

KBYU-TV Issues/Programs List Q3 2023

Date	Time	Duration (min)	Program Title	How Program Addressed Issues of Importance	DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION	ARTS AND CULTURE	FAMILY AND PARENTING	RELIGIOUS EDUCATION	YOUTH EDUCATION	COMMUNITY AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT
4-Jul-2023	9:12 PM	24:00	Amelia Parker #107	This program addressed family and parenting by showing a teen's interactions with family as she learns to deal with various life circumstances. In this episode, Amelia's best friend and her godmother come to visit from England. However, they don't get along as well as they thought they would, forcing everyone to reconsider relationships. Cleo, Amelia's stepmother, tries to bridge the divide between their family and their English friends.			X
5-Jul-2023	7:00 PM	60:00	The Fixers #301	This program addressed community and civic engagement by showing the Fixers helping the Daisy Centre School in Kenya. Daisy Centre School educates over 500 children a year and needs more resources to provide enough protein for their students. The Fixers are here to help improve their livestock area, providing more space for cows and chickens.						X
11-Jul-2023	12:00 PM	30:00	Grace Notes #102	This program addressed arts and culture as well as religious education by looking at how religious music has affected various artists and people around them. In this episode, Brooke White shares how she felt an answer in her questioning to step forward and choose to believe in "Something Divine." A member of GENTRI talks about how God reached out to him through the song that came to him called "Believe." He arranged "Guide Me to Thee" because it reminds him to believe when times are hard as well as when times are beautiful.		X		X
12-Jul-2023	6:30 PM	30:00	Random Acts #507	This program addressed community and civic engagement by showing the Random Acts team helping individuals through service projects that surprise the recipients. In this episode, Lilly, who still dreams of becoming a fashion designer despite dealing with the recent death of her father, is suprised by a fashion show opportunity hosted by Random Acts.						X
14-Jul-2023	9:36 PM	30:00	Wizard of Paws #102	This program addressed diversity and inclusion by helping animals with disabilities achieve greater mobility. Derrick Campana improves and saves lives through the prosthetics and braces he custom builds for animals. In this episode, Derrick helps Avery, an energetic two-year-old golden retriever who struggles to walk because she was born with deformed back paws. Derrick envisions Avery thriving with two blade-style prosthetics that will allow her to get back on all four paws and keep up with the kids.	X
19-Jul-2023	9:00 PM	60:00	How I Got Here #104	This program addressed family and parenting by showing how young adults' lives are changed when they accompany their parents back to their countries of origin. In this episode, Aleksander returns to Serbia for the first time in almost 30 years to discover the places and people left behind during the Kosovo war. He brings with him his son Sebastian.			X
23-Jul-2023	5:00 PM	2:00:00	Tabernacle Choir Summer Concert	This program addressed arts and culture by featuring the music of the Tabernacle Choir. In this episode, we hear music and narration that encompasses a wide range of musical genres and styles. From classical masterpieces to contemporary pieces, these performances resonate with audiences of all ages and backgrounds.		X
29-Jul-2023	1:00 PM	30:00	Making Good #104	The program addressed community and civic engagement by following those serving in their community. In this episode, Kirby joins a group of dog-lovers in San Francisco which helps senior dogs find new homes. Kirby falls in love with a pup named Sierra and works hard to find her a loving owner.						X

Date	Time	Duration (min)	Program Title	How Program Addressed Issues of Importance	DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION	ARTS AND CULTURE	FAMILY AND PARENTING	RELIGIOUS EDUCATION	YOUTH EDUCATION	COMMUNITY AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT
30-Jul-2023	4:00 PM	60:00	The Chosen #208	This program addressed religious education by showing a depiction of the life and ministry of Jesus Christ and his apostles. In this episode, Jesus and Matthew prepare the content of the big sermon. Thousands arrive for the sermon.				X
1-Aug-2023	9:35 PM	24:00	Holly Hobbie #106	This program addressed family and parenting and youth education by showing a teen learning to deal with various life circumstances with support from her parents. In this episode, Holly, Piper, and Amy discover that the creek is being polluted by the local pickle factory and decide to take matters into their own hands instead of listening to parents.			X		X
5-Aug-2023	2:00 PM	30:00	Gym Stars #418	This program addressed diversity and inclusion by sharing the stories of young gymnasts from various backgrounds. Emily and Kacey, each recovering from an injury, prepare to compete against each other at the English Championships. In Birmingham, gymnasts Winston and Gabe have been selected for the Junior top squad. Meanwhile, Trumaine and Zion have been selected for the England squad and will prepare to compete at that level.	X
8-Aug-2023	12:30 PM	30:00	Artful #105	This program addressed arts and culture and religious education by looking at how belief in God affects the work of artists. In this episode, Cassandra Barney, painter and costumer, talks about moments of inspiration in her art. Emily McPhie, a painter, shares thoughts also about interactions with the divine through creating art.		X		X
11-Aug-2023	4:30 AM	30:00	The Story Trek #1211	This program addressed diversity and inclusion by sharing the stories of various individuals throughout the United States through interviews. Todd visits the Houston area two months after the destruction of Hurricane Harvey and discovers inspiring stories of neighbors helping neighbors and of organizations finding ways to care for people who might otherwise get overlooked among thousands.	X
13-Aug-2023	12:00 PM	60:00	Family Rules #209	This program addressed family and parenting by sharing ideas from parents and others on raising children. In this episode, Elaine Bradley talks about how music touched her heart when she needed a lift in a hard parenting moment. The Mellecio family and the Magalei family share their musical talents in purposeful ways, serving others and bringing their families together. Cindy Cloninger and Julie Burraston talk about how they parent as widows. Cindy feels her husband is gone but not taken from her, still involved in the family. She is reminded that she is not the plan; that she's part of God's plan, which encompasses many people to help her family. The Davenports talk about creating a home that's full of love and acceptance.			X
16-Aug-2023	7:00 PM	60:00	The Fixers #307	This program addressed community and civic engagement by showing the Fixers going to Pierre Kondre, Suriname, to work with Asajaka Weno cooperative. They aim to create entrepreneurship opportunities for women from rural communities.						X
25-Aug-2023	9:00 PM	28:00	Street Vet #104	This program addressed diversity and inclusion by showing Dr. Kwane helping people who have fallen on hard times by giving medical assistance to their pets. In this episode, Dr. Kwane meets Barbara and her two cockatoos who live on the streets and in temporary housing.	X
27-Aug-2023	2:30 PM	60:00	Come Follow Up #202336	This program addressed religious education by taking a deeper dive into the New Testament study resource Come, Follow Me . We talk about how we are the "body of Christ" (1 Corinthians 8-13). All are necessary and affect each other.				X
29-Aug-2023	9:35 PM	25:00	Holly Hobbie #204	This program addressed family and parenting by showing a teen learning to deal with various life circumstances with support from her parents. In this episode, the Hobbies go camping to get away from devices and the kids' personal drama.			X

