

WAER 2023 Q2 Programming Issues List

| Subject           | Program       | Date | Duration | Segment/Story Title   |
|---------------------------------|-----------------------------|--------------------|------------------------|---|
| Race, Identity and Culture      | Syracuse Speaks             | 10/26/23           | 1:00:00                | How the issues of Indigenous People's Day play out in the Syracuse-area community: land rights, cultural awareness, opportunity   |
| Business, Economics and Finance | Syracuse Speaks             | 11/30/23           | 1:00:00                | Central New York prepares for the Holidays: how small retailers compete and thrive; anxiety and stress for low-income families; a range of events to build community spirit around the season |
| Arts and Entertainment          | Syracuse Speaks             | 12/28/23           | 1:00:00                | Holiday Theater from Studio C: Local playwrights competed for the right to have their one-act holiday-themed plays produced for air by WAER.  |
| Politics and Government         | ATC/ME Local Beat Reporting | 10/25/23           | 8:00                   | Democratic legislator Bill Kinne challenges Ryan McMahan for county   |

|                            |                             |          |      |  |
|----------------------------|-----------------------------|----------|------|--|
|                            |                             |          |      | executive. E-block two-way   |
| Politics and Government    | ATC/ME Local Beat Reporting | 10/26/23 | 8:00 | County Executive Ryan McMahon seeks second term in office. E-block two-way                           |
| Medicine and Health        | ATC/ME Local Beat Reporting | 11/02/23 | 4:30 | Raising funds and awareness for breast cancer screening is year-round passion for Syracuse-area man. |
| Race, Identity and Culture | ATC/ME Local Beat Reporting | 12/21/23 | 4:30 | Free arts school geared toward Black and Latino kids grows after one semester.                       |