

FCC 2ND QT 2019 MAY REPORT.

2019

The following issues were discussed over KFUN/AM 1230 & KLVF/FM 100.7 RADIO.

- 1. Dr. Cathy Stauber: Eye health and eye care. Macular Degeneration.
- 2. Sean & katey Sinclair. Owners of new restaurant at Historic Casteneda Hotel.
- 3. Patricia Quick & Dr. Frank Sanchez. “Folds of Honor Golf Tournament.
- 4. Bonnie Bolton. U. S. Postal Food Drive.
- 5. Jeannie McKinley. Baca Family Heritage Day.
- 6. Marisa Maez. NMDOT Bike Safety Month.
- 7. Alta Vista Regional Hospital. National Women’s Health Week.
- 8. Simón Romero. Phone interview. His work history as a New York Times Correspondent.
- 9. City Staff. City Clean up day and trash Amnesty Day.

May 2, 2019

Duration: 8:05 a.m. to 9 a.m.

Program: "To Your Health"

Narrative: Dr. Stauber talked about Eye care and offered health tips. Macular Degeneration.

5/3/2019

Duration: 8:20 a.m. to 9:15 a.m.

Program: Supporting local businesses

Narrative: Sean and Katy Sinclair introduced themselves as the owners of the new restaurant and bar located at the Historic Fred Harvey Casteneda Hotel.

5/7/2019

Duration: 9:05 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.

Program: Folds of Honor golf fundraiser

Narrative: Patricia Quick and Dr. Frank Sanchez informed the community about Folds of Honor program which supports families of U. S soldiers killed or injured in action protecting our country. Money raised from the golf tournament goes for scholarships offered to children of these military families.

5/8/2019

Duration: 8:05 a.m. to 8:25 a.m.

Program: U. S. Postal service food drive.

Narrative: Mrs. Bonnie Bolton encouraged residents to place nonperishable canned food items by their mail box so postal carriers can pick them up. The food is distributed to local food pantries which is given to needy families.

5/9/2019

Duration: 9:30 a.m. 9:50 a.m.

Program: Baca Family Heritage Day. June 14 & 15th 2019.

Narrative: Jeannie McKinley, director of the Citizens Committee for Historic Preservation informed the community about the two day event to honor the name and heritage of the Cabeza de Vaca, Baca and Cde Baca families. Several historians are scheduled to speak.

5/10/2019

Duration: 8:45 a.m. to 9:25 a.m.

Program: Bike Safety Month.

Narrative: Marisa Maez, director of communications with the New Mexico State Department of transportation informed the community about "Bike Safety Month" and offered some safety tips.

5/13/2019

Duration: 8:05 a.m. to 9: a.m.

Program: National Women's Health Week.

Narrative: Doctor Tracy Wilkerson and medical student Adam Moreno with Alta Vista Regional Hospital spoke about the subject and offered details and health tips for women to follow in taking care of their health.

5/15/2019

Duration: 8:30 a.m. to 9:20 a.m.

Program: Local New York Times news Correspondent

Narrative: Mr. Simón Romero, a local resident and graduate of West Las Vegas High School attended Harvard University then was hired by the New York times as a news correspondent. He spoke about his duties, this world travels and some of the news stories he had reported on. We believe he is a real inspiration to our local youth.

5/17/2019

Duration: 9:18 a.m. to 9:45 a.m.

Program: City Trash Amnesty Day.

Narrative: City staff Lucas Marquez, Solid Waste Manager and Alvin Jiron, Recycling Coordinator promoted the City amnesty clean up day and encouraged residents to take their extra trash and large items to three different locations in an effort to clean our city.

5/21/2019

Duration: 8:05 a.m. to 8:50 a.m.

Program: Luna Community College STEM Reading Camp.

Narrative: Mr Francisco Apodaca, director of the STEM program at the college promoted the Summer program to work with students improve their education in a fun way. They have room for 50 applicants. It is a five week program at $100 per student to cover all material expenses. Five instructors will volunteer to teach the classes.