

[This filing was prepared for and ready to file on January 9, 2019 but was unable to be added to the Online Public Information File due to the government shutdown at that time.]

KCRU-FM Oxnard

Programs & Issues for the fourth quarter of 2018 Oct-Nov-Dec

It has been determined that the following subjects are of concern to the community and have been considered and addressed substantially by elected officials, community leaders, expert witnesses and the general public.

1. Police and public safety, disaster preparation
2. Water management and environmental health
3. Renewable energy and clean power
4. Housing, affordable housing and homelessness
5. Public health and education

Additionally, the following programs were produced and broadcast in the public interest:

KCRU PROGRAMS/ISSUES LIST – 4th QUARTER 2018 OCT-NOV-DEC

ISSUE	DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM	DATE/TIME	DURATION
--------------	-------------------------------	------------------	-----------------

Fires and fire prevention

Local artists take including musicians, dancers, poets use creative expression to help understand the pain caused by the Thomas Fire and subsequent mudslides.

Aired in the week prior to Saturday, Oct. 6, 2018 at 5 a.m. (10:59)

Public health, police, public safety

The Department of Homeland Security released a scathing report on the Adelanto detention facility where thousands of migrants have been held since it opened in 2011.

Aired in the week prior to Saturday, Oct. 6, 2018 at 5 a.m. (5:58)

Housing, affordable housing and homelessness

Proposition 10 is on next month's ballot. If it passes, California cities and counties will be able to expand rent control. But landlords and renters are fighting over it.

Aired in the week prior to Saturday, Oct. 6, 2018 at 5 a.m. (6:42)

Public health, police, public safety

Hundreds of migrant children remain in detention, shelters or foster care, while officials say they are reuniting kids with families, though they could be adopted.

Aired in the week prior to Saturday, Oct. 13, 2018 at 5 a.m. (10:03)

Wildfires and fire prevention, environment

Rob Hazard, Santa Barbara assistant fire marshal and Ron Saulk, Long Beach resident on the effects of climate change, from public policy and eyewitness perspectives.

Aired in the week prior to Saturday, Oct. 13, 2018 at 5 a.m. (12:33)

Affordable housing

There's disagreement over whether stronger rent control would help or hurt the housing crisis, as researchers challenge populare wisdom on the subject.

Aired in the week prior to Saturday, Oct. 13, 2018 at 5 a.m. (9:40)

Environment and energy

California and the Trump administration agree on Central Coast wind farms
Aired in the week prior to Saturday, Oct. 27, 2018 at 5 a.m. (7:44)

Housing, affordable housing and homelessness

Proposition 10 rent control is on the ballot. If it passes, California cities and counties will be able to expand rent control, but it's still controversial.
Aired in the week prior to Saturday, Nov. 3, 2018 at 5 a.m. (7:35)

Public health, police, and public safety

Warren Olney talks with writer Fox Butterfield on the generational nature of crime.
Aired in the week prior to Saturday, Nov. 10, 2018 at 5 a.m. (49:00)

Wildfires and fire prevention

Private wildfire defense teams: is it protection only for the wealthy?
Aired in the week prior to Saturday, Nov. 17, 2018 at 5 a.m. (8:08)

Environment and energy

"Tree People" host a discussion with policy makers and energy experts on 'resiliency,' or climate change preparation, especially at the wildland-urban boundary.
Aired in the week prior to Saturday, Dec. 8, 2018 at 5 a.m. (59:14)

Environment and energy

Madeline Brande hosts a panel discussion with Malibu City Council member and Pepperdine University Urban & Environmental Policy professor on California wildfires.
Aired in the week prior to Saturday, Dec. 15, 2018 at 5 a.m. (58:59)

Environment and energy

Tiny houses for the homeless in Santa Barbara
Aired in the week prior to Saturday, Dec. 22, 2018 at 5 a.m. (7:40)