WMCA RADIO

ISSUE / PROGRAM LIST

WMCA radio on a continuing basis seeks to stay informed regarding the issues, problems and needs of its service area. This is accomplished in part through meetings with prominent and informed leaders in the community. WMCA also utilizes informal contacts with community leaders and general media sources outside of our organization (i.e. TV, radio and print media), WMCA management, through membership in civic and charitable organizations maintains active involvement dealing with problems and issues confronting our community. Information is also obtained through general issue-oriented material sent to the station and to station personnel. In this report, WMCA will list the issues it has determined to be of major local concern and will list some of the programming avenues taken to address those issues.

Station Management Editorials

Various Times

The station airs editorials dealing with relevant issues. Information detailing topics, specific dates and times aired is attached.

| 4/5/2022 | 12:19:29 PM | The latest data about migration just came out from the Census Bureau and the biggest losers are the New York and San Francisco metro areas. Big winners include Dallas, Houston and Austin. Looking at the big picture: the West and the Northeast were the big losers and the South and the Midwest were the big winners. Eventually, people vote with their feet—and they're moving from expensive to inexpensive; from high tax to low tax; and from lockdown to freedom. |

| 4/7/2022 | 3:19:51 PM | Every living man and woman—regardless of race, gender, religion, social status, whatever—has always had natural rights. Each of us is born with a free mind and soul, and natural rights to life, liberty, property, and pursuit of happiness. That's what the Declaration of Independence means when it reads, "We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created equal." |

| 4/8/2022 | 5:01:21 PM | So, should our central bank raise rates or cut them? The answer is: neither! The question assumes that the Fed should be setting rates at all. Interest rates should be set by us, by the people. Savers and borrowers, usually with banks as the matchmakers, set the rates every time we make a decision whether to buy something now or defer gratification into the future |

| 6/20/2022 | 5:29:02 PM | The main enemy today is inflation — ravaging the finances of every American family. Every single item in a grocery store gets there by truck or van. Most are wrapped or contained in plastic of some sort. Prices for fuel — whether gasoline or diesel — plastic and fertilizer are soaring—and therefore everything in that store is as well. The president refuses do anything substantive about it—short of raising his own voice. |
