HOT BENCH

MONDAY – FRIDAY 11:00AM-12:00 NOON

From the producers of Judge Judy, HOT BENCH adds a new dimension to the court genre, with a panel of three judges hearing court cases, arguing the merits of the case amongst themselves and rendering a verdict. 'Hot Bench' is a term used to describe a court where the judge or judges frequently interrupt lawyers' presentations with questions, often leading to lively exchanges. A variety of topics related to law, crime, public safety, and education are regularly addressed.

"When my husband Jerry and I were in Ireland recently, we visited the courts and watched a three-judge bench, which I found both fascinating and compelling," Judge Judy Sheindlin said. "I immediately thought what a terrific and unique idea for a television program that brings the court genre to the next level. We have assembled three individuals with extremely varied backgrounds to serve as the judges. They are smart and talented, with terrific instincts and great chemistry, and are sure to create a "hot bench."

HOT BENCH's trios of judges are Judge Patricia DiMango, Judge Michael Corriero and Judge Tanya Acker.

Tanya Acker is an experienced litigator who has represented a wide variety of clients. She is a Yale Law School graduate and served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Dorothy Wright Nelson on the Ninth U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals. After her clerkship, the Office of the Solicitor General in the U.S. Department of Justice awarded her a Bristow Fellowship. In private practice, Acker's legal work spanned a variety of matters from civil litigation involving public and private entities, to various constitutional cases, to the provision of business counseling and advice. She also maintained a commitment to pro bono work, receiving the ACLU's First Amendment Award for her successful representation of a group of homeless individuals against the City of Santa Barbara. She maintains an active involvement in various philanthropic, civic and business organizations.

Patricia DiMango was first appointed to serve as a judge in the criminal courts for the city of New York by Mayor Rudolph Giuliani. Thereafter she was elected to the New York State Supreme Court bench in the 2nd and 11th Judicial Districts. She became the Italian American woman ever appointed to these positions. Soon after, she was elevated to the position of First Deputy Administrative Judge for criminal matters, 2nd Judicial District. Her reputation as stern and fair assisted her in handling a large volume of serious felony cases from their arraignment through trial including a number of high-profile trials. Awards include Alumna of the Year from Brooklyn college, the Rapallo Award, the Distinguished Judiciary Award from the Catholic Lawyers Guild, and Woman of the Year by the New York State Supreme Court Officers Association. She received her law degree from St. John's University where she graduated in the top 10 percent of her class. She also holds a Master's Degree from Columbia University in Developmental Psychology. This program became a model for mobilization and coordination of treatment and social services for children prosecuted in adult courts. He retired from the bench in 2008 and became Executive Director of Big Brothers Big Sisters of New York City. He is an alumnus of St. John's University School of Law. He is an author and lecturer. "The People's Court," draws on ordinary people who have filed grievances in civil court and have opted to have their cases heard and mediated by Judge Milian. An experienced team of researchers continually canvas courts across the country in search of the most compelling, unique and thought-provoking cases. Running the gamut from disputes between neighbors and family members, to unsatisfied customers suing businesses, Milian's decisions, based on current law are final and binding. "These cases are never about the money, they're about principle," Milian proclaims. "The People's Court" has been delivering reality television to viewers for over two decades.

to viewers, Levin literally takes "The People's Court" to the people by polling viewers who watch the cases via monitor. These viewers' spirited comments and debates regarding the cases and Milian's decisions are then incorporated into the show. An attorney and law professor, Levin also examines and explains the legal issues and precedents introduced in the cases.

In-court reporter Doug Llewelyn and court officer Douglas McIntosh, assist Judge Milian in the courtroom. Llewelyn interviews litigants after a decision has been rendered in their cases.
