WMCA RADIO

ISSUE / PROGRAM LIST

WMCA radio on a continuing basis seeks to stay informed regarding the issues, problems and needs of its service area. This is accomplished in part through meetings with prominent and informed leaders in the community. WMCA also utilizes informal contacts with community leaders and general media sources outside of our organization (i.e. TV, radio and print media), WMCA management, through membership in civic and charitable organizations maintains active involvement dealing with problems and issues confronting our community. Information is also obtained through general issue-oriented material sent to the station and to station personnel. In this report, WMCA will list the issues it has determined to be of major local concern and will list some of the programming avenues taken to address those issues.

Wednesday	10/05/22	3:02:18 PM	1:00	Few cases are as important as the religious freedom issue in 303 Creative v. Elenis. Lois Smith is an artist who challenged a Colorado law which would have forced her to create designs that violate her beliefs about marriage. It's the same law used to punish Masterpiece Cakeshop owner Jack Phillips.

Thursday	10/06/22	1:58:25 AM	1:00	With their "accomplishments" being inflation, lost buying power, higher crime, and a massive border crisis, it's no wonder Biden and his team want to talk about anything but themselves. Voters won't stay in the darkness, no matter how hard Biden and the media try to sell it. They can't afford Biden's darkness any longer.

Tuesday	10/11/22	5:30:43 PM	1:00	Every state is a border state in 2022 but Arizona, Nevada and Colorado have been particularly hard hit by this massive wave of unpermitted migration. That's why Republican nominees for Senate in those states—Blake Masters in Arizona, Adam Laxalt in Nevada and Joe O'Dea in Colorado—are running to the election finish line on November 8 with the electoral wind at their backs.

Wednesday	10/12/22	1:57:19 PM	1:00	In contest after contest across the nation, voters face a choice between individual politicians. But it is also in most cases a contest between political parties—and all that those parties stand for. Beyond that, it is a contest of ideas... it is a battle of world views.

Monday	10/17/22	3:40:53 PM	1:00	In Iran, there’s a feminist revolution struggling to survive. Mahsa Amini was detained by Iran’s guidance patrol last month for failing to wear her hijab properly, then died at the hands of the mullah’s morality police. Yet Western media downplays their protests. The Biden administration is silent. College campuses, which once would have teemed with supportive protests, are quiet.

Tuesday	10/18/22	1:58:06 AM	1:00	There really is only one solution to the problem, a power shift in Washington. We need a Congress which will ride the brake pedal on growth in government and the gas pedal on growth in the private economy.

Wednesday	10/19/22	3:15:28 PM	1:00	Joe Biden, Nancy Pelosi and Chuck Schumer wanted to be remembered as new versions of FDR—and they abused the narrowest of majorities in Congress to pass trillions more, even as they took actions to shutter oil and gas production. Prices have soared ... and then the president pushed through another 400 billion through a student loan give away to favored constituents.

Thursday	10/20/22	3:02:15 PM	1:00	It's hard to be a death penalty juror, but before being seated, each juror would have affirmed his or her willingness to hand down the penalty if warranted. If the Parkland shootings didn't merit the death penalty, what would?
Friday	10/21/22	12:18:30 PM	1:00	As pollsters get closer to Election Day and accountability, their polling results have gotten closer to reality. Newspapers and television outlets will paint this as sudden momentum for the GOP. The truth is that this is an exceptionally bad political environment for the governing party, and the distraction campaigns designed to cover it up have failed.

Friday	10/28/22	3:18:34 PM	1:00	In a recent NBC interview, Pennsylvania Senate Candidate John Fetterman claimed he's always supported fracking. Now: I'm from Pennsylvania. I've been a Fetterman-watcher since he first ran for local mayor. I can tell you that's complete nonsense. He's been hard green from the beginning. He even called—explicitly—for a moratorium from fracking.

Monday	10/31/22	7:25:13 AM	1:00	From distrust of Fauci and the CDC to distrust of school boards, from politicians endorsing the medical transition of children to the same politicians claiming the unborn child in the womb is just a clump of cells. Trust the science, we're told, but the emperor has no clothes—and voters are looking for some sort of reckoning.

Tuesday	11/01/22	5:58:14 PM	1:00	During the pandemic, parents saw what their children were learning – or not learning. In its aftermath, with ACT test scores at their lowest levels in 30 years, there's no patience for “woke” race and gender obsessions replacing basic instruction our children will need to succeed in life.

Wednesday	11/02/22	3:31:00 PM	1:00	Americans can see for themselves what is: skyrocketing consumer prices, falling real wages, and disruptions in goods and services. And that's just the economics. Crime is rising. We have a crisis in public education. Then there's the new hordes of homeless. The question this election asks you is who are you going to believe? the propaganda outlets for the ruling class or your own two eyes?

Thursday	11/03/22	3:15:26 PM	1:00	As Election Day approaches, analysts and pundits debate whether the “red wave” of Republican wins will actually materialize. But the term “wave” may not fully capture the unique political environment of 2022. The confluence of catastrophes created and facilitated by Democrats and Joe Biden has presented the worst electoral context for a governing party in decades—if ever.
