

JUNE FCC 2ND QT 2019

The following issues of concern were discussed on KFUN/AM & KLVE/FM Radio

1. "To Your Health". Host Dr. Cathy Stauber.
2. Joseph Anders, Head Basketball coach at Highlands University. (Community Give Back).
3. N. M. Economic Development Director Alicia Keyes and film office director Todd Christensen.
- 4 Joanna Nelson. State FUNDIT program.
5. City Staff, promoting the 4th of July Festivities.
6. Dr. Crystal Umphlett & Robyn Jaureguiberry, with Divine Dental. "Dental Education".
7. Martin Gonzales, coach for Little League Team, Won District ballgame.
8. City Staff, Library, Community Development, Fire Department. 4th of July update.

June 6, 2019

Program: "To Your Health"

Duration: 8:04 a.m. to 9: a. m.

Narrative:

Dr. Cathy Stauber spoke about new research regarding women's cholesterol levels with high risk for stroke. The importance of proper use of sunscreen. The dangerous use of cancer causing Roundup. ETC.

June 11, 2019

Program: Community Give Back Program.

Duration: 8:05 a.m. to 8:31 a.m.

Narrative:

New Mexico Highlands University women's head basketball coach Joseph Anders invited the community to take part in the third Community Give Back youth program. Several coaches, men and women athletes and volunteers offer this program to expose youth to the sport of basketball, the youth learn to compete, to play in a professional and positive manner, get to meet and interact with university athletes, tour the university campus.

June 11. 2019

Program: State Economic Development and film office.

Duration: 8:30 a.m. to 8:55 a.m.

Narrative:

Alice Keyes, state director of economic development and Todd Christensen, director of film dept. They both spoke about job opportunities and business growth in the state. Mr. Christensen spoke about the film industry in the state. The many film companies wanting to film in New Mexico. Many film companies do not want to film in the state of Georgia, are now calling New Mexico.

June 13, 2019

Program: New Mexico "Fund It" program.

Duration: 8:10 a.m. to 8:50 a.m.

Narrative:

Joanna Nelson, director of the state "Fund It" program, explained that the program works with small rural communities who may have shovel ready projects but need funding to complete the projects. "Fund It" brings together funding experts from various agencies who offer advise to community officials on funding sources and facilitate bringing experts and town's people together.

June 14, 2019

Program: City staff from Library, Community Development, & City Museum.

Duration: 8:04 a.m. to 8:55 a.m.

Narrative: Staff from each department promoted the programs and services offered in their departments year round.

June 20, 2019

Program: Staff from Divine Dental.

Duration: 8:05 a.m. to 8:40 a.m.

Narrative:

Dr. Crystal Umphlett spoke about proper dental care, brushing, using dental floss, new procedures now used, children seeing a dentist as an early age, ETC. Robyn spoke about the insurances accepted, payment plans, ETC.

June 27, 2019

Program: youth athletes, members of La Plaza little League team. They won the District Championship, now traveling to Carlsbad, New Mexico to compete in state competition, if they win they then compete in regional and if they win this one, they move on to nationals.

June 28, 2019

program: City staff informed the community about city services.

Duration: 8:05 a.m. to 8:45 a.m.

Narrative:

Lori Encinias, children's Librarian spoke about the summer reading programs and friends of the library book sale.

Virginia Marrojo gave an up date on 4th of July events. Fire deputy chief Steve Spann and Captain Daniel Atencio spoke about fire and fireworks safety.