Alida makes the life-changing decision to move from competing to coaching and must break the news to her coach.	X
7-May-2023	2:30 PM	60:00	Come Follow Up #202320	This program addressed religious education by taking a deeper dive into the New Testament study resource Come, Follow Me . In this episode, Ben Lomu, Melissa Inouye, and Jason Whiting discuss Matthew 19-20, Mark 10, and Luke 18 as well as the subject, "What lack I yet?"				X
10-May-2023	9:00 PM	30:00	The Kindness Diaries #201	This program addressed community and civic engagement by following Leon Logothetis who travels the world with only a vintage motorbike and the kindness of strangers. Leon pays back in unexpected, inspiring ways. In this episode, Leon starts a new journey from Alaska to Argentina. He meets a man who invites various kinds of people struggling with issues into his life and loves them.						X
12-May-2023	9:30 PM	30:00	Random Acts #808	This program addressed community and civic engagement by showing the Random Acts team helping individuals through service projects that surprise the recipients. Savannah has organized an annual lemonade stand that has grown to raise thousands of dollars to aid in cancer research. The hosts surprise her with a country music trip.						X
17-May-2023	7:00 PM	60:00	The Fixers #204	This program addressed community and civic engagement by showing the Fixers helping rebuild a basketball court in the small coastal town of Arecibo, Puerto Rico, that has fallen into disrepair. The Fixers rehabilitate the court and create murals that will draw in crowds and add beauty to the area.						X
21-May-2023	5:00 PM	30:00	Wizard of Paws #506	This program addressed diversity and inclusion by focusing on Derrick Campana building prosthetics and braces to help animals with disabilities achieve greater mobility. In this episode, Derrick travels to Austin, Texas, to build a lift for Champion, a quadriplegic cow who was born with a twisted spine. Champion lives at Safe in Austin where kids with "superpowers" can cuddle and heal alongside a variety of "super powered" special needs animals.	X
21-May-2023	6:00 PM	60:00	Worldwide Devotional for Young Adults #202302	This program addressed religious education and youth education by featuring inspirational messages from President Dallin H. and Sister Kristen Oaks.				X	X
23-May-2023	8:20 PM	45:00	Ruby and the Well #102	This program addressed community and civic engagement by featuring a teenager who is aware of the wishes of townspeople and works to help them meet their desires. In this episode, Ruby and her friends Sam and Mina fulfill the wish of the town librarian.						X
25-May-2023	8:00 PM	60:00	How I Got Here #108	This program addressed family and parenting by showing how young adults' lives are changed when they accompany their parents back to their countries of origin. In this episode, Carolina travels to Chile with her mom, Ines, to learn more about her heritage. Ines introduces Carolina to other strong women in her family.			X
28-May-2023	4:00 PM	60:00	The Chosen #107	This program addressed religious education by showing a depiction of the life and ministry of Jesus Christ and his apostles. Nicodemus meets with Jesus by night.				X

Date	Time	Duration (min)	Program Title	How Program Addressed Issues of Importance	DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION	ARTS AND CULTURE	FAMILY AND PARENTING	RELIGIOUS EDUCATION	YOUTH EDUCATION	COMMUNITY AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT
4-Jun-2023	1:00 PM	30:00	Grace Notes #302	This program addressed arts and culture and religious education by looking at how religious music has affected various artists and people around them. In this episode, Ben Rector talks about his desire to let worry and anxiety go and follow the Lord. Michelle Williams discusses her reliance on Christ to sustain her through her trials.		X		X
6-Jun-2023	7:30 PM	30:00	A Kind of Spark #109	This program addressed diversity and inclusion as well as family and parenting and youth education by showing autistic teen Addie learning to deal with various life circumstances and, with the support of her sisters, find her voice. In this episode, Addie and her sister Keedie are both at low points following their confrontations with Miss Murphy. They turn to each other for healing.	X		X		X
7-Jun-2023	6:00 PM	30:00	Making Good #505	This program addressed community and civic engagement and diversity and inclusion by following those serving and interacting with various people. In this episode, Kirby goes to San Diego to work with Life Rolls On, an organization dedicated to improving the quality of life for people with various disabilities through offering adaptive surfing and skating opportunities.	X					X
10-Jun-2023	5:00 AM	30:00	Street Vet #110	This program addressed diversity and inclusion by showing Dr. Kwane helping people who have fallen on hard times by giving medical assistance to their pets. In this episode, Dr. Kwane examines an older dog whose teeth are infected, although the owner disappears before he can perform the surgery. Later, Kwane and Genesis meet an albino python and a kind-hearted couple.	X
14-Jun-2023	9:30 PM	30:00	The Kindness Diaries #212	This program addressed community and civic engagement by following Leon Logothetis, who travels the world with only a vintage motorbike and the kindness of strangers. Leon pays back in unexpected, inspiring ways. After arriving in Argentina, Leon stays with a homeless family. He also meets a Haitian student with a selfless heart.						X
17-Jun-2023	2:00 PM	30:00	Gym Stars #404	This program addressed diversity and inclusion and youth education by sharing the stories of young gymnasts from various backgrounds. In this episode, Din has to overcome injury ahead of an international competition. Tumbling duo Shakiem and Seb part ways as Seb leaves the gym for the football pitch.	X				X
18-Jun-2023	12:00 PM	60:00	Family Rules #201	This program addressed family and parenting by sharing ideas from parents and others on raising children. In this episode, the Meredith family shares how their family prepares for an emergency. Dr. Matt Townsend talks about how to help children develop emotional resilience. The Cutler family embraces the chaos of lively kids and finds ways to facilitate using their energy together. Parenting expert Ralphie Jacobs talks about how to focus on the positive in parenting.			X
24-Jun-2023	4:30 PM	30:00	Wizard of Paws #104	This program addressed diversity and inclusion by helping animals with disabilities achieve greater mobility. Derrick Campana improves and saves lives through the prosthetics and braces he custom builds for animals. In this episode, Derrick makes a special prosthetic for Ferdie, a goat who had his back leg amputated after a bad accident.	X
25-Jun-2023	3:30 PM	30:00	Music & the Spoken Word	This program addressed arts and culture as well as religious education by featuring inspirational music performed by the Tabernacle Choir at Temple Square with uplifting messages.		X		X

Date	Time	Duration (min)	Program Title	How Program Addressed Issues of Importance	DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION	ARTS AND CULTURE	FAMILY AND PARENTING	RELIGIOUS EDUCATION	YOUTH EDUCATION	COMMUNITY AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT
27-Jun-2023	7:57 PM	30:00	Amelia Parker #106	This program addressed family and parenting by showing families working on their relationships with each other. In this episode, Cleo tries to adjust to her little Charlie not being a baby anymore. The program also addressed youth education by showing a teen learning to deal with various life circumstances. Amelia must stand up for herself when she's pressured to join the soccer team.			X		X	