

WUSR addressed the needs of its community through the daily Pell Radio Reading Service program. It aired weekdays from 8:00 to 10:00 am and featured volunteers from the Lackawanna Blind Association as well as one Association employee reading that morning's Scranton Times-Tribune. There was no show Monday January 1, Monday January 15, Monday February 19, or Friday March 29

The topics listed below were addressed, as well as national news and other pertinent items such as weather, obituaries, editorials, television listings, horoscopes, features and community events.

This list also includes other WUSR programming.

Partial list of local topics:

EDUCATION: Scranton School District risks recovery plan violation...Lackawanna Trail evaluates student progress...Committee calls for $5b in immediate school funding...No decision on Scranton schools til superintendent found...Scranton schools get grant to fight gang activity...Wyoming Area teacher fired amid corruption charges...Scranton fifth graders could be relocated...Scranton hires new superintendent...Area administrators say in-school classes best choice...No details after hearing into education spending...Scranton woman nominated for state Teacher of the Year...Keystone College sale nixed...Internet problems in Scranton...Scranton asks FBI to check ransomware attack...Abington Heights wins state mock trial championship...Terese Shimkus/Sean Kavanagh "Today in History" feature...Tunkhannock HS band fundraiser PSA

YOUTH AND MINORITY ISSUES: New crisis unit at Scranton Counseling ctr...Girl Scout sue parents for unremitted cookie proceeds...Upcoming MLK events planned...Governor visits to promote child care tax credit...Lackawanna Co fires HHS Director...Scranton honors first female council member...Scranton Housing Authority nominee rejected by council...No quick fix to Lacka Co child service problems...Scranton teen in national computer skills competition...Parents of special needs student allege school abuse...International Women's Day recognized...Diversity program upcoming...YMCA opening child care center in Olyphant...Thousands get Easter food basket in Scranton

ELDER ISSUES: Pennsylvania's oldest man remembered...Clarks Summit woman bilked out of $42,000...Governor visits to promote rent rebate program...Tax relief available to flood victims...Housing planned for Carbondale...Taylor Price Chopper to close...Time capsule found in Eynon church demolition

HEALTH: Red Cross seeking donors amid shortage...Lackawanna Co to manage health care center...Epilepsy support center opens in Kingston...Pike County doctor gets 22 years for prescription fraud...Students fall ill; CO not to blame...Geisinger names incoming CEO...Lackawanna Co seeks grant for opioid treatments...Construction proceeds on Scranton Primary Health Care Ctr...Lawmakers show concern in GCMC talks...Geisinger planning changes to Plains Twp facility..."Faith Builders" weekly program...Fentanyl Awareness PSA... March 6: Dr. Fitzgerald Casimir discusses wellness issues (60 min)

GOVERNMENT: Kaufer won't run; Republicans vie for his House seat...Luzerne Co home rule referendum approved...McCormick campaigns for Senate in Kingston...Mayor Cognetti visits White House...Poll results for President and Senate races...Lackawanna County issues new ethics guidelines...Pro-Palestine activists interrupt voter forum...Det. Gilmartin to attend State of the Union Address...State to set up election security task force...Bill Clinton to speak at Friendly Sons dinner...Old Forge sued over ban on games of skill...Lackawanna County gets bids to hire financial advisor...Ex-employee files whistleblower suit in Lackawanna County...Lackawanna County to evaluate and upgrade internet security

ECONOMY: Record-low unemployment continues...Scranton again seeks buyout of flooded homes...Penn Foster closing...County commissioners report dire financial situation...Public protests water rake hike request...City seeks bids for City Hall renovation...PUC taking comment on PPL bill settlement...State DECD secretary visits...Flood victims encouraged to apply for relief...Taxes raised in 26% of Lacka Co municipalities...Lackawanna County seeks budget ideas...Startup for women's business ventures taking applications...New flights from Avoca to Washington...250 acres in Archbald sold to developer...Scranton mayor, federal officials tour small businesses...CareerLink event helping job seekers...UGI lowering gas bills 3%...Vacant warehouse sold in Scott Twp...Demand for coal increases...Scranton credit rating improves...Local unemployment down to 4%...Chamber to host workforce summit...More flights to Chicago added...Regional train routes to be announced...Local projects get $15m...Airport adds flights to Florida

