Annual Career & Employment Fair at CMU

October 15, 2015, 12:00 pm to 3:00 pm

Midwestern Broadcasting had a booth display and was a booth sponsor at this very large and very well attended event, 140 people attended. It was held on the campus of Central Michigan University. Mary Jo White, Human Resources/Payroll Manager for Midwestern Broadcasting, and Tammie Altshuler, Human Resources/Payroll assistant greeted and conversed with nearly 25 attendees interested in future employment and also potential internships. Many participants they spoke with were interested in internships and a few would consider relocating for a full-time position at which time they were told resumes would be kept on file in the event that a position might open up.

MAB Annual Career Fair at Lansing's Eagle Eye Conference Center

October 30, 2015

Chris Warren, Controller, representing all of our Midwestern Broadcasting Company radio stations, along with other radio and TV broadcasters, participated in a "speed dating" style of interacting with high school and college students who are interested in learning more about career opportunities in broadcasting. I likely interacted with no less than 50 young participants, educating them about myself and my employment, along with opportunities that may exist within our organization and throughout the rest of the state.

October 30, 2015

Eric Send, Engineer, representing all of our Midwestern Broadcasting Company radio stations attended the 2015 conference at the Eagle Eye Conference Center in Lansing, Michigan. Eric was a speaker for both of the speed networking sessions that took place from 9:45AM to 12PM, and interviewed nearly twenty students that were interested in the broadcasting field. Eric answered questions about the various aspects of the profession.

- ☐ Participation in scholarship programs – Ross Biederman, President of Midwestern Broadcasting Company is a member of the Board of Directors of the Michigan Association of Broadcaster's (MAB) Foundation. The MAB Foundation is a 501c3 Foundation organization which conducts numerous educational activities, including providing scholarships. Mr. Biederman was also a major financial contributor to the formation of the Foundation.

- ☐ Midwestern Broadcasting Summer Internship – A summer internship program has regularly been conducted at one or more of the Midwestern Broadcasting Company stations. Students are placed in area of interest and in most cases earn education credits for their experience. A number of them have gone on to be hired by various media outlets. One is currently a full time employee at WTCM A/F.

- Educational Tours of the radio stations – Midwestern Broadcasting conducts regular educational group tours of the radio station facilities and studios. Groups range in age from elementary school through adults.
- Training of Management level personnel – May 25, 2012 – John Dew, EEO Coordinator for Midwestern Broadcasting Company issued a complete review of EEO Policies and FCC Regulations to all Department Heads and HR Personnel.
- Review of EEO Files and Records – In the fall of 2010, an FCC Review was made. It included inspection of the public files and of the EEO program information and records, and a written report to the Commission. The Company had no problems or issues.
