KQAY Planting
seeds

My name is Maria Camen Gonzalez and I am running for City Commissioner, District 1. I have been a resident of Tucumcari for the past 40 years. I want to plant the seeds of growth and prosperity in our town. The citizens of district one deserve a leader who has a clear vision of how to get from point A to point B and a leader that communicates to the citizens on how they (the people) stand on a particular issue. Your vote on Tuesday November 7th will help to rebuild our struggling economy and boost efforts of bringing in new business to town. I believe in change. Change is good for a city not harvesting growth in so many years. I take a stand on the most important issues facing our dying economy. Such as city streets, the creation of new jobs, new business ventures and bringing back the citizens trust in city government. Vote for change and progress. Join me in becoming a change maker and help me plant the seeds of growth. Vote for good leadership on November 7th. Vote for Maria Carmen Gonzalez, District 1, City Commissioner.

My name is Maria Camen Gonzalez and I am running for City Commissioner, District 1. I have been a resident of Tucumcari for the past 40 years. I remember that there is a rich history in our city, but totally forgotten by city leaders and citizens. Tucumcari was well known as "The Blue Ribbon City". What a fitting title to our city. I am running for the position because I believe it is time to select new leaders and begin to plant the seeds of growth. Your vote on Tuesday November 7th will help to rebuild our struggling economy and boost efforts of bringing in new business to town. I believe in change.