CRIME/PUBLIC SAFETY: Scranton store robbed at gunpoint...Blakely PD adds four officers...Alleged art thief surrenders...Newton Twp seeks police coverage from Clarks Summit...Four to trial for art thefts...Three arrested in Old Forge vehicle title fraud...Schuback trial delayed in Baron homicide...Two arrested in Scranton officer shooting...Crash on I-81 kills five...Governor meets wounded Scranton policeman...Man sentenced for DUI death of three...Armed teen arrested near Scranton High School...Feds kill Old Forge homicide suspect in New Jersey...Troublesome nightclub won't reopen...Dickson City to use grants for intersection improvements...Scranton to test flood siren Friday...Scranton students educated on gang risks...Scranton council questions railroad bridge safety... Woman charged in dog attack...Lawyer sentenced for DUI fatality...Jessup murder/suicide...Railroad bridge being repaired in Scranton...Scranton shooting victim dies...Two charged in Scranton homicide...New traffic lights at three Scranton intersections...Buzzed Driving PSA...Emergency Preparedness PSA

ENVIRONMENT: Exeter gets $8.7m for sewer upgrade...Scranton flood victims could still get aid...Several inches of snow hits region...Another DEP charge vs Keystone Landfill; landfill offers solutions...Dickson City culm bank to be removed...DEP sues landowner for runoff violations...Students join fish education program...Local coyote hunt...Scranton public meeting on stormwater control...Dam blamed for Lackawanna River sediment problem; commissioners seek criminal probe...Solar power at Tunkhannock schools...DEP blames PAWC for waterway pollution...Shapiro energy plan faces legislative hurdles...DEP notifies Keystone Landfill of possible permit denial...PAWC responds to DEP pollution allegations

SPORTS/RECREATION: Penn State bowl recap...U of S basketball results...Scranton St. Patrick's Parade scheduled...Peach Festival in jeopardy...High school wrestling results...Ice closes Lake Scranton trail...Producers complete childrens theater acts...Lacka Co demotes Parks Director...High school football players choose colleges...Winter sports playoff schedule...Campaign to name PSU field after Paterno...Dignitaries named for Scranton St Patrick's parade...High school basketball playoff matchups made...Peach Music festival canceled...District swimming championship results...new Lackawanna County Parks Director named...State playoffs set in HS basketball...Downtown Scranton theater boosts neighborhood... Scranton pocket park almost ready to open...Lacka Co grant for film projects...Speakers named for Irish society dinners...U of Scranton women lose in basketball regionals...Input taken into Jessup ATV park...High school basketball teams reach state championship games...Lackawanna County approves new running trail...Improvements ready at Oakmont Park...RailRiders season to open...Scranton theater ordered to dim marquee

U OF S CAMPUS ISSUES: U of S to open business development center...Professor hosts march for Palestinian peace...Schedule of Schemel Forum programs ...U of S Earth day essay contest begins...Lady Royals prep for NCAA Regionals...U of S hosts neighborhood information forum

"Carving out your Career" Weekly Career Development Center program (15 min.) Jan. 25- Return to campus and upcoming Network event; Feb. 1- Overview of services; Feb. 8- Addressing changes in majors and career paths; Feb 15- Upcoming alumni networking event; Feb 22- use of social media; Feb 29- Do's and Don'ts of social media; Mar 7- Royal Experience internship programs; Mar 21- Career Expo events

March 8: Adam Zaykowski discusses an upcoming graduate school open house (15 min)

CAMPUS EVENTS: ...Live broadcasts of men's and women's basketball games

Additionally, Fox News updates aired at 10 am.