WMCA RADIO

ISSUE / PROGRAM LIST

WMCA radio on a continuing basis seeks to stay informed regarding the issues, problems and needs of its service area. This is accomplished in part through meetings with prominent and informed leaders in the community. WMCA also utilizes informal contacts with community leaders and general media sources outside of our organization (i.e. TV, radio and print media), WMCA management, through membership in civic and charitable organizations maintains active involvement dealing with problems and issues confronting our community. Information is also obtained through general issue-oriented material sent to the station and to station personnel. In this report, WMCA will list the issues it has determined to be of major local concern and will list some of the programming avenues taken to address those issues.

Station Management Editorials

07/01/22	3:15:27 PM	The Supreme Court scored a major victory for both common sense and tolerance when it comes to private prayer in public places. Writing for a 6-3 majority, Justice Neil Gorsuch wrote that a high-school football coach's prayer on the field after a game did not amount to an endorsement of religion by the school district, reversing his termination and lower-court rulings.

08/08/22	10:59:09 AM	Chuck Schumer finally got his wish. After reaching a deal with Joe Manchin on a far smaller version of Build Back Better and calling it the Inflation Reduction Act, Kyrsten Sinema objected to its tax increases. Despite some hope that the Arizona Democrat might force economic reality on her colleagues, Sinema agreed to support it after winning some modest changes—and a $5 billion pork chop for Arizona on drought relief.	1:00

08/15/22	1:57:57 AM	Most Republicans rightly believe that Trump has been unfairly targeted by civil servants motivated by partisanship going back years, long before his stunning election in 2016 and certainly thereafter. The "Steele dossier," charges Russia collusion, allegations of obstruction of justice—they all helped create an automatic suspicion on the right of this latest search.	1:00

09/15/22	6:23:24 AM	"That warning sign is flashing again," wrote poll analyst Nate Cohn for the New York Times this week. "Democratic Senate candidates are outrunning expectations in the same places where the polls overestimated Mr. Biden in 2020 and Mrs. Clinton in 2016." Cohn warned that polling disasters loom yet again, largely because—and I quote: "most pollsters haven't made significant methodological changes since the last election." All of this despite their failures.	1:00
