

FCC 2018 2ND QT. PUBLIC FILE REPORT

MONTH OF JUNE.

The following issues affecting our community/county and surrounding areas were discussed on our talk show, “Over The Back Fence” over KFUN/AM 1230 & KLVF/FM 100.7

1. Construction & rehabilitation of City Bradner Dam Site .
2. Fort Union National Monument.
3. West Las Vegas School District Summer Food Program.
4. Democratic Gubernatorial Candidate for New Mexico Governor.
5. Dr. Cathy Stauber, “To Your Health”.
6. 4th of July Fiesta Run.
7. Meadow City Health Clinic.
8. “What's Cooking @ City Hall”.
9. Film Documentary premier, “The Providers”
10. “What's Cooking @ City Hall”. City Police Department report.
11. Fort Union National Monument.
12. Local showing of the documentary film “The Providers”.
13. Sapello, New Mexico Fire Chief. “Report of extreme fire danger”.

6/1/2018

Talk duration: 8:10 a. m. to 9 a.m.

Program: Live Remote from City Bradner Dam Site.

Narrative: Radio station staff met with the city of Las Vegas Utilities Director, contractors, Engineers at the construction site to report on the status of construction and reclaiming of Brader Dam which is the communities main water storage source. The goal was to paint a vivid mental picture in the minds of citizens of the progress being attained and to help disperse the many rumors circulating that the city was now moving forward with this project. Discussion took place about the possibility of conducting another live remote at the time of completion of the project to inform the community.

6/4/2018

Talk duration: 8:05 a. m. to 8:50 a.m.

Program: Congresswoman Michelle Lujan Grisham phone interview.

Narrative:

We conducted a phone interview with U. S. Congresswoman Michelle Lujan Grisham who is a candidate for New Mexico Governor on the Democratic ticket. She discussed her plan for the state, answered questions and urged people to vote in the primary election.

6/7/2018

Talk duration: 8:05 a.m. to 9 a. m.

Program: “To Your Health.”

Narrative:

Dr. Cathy Stauber hosted her show. Talked about: Report featuring a medical survey which stated that Opioids were not effective for low back, hip & knee pain, published in the Journal American Medical Association issue of March 2018. Also gave an up date on nutrition, the importance of eating healthy foods, physical activity, drinking plenty of water and forming good sleeping habits.

6/11/2018

Talk duration: 8:10 a. m. to 8:47 a. m.

Program: July 4th Fiesta Run.

Narrative:

Mary Byers & Joseph Whiteman promoted the Fiests Run, announced details such as dates, times, run route, different age groups and rules to follow.

6/12/2018

Talk duration: 8:30 a. m. to 9 a.m.

Program: Fort Union National Monument events.

Narrative:

Mr. Mike Weinstein, park ranger provided a report of special events during Fort Union Days. Spoke about the history of the fort and it's important service, protection it provided to travelers of the time on the Santa Fe Trail. ETC.

6/13/2018

Talk duration: 8:05 a.m. to 8:35 a.m.

Program: West Las Vegas School District Summer Food Program

Narrative:

Mr. Paul Sandoval, food service program director informed the community about the Seamless Summer Food Program which is a free service for the youth, adults pay a minimal price for the noon lunch. Including, locations of service, times, dates, who is elligable for the meals, it is a state program funded by the federal government. ETC.

6/14/2018

Talk duration: 8:21 a.m. to 8:35 a.m.

Program: "To Your Health"

Narrative:

Local nurse Jennifer Gallegos, employee with Meadow City Clinic, informed listeners about the history of the clinic, services provided, insurance plans accepted, business hours, location and phone number, spoke about the sports physicals, and sports safety. ETC.

6/15/2018

Talk duration: 8:05 a. m. to 8:51 a.m.

Program: "What's Cooking @ City Hall"

Narrative:

City police officers, Lt. Steve Pacheco, & Commander Pamela Sandoval informed the community about the police safety plan for the upcoming July 4th Fiestas. ETC.

6/20/2018

Talk duration: 8:30 a.m. to 9 a. m.

Program: History of Fort Union National Monument

Narrative:

Mr. Lorenzo Vigil, chief of interpretation offered a detailed history report of the fort, it's purpose and mission, was a self sustaining U. S. Army fort, the soldiers protected it's citizens living at the fort from Indian attacks including citizens in near by communities and travelers on the Santa Fe Trail. The fort even had it's own baseball team, who's front uniforms displayed the large letters "F U". Which stood for, "Fort Union.

6/21/2018

Talk duration: 9:04 a.m. to 9:57 a. m.

Program: Discussion of film documentary, "The Providers".

Narrative:

El Centro Family Health Center public information director Matthew Probest introduced the two film makers who produced the documentary film that followed local doctors to rural small communities as they treated their patients. Guests included city chief of police and Yolanda Cruz, director of the County DWI program.

6/26/2018

Talk duration: 8:05 a. m. to 9 a.m.

Program: Discussion of the high fire danger state wide.

Narrative:

Loretta Baca, station owner/partner and her two co-hosts welcomed Danelle Lucero, the Assistant Fire Chief with the Sapello Fire Department in New Mexico. The chief spoke about the extreme and high forest fire danger in all the state and Northeastern New Mexico, Colorado, Kansas ETC. The fire danger posed by the use of fire works was also stressed.