Date	Time	Duration (min)	Program Title	How Program Addressed Issues of Importance	DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION	ARTS AND CULTURE	FAMILY AND PARENTING	RELIGIOUS EDUCATION	YOUTH EDUCATION	COMMUNITY AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT
2-Sep-2023	11:00 PM	25:00	Making Good #107	This program addressed community and civic engagement and diversity and inclusion by following those serving and interacting with various people in their community. In this episode, Kirby travels to Miami to join Veterans Ocean Adventures, a charity devoted to helping veterans combat isolation through scuba diving. Kirby gets his feet wet learning to be a buddy diver for disabled divers, joins the crew for an ocean dive, and learns how diving can be a healing experience for veterans.	X					X
3-Sep-2023	5:00 PM	60:00	How I Got Here #110	This program addressed family and parenting by showing how young adults' lives are changed when they accompany their parents back to their countries of origin. In this episode, Alma returns to Mexico with her daughter, Amanda, to reunite with family and celebrate the life of a loved one. Amanda shares traditional food and dance with her mother, as well as learning about Mexican history.			X
6-Sep-2023	6:30 PM	30:00	Random Acts #105	This program addressed community and civic engagement by showing the Random Acts team helping individuals through service projects that surprise the recipients. Shelby is heartbroken when the sudden onset of a debilitating condition forces her to give up her music scholarship at UVU as well as her dream of playing with the Orchestra at Temple Square. But the Random Acts team creates a special musical opportunity for her.						X
16-Sep-2023	8:00 PM	30:00	Wizard of Paws #111	This program addressed diversity and inclusion by helping animals with disabilities achieve greater mobility. Derrick Campana improves and saves lives through the prosthetics and braces he custom builds for animals. In this episode, Derrick builds a new leg for Yusi, a special horse who lost her leg in a car accident.	X
17-Sep-2023	7:30 PM	30:00	Malory Towers #412	This program addressed youth education by showing teens at Malory Towers, a boarding school for young women, learning about kindness, honesty, and empathy as they navigate their formative years with guidance from family and mentors. In this episode, Ruth's bullying of Connie reaches a new low when June is wrongly accused of playing pranks. Darrell encourages the lower form to find who is responsible for the pranks, and the whole class gets a lesson on accountability.					X
21-Sep-2023	7:00 PM	60:00	Relative Race #1201	This program addressed family and parenting by focusing on individuals who find lost family members. In this episode, tears flow for Team Blue as answers come. Team Red discovers that a talent is a family trait.			X
21-Sep-2023	9:00 PM	60:00	DIY SOS: The Big Build #3001	This program addressed community and civic engagement by featuring a group providing services to those in the community. In this episode, Nick Knowles, the DIY SOS team, and volunteers step up to help the Newcombe family. Two-year-old Arlo has a rare lung condition, and the DIY SOS team members prepare a place that Arlo can call home.						X
26-Sep-2023	12:00 PM	30:00	Grace Notes #203	This program addressed arts and culture and religious education by looking at how religious music has affected various artists and people around them. Savannah Stevenson discusses the ongoing process of cultivating faith and how becoming a mother has given her insights into how her Heavenly Father feels about her. Anthony Brown gives insights talks about how he maintains faith while experiencing depression.		X		X
30-Sep-2023	10:00 AM	2:00:00	General Conference	This program addressed religious education by sharing uplifting and inspiring messages from leaders of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.				X